Manifesto about Women in STEM Louise Lafortune,Audrey Groleau,Claire Deschênes,2022-05-30 In 2022, how are women in STEM (science, technology, engineering and mathematics) faring? The Manifesto about Women in STEM is a collection of 50 texts that speak to the population at large. It brings together the thoughts of several authors, including individuals (both women and men) and groups from the school, university and private sector realms, who work with women in STEM in French-speaking Canada. This Manifesto is intended to be positive and impactful, even if work still remains to be done to achieve equity and equality. Several important issues are still current, such as workfamily balance and motherhood without penalty. Issues such as intersectionality, EDI (equity, diversity and inclusion) and the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on women in STEM are also explored. There are texts that address the intersection of STEM and each of health, the arts, education and philosophy. Others deal with women who experience multiple forms of discrimination, for example Indigenous women and non-heterosexual women in STEM. Pioneers relate their obstacle-ridden but fulfilling journeys. Seven recommendations are proposed for a society looking to achieve equity, diversity and inclusion of women in STEM in an intersectional perspective.

Manifeste à propos des femmes en STIM Louise

Lafortune,Audrey Groleau,Claire Deschênes,2022-02-15

Production de l'équipe de l'AFFESTIM : Association de la francophonie à propos des femmes en sciences, technologies, ingénierie et mathématiques Message de la ministre Isabelle Charest Préface de Janice Bailey et Fanny Eugène Postface de Maryse Lassonde En 2022, qu'en est-il de la situation des femmes en STIM (sciences, technologies, ingénierie, mathématiques) ? Le Manifeste à propos des femmes en STIM propose 50 textes qui s'adressent à l'ensemble de la population. Il rassemble les réflexions de plusieurs auteures, auteurs et regroupements issus des milieux scolaires, universitaires et privés qui oeuvrent à propos des femmes en STIM dans la francophonie canadienne. Ce Manifeste se veut positif et percutant, même s'il reste du chemin à faire vers l'équité et la parité. Plusieurs enjeux de taille demeurent d'actualité, comme la conciliation travail-famille et la maternité sans pénalité. Des enjeux comme l'intersectionnalité, l'EDI (équité, diversité et inclusion) et l'impact de la pandémie de COVID-19 sur les femmes en STIM sont également explorés.

Soulignons les textes proposés à l'intersection entre les STIM et les domaines de la santé, des arts, de l'éducation et de la philosophie. D'autres textes montrent la préoccupation pour les femmes doublement minorisées, comme les femmes autochtones et les femmes non hétérosexuelles dans les domaines des STIM. Des pionnières témoignent de leur cheminement pavé d'obstacles, mais aussi de plaisirs. Sept recommandations sont proposées pour une société qui vise l'équité, la diversité et l'inclusion des femmes en STIM dans une perspective intersectionnelle. Musical Migrations F. Aparicio,C. Jàquez,2003-01-03 A dynamic and original collection of essays on the transnational circulation and changing social meanings of Latin music across the Americas. The transcultural impact of Latin American musical forms in the United States calls for a deeper understanding of the shifting cultural meanings of music. Musical Migrations examines the tensions between the value of Latin popular music as a metaphor for national identity and its transnational meanings as it traverses national borders, geocultural spaces, audiences, and historical periods. The anthology analyzes, among others, the role of popular music in Caribbean diasporas in the United States and Europe, the trans-Caribbean identities of Salsa and reggae, the racial, cultural, and ethnic hybridity in rock across the Americas, and the tensions between tradition and modernity in Peruvian indigenous music, mariachi music in the United States, and in Trinidadian music.

The $100 Startup Chris Guillebeau,2012-05-08 Lead a life of adventure, meaning and purpose—and earn a good living. “Thoughtful, funny, and compulsively readable, this guide shows how ordinary people can build solid livings, with independence and purpose, on their own terms.”—Gretchen Rubin, author of the #1 New York Times bestseller The Happiness Project Still in his early thirties, Chris Guillebeau completed a tour of every country on earth and yet he’s never held a “real job” or earned a regular paycheck. Rather, he has a special genius for turning ideas into income, and he uses what he earns both to support his life of adventure and to give back. Chris identified 1,500 individuals who have built businesses earning $50,000 or more from a modest investment (in many cases, $100 or less), and focused on the 50 most intriguing case studies. In nearly all cases, people with no special skills discovered aspects of their personal passions that could be monetized, and were able to restructure their lives in ways that gave them greater freedom and fulfillment. Here, finally, distilled into one easy-to-use guide, are the most valuable lessons from those who’ve learned how to turn what they do into a gateway to self-fulfillment. It’s all about finding the intersection between your “expertise”—even if you don’t consider it such—and what other people will pay for. You don’t need an MBA, a business plan or even employees. All you need is a product or service that springs from what you love to do anyway, people willing to pay, and a way to get paid. Not content to talk in generalities, Chris tells you exactly how many dollars his group of unexpected entrepreneurs required to get their projects up and running; what these individuals did in the first weeks and months to generate significant cash; some of the key mistakes they made along the way, and the crucial insights that made the business stick. Among Chris's key principles: If you're good at one thing, you're probably good at something else; never teach a man to fish—sell him the fish instead; and in the battle between planning and action, action wins. In ancient times, people who were dissatisfied with their lives dreamed of finding magic lamps, buried treasure, or streets paved with gold. Today, we know that it's up to us to change our lives. And the best part is, if we change our own life, we can help others change theirs. This remarkable book will start you on your way.
