DESIRES & DESTINIES KALPESH SHETH, 2020-10-28 24 tales. 24 choices. 24 consequences. "For all young adults and young-at-heart adults!" We often look at life as black and white. What happens when life throws such situations in our face, which are neither black nor white? These tales will compel you to travel to grey areas and challenge your ethics and moralities. What's right and what's wrong are often nothing but mirages. Our beliefs often come crashing down like a pack of cards when life happens. Through the pages of Desires & Destinies, you'll find yourself living with the characters and debating the choices you'd make if you were in their place. The bouquet contains some tales that are based on naked realities, some are pure fantasies, while the rest are in the twilight zone where they merge. We welcome you to the journey of rediscovering yourself through these tales.

Sona and the Wedding Game Kashmira Sheth, 2022-05-24 Experience the magic of an Indian wedding in story about a girl playing a fun, traditional game on her sister's wedding day. Sona's big sister Nisha is getting married and Sona has been given an important job. She has to steal the groom's shoes. Her grandmother tells her that this tradition is intended to help the bride's and groom's families get to know each other. If Sona is successful, Anil-ji will have to bargain with her to get his shoes back and she can ask for a special reward. Sona has never attended a wedding before, so she's unfamiliar with this Indian tradition—as well as many of the other magical experiences that will occur before and during the special event. There's so much to do: making garlands and rangoli designs to decorate their home, welcoming relatives from India, and helping Nisha-ben get ready. And there are so many exciting things happening: an artist draws patterns on the hands of the girls and women at a mehndi party, Dadima fancy braids Sona's hair—and the groom arrives on a white horse! Still, Sona can't stop worrying about how she will steal Anil-ji's shoes. Fortunately her know-it-all cousin Vishal, who has arrived from India, is available to help Sona come up with a plan. In an author's note, Kashmira Sheth describes her childhood experiences attending weddings in India (she never got to steal the shoes!) and explains the significance of the Hindu customs and rituals described in the story.

Permanent Establishments Ekkehart Reimer,Stefan Schmid,Marianne Orell,2018-06-07 Permanent Establishments (PEs) are a key facet of international taxation. They constitute the crucial threshold for the assignment of taxing rights to a jurisdiction in all cases of enterprises operating in more than one country. The issue of whether there is a PE, and how much profit should be allocated to it, is an increasingly important factor in tax planning, tax accounting, tax compliance, and related tax risk management. Groundbreaking developments have reshaped the face of the classical PE concept during the year 2017. Following action item no. 7 of the Anti-BEPS efforts of G20 and OECD, the OECD has presented the Multilateral Instrument (MLI) on Base Erosion and Profit Shifting in June 2017. Based on the MLI as well as earlier drafts, Article 5 of the OECD Model Tax Convention and the Official Commentary have been amended in November 2017. Similarly, Article 7 of the OECD Model Tax Convention on the allocation of income in PE situations is influenced by the October 2015 OECD BEPS proposals. This academically rigorous yet thoroughly practical work provides comprehensive guidance on a variety of complex PE issues. Its initial chapters analyse the latest OECD and EU developments in the context of Articles 5 and 7 of the OECD Model Tax Convention. 21 country chapters cover domestic PE issues as well as country-specific treaty developments from a practical perspective.
