Lost in Love Grass Steve Rogers,2017-11-17 Steve Rogers' first book tells an amazing tale through the eyes of an 85-year-old Alzheimer's sufferer. The tale features octogenarian Tom Ryan, who lives in a nursing home he hates. Widowed and in diapers, he absolutely detests his life. Tom's salvation comes by way of his daily visit to the nursing home's recreation room and its 10-foot by 12-foot AstroTurf putting green. When he steps onto that magic carpet he remembers his life, but only his life on the golf course, from when he first picked up a club to his last experiences as a course ranger. It's an irreverent journey through people, places, and events all related to his life in golf. According to Tom: "I may not remember what I ate for breakfast, but when I'm on this little patch of plastic grass, I remember - people, places, shots, holes, funny stuff, sad stuff, all like it was yesterday ... Like my good friend Eddie always says, 'It's the most fun you can have with your pants on.' The stuff I remember, or think I remember, could fill up a book."

But You Must! Steve Lillis, Devra Robledo, 2013-02-25 But You Must! The Steve Lillis Story is an autobiography by professional pool player Steve 'Leapin' Lillis which shares candid accounts of Steve's personal journey with one of life's games (pocket billiards) and one of life's quests (a search for God). Steve follows his dream of becoming a professional pool player and, along the way, finds romantic love, serious challenges, and depression-ridden disappointments. The pitfalls of drugs, alcohol, strife, and gambling which often find residence in the world of pool create less than hospitable situations at every turn. In an attempt to find answers, Steve continues to ask the question, What do you want me to do, Lord? Although the answer does not come quickly, the answer does come. Steve writes: My love for the sport of billiards began at a pool table in a bowling alley. The joy of playing was my fascination with watching the balls rolling along the felt toward their intended pockets. As I got older, my focus changed. Joyful fascination turned into obsession when I began steering the balls toward the pockets for my own self serving profit and recognition. Realizing the emptiness of my pursuit, I turned away from pool, vowing to never play again. However, God had a different plan...  Back Cover
