media, this impressive three-volume reference source will be important to researchers, practitioners, developers, and students of the digital arts.

Notable Americans of Czechoslovak Ancestry in Arts and Letters and in Education Miloslav Rechcigl Jr.,2021-11-02 As pointed out in my last two publications, no comprehensive study has been undertaken about the American Learned Men and Women with Czechoslovak roots. The aim of this work is to correct this glaring deficiency, with the focus on immigration from the period of mass migration and beyond, irrespective whether they were born in their European ancestral homes or whether they have descended from them. Whereas in the two mentioned monographs, the emphasis has been on scholars and social and natural scientists; and men and women in medicine, applied sciences and engineering, respectively, the present compendium deals with notable Americans of Czechoslovak ancestry in arts and letters, and in education. With respect to women, although most professional fields were closed to them through much of the nineteenth century, the area of arts and letters was opened to them, as noted earlier and as this compendium authenticates.

Machine Learning and Knowledge Discovery in Databases Albert Bifet,Michael May,Bianca Zadrozny,Ricard Gavalda,Dino Pedreschi,Francesco Bonchi,Jaime Cardoso,Myra Spiliopoulou,2015-08-28 The three volume set LNAI 9284, 9285, and 9286 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the European Conference on Machine Learning and Knowledge Discovery in Databases, ECML PKDD 2015, held in Porto, Portugal, in September 2015. The 131 papers presented in these proceedings were carefully reviewed and selected from a total of 483 submissions. These include 89 research papers, 11 industrial papers, 14 nectar papers, 17 demo papers. They were organized in topical sections named: classification, regression and supervised learning; clustering and unsupervised learning; data preprocessing; data streams and online learning; deep learning; distance and metric learning; large scale learning and big data; matrix and tensor analysis; pattern and sequence mining; preference learning and label ranking; probabilistic, statistical, and graphical approaches; rich data; and social and graphs. Part III is structured in industrial track, nectar track, and demo track.

Your Band Is a Virus! James Moore,2012-11-29 Independent musicians in 2012 find themselves more confused than ever before and finding good information can be a challenge. This guide gives information on advocating and presenting the right product to the world, timing a release properly, promoting music blogs and publications with a personal touch, outsourcing and freelancing, and thinking outside of the box.

Human Michael Blaney,2015-03-06 A boy who had to grow up as a man as challenges he faced were the sort some of us never even think about. But, one after another after another, this young man with heart of gold and the love of man kept getting his faith tested as man himself would treat this young man like he was nothing more than gutter trash. But the young man kept believing. The true story of one of Hollywood's most prolific minds as a screenwriter, author, graphic novelist and songwriter. Only for his later years for this man to have to put his dreams aside for the sake of helping others and that road would leave to an attempted suicide on his part and the hills after that would test any man's faith. Michael Blaney puts others first, discover a life filled with learning how to forgive and lessons that you would only go through in a horror movie. A true survivor.

The Indie Band Survival Guide Randy Chertkow, Jason Feehan, 2008-08-05 The Indie Band Survival Guide (2008 edition) is a tremendous resource for musicians looking to record, distribute, market, and sell their music for less than most rock stars spend on green M&M's. Musicians and web gurus Randy Chertkow and Jason Feehan cover every step of the process. With nothing but creative talent and the Web, they've gotten tens of thousands of fans for their band, in addition to being hired to write music for film, television, theater, and other media.

Billboard ,2011-10-01 In its 114th year, Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital, events, brand, content and data licensing platform. Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music, video, gaming, media, digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends.

Ripped Greg Kot, 2010-05-11 Tells the story of how the laptop generation created a new grassroots music industry, with the fans and bands rather than the corporations in charge.

Resounding the Rhetorical Byron Hawk, 2018-07-31 Resounding the Rhetorical offers an original critical and theoretical examination of composition as a quasi-object. As composition flourishes in multiple media (digital, sonic, visual, etc.), Byron Hawk seeks to connect new materialism with current composition scholarship and critical theory. Using sound and music as his examples, he demonstrates how a quasi-object can and does materialize for communicative and affective expression, and becomes a useful mechanism for the study and execution of composition as a discipline. Through careful readings of Serres, Latour, Deleuze, Heidegger, and others, Hawk reconstructs key concepts in the field including composition, process, research, collaboration, publics, and rhetoric. His work delivers a cutting-edge response to the state of the field, where it is headed, and the possibilities for postprocess and postwriting composition and rhetoric.

The MusicSocket.com Music Industry Directory 2016 J. Paul Dyson, 2015-09-06 This indispensable directory is a must-have for anyone wanting to make it in the music industry. It gives you: • Hundreds of record labels • Hundreds of music managers • Indexes by genre, so you can quickly find all the right listings • Access to overseas markets It also provides free access to the entire current databases online, including over 1,500 record labels, and over 1,000 managers, with dozens of new and updated listings every month. Your free subscription can be taken out at any time until 2017, and comes packed with all the following features: Advanced search features Save searches and save time – set up to 15 search parameters specific to your work, save them, and then access the search results with a single click whenever you log in. You can even save multiple different searches if you have different types of work you are looking to place. Add personal notes to listings, visible only to you and fully searchable – helping you to organise your actions. Set reminders on listings to notify you when to submit your work, when to follow up, when to expect a reply, or any other custom action. Track which listings you've viewed and when, to help you organise your search – any listings which have changed since you last viewed them will be highlighted for your attention. Daily email updates As a subscriber you will be able to take advantage of our email alert service, meaning you can specify your particular interests and we'll send you automatic email updates when we change or add a listing that matches them. So if you're interested in labels dealing in hard rock in the United States you can have us send you emails with the latest updates about them – keeping you up to date without even having to log in. User feedback Our databases include a user feedback feature that allows our subscribers to leave feedback on each listing – giving you not only the chance to have your say about the markets you contact, but giving a unique artist's perspective on the listings. Save on copyright protection fees If you're sending your work away to record labels and managers you should first consider protecting your copyright. As a subscriber to MusicSocket you can do this through our site and save 10% on the copyright registration fees normally payable for protecting your work internationally through the Intellectual Property Rights Office (<https://www.CopyrightRegistrationService.com>).

Unsound William Davenport, 2018-08-20 Unsound magazine was published from 1983-1987. Before the inception of the internet and on the brink of the desktop publishing revolution, Unsound created a forum for cutting-edge musicians and artists to connect. Unsound attempted to create an open forum, within the pages bands, artists and writers could post profiles, publish articles, interviews, and reviews. Each featured some of the first coverage of some of the best bands of the period including Sonic Youth, Swans, Test Department, Hunting Lodge, Negativland, Chris & Cosey, Borbetomagus, The Haters, Problemist, and many more. The pages of Unsound are filled with unique creativity and an obvious relish for the weird.
