CEO's Pampered Sweetheart Yu Mu,2020-08-08 For Ning Xianyu, her husband meant that they lived together under the same roof. Other than the fact that they occasionally loved each other in front of their elders and outsiders, they were like strangers that she was most familiar with. However... During the menstrual period, her husband bought 'bread' for her, boiled brown sugar water for her as a warm stove. Wandering in a luxury store was looked down by others, and her husband directly drove her out of A-City. He even let her enter the largest plaza of luxury goods, so she could choose from among them. Not an arranged marriage? Didn't they say that he couldn't be humane in a car accident? Who was the man in her bed, demanding too much from her? If there is one, there is two. If there is one, there is two. If there is one, there is three... Hubby Xie smiled charmingly and pressed over. Just when Ning Xianyu thought that such a marriage wasn't bad, he suddenly turned into the main culprit behind all of this. Divorce! Divorce immediately! She clenched her fists, unable to accept that all of this was a scam.

Young Master, Control Yourself Qing Fengnuanyu,2020-01-15 Eight years later, an accident brought her together with him. If I help you, how are you going to repay me? He lifted her chin slightly, the corners of his mouth curving slightly. She never would have thought that the youth who didn't even dare to look at her directly had now turned into an evil and dark figure. She wanted to avoid him, but he held her back again and again. Gu Tong, you don't need to pretend to be strong in front of me. A woman who knows how to give in can more easily arouse a man's desire to protect her. I am an independent and independent woman in the 21st century. I don't need a man to protect me! You said it. He curled his lips and quickly left. The next day, a marriage contract was presented to her, and she was forced by him to sign her name on it. That night, he suppressed her with a flip of his hand. My dear wife, our marriage contract clearly states that it is the duty of the husband to protect and love his wife ...

Women and the Literary World in Early Modern China, 1580-1700 Daria Berg,2013-07-24 Exploring the works of key women writers within their cultural, artistic and socio-political contexts, this book considers changes in the perception of women in early modern China. The sixteenth century brought rapid developments in technology, commerce and the publishing industry that saw women emerging in new roles as both consumers and producers of culture. This book examines the place of women in the cultural elite and in society more generally, reconstructing examples of particular women's personal experiences, and retracing the changing roles of women from the late

Ming to the early Qing era (1580-1700). Providing rich detail of exceptionally fine, interesting and engaging literary works, this book opens fascinating new windows onto the lives, dreams, nightmares, anxieties and desires of the authors and the world out of which they emerged.

Peerless God of War Zi CaiDanTang,2020-05-10 He pointed his finger at Qing Yun as he swallowed a mountain and river with his mouth. Tens of thousands of blood surged as his divine body connected to the heavens. The youth carried a picture of Yin and Yang; he had been reborn to kill his enemies! Red dust covered a distance of 10,000 feet, and blood dyed the heavens and earth. In the struggle for supremacy, who would be the main contender? The true essence of life and death was a secret of ten thousand years. It was to use the sea of blood to create heaven and earth, and it was to use dried up bones to become a war god of life and death. All is on the battle of life and death.

If not, he would pamper her to the heavens. Just because he glanced at the clothes, he directly monopolized the entire shopping mall under her name. He said, As long as you want it, I want it!

The Monster That Is History David Der-Wei Wang,2004-10-04 In ancient China a monster called Taowu was known for both its vicious nature and its power to see the past and the future. Over the centuries Taowu underwent many incarnations until it became identifiable with history itself. Since the seventeenth century, fictive accounts of history have accommodated themselves to the monstrous nature of Taowu. Moving effortlessly across the entire twentieth-century literary landscape, David Der-wei Wang delineates the many meanings of Chinese violence and its literary manifestations. Taking into account the campaigns of violence and brutality that have rocked generations of Chinese—often in the name of enlightenment, rationality, and utopian plenitude—this book places its arguments along two related axes: history and representation, modernity and monstrosity. Wang considers modern Chinese history as a complex of geopolitical, ethnic, gendered, and personal articulations of bygone and ongoing events. His discussion ranges from the politics of decapitation to the poetics of suicide, and from the typology of hunger and starvation to the technology of crime and punishment.
