Visionaire Cecilia Dean, James Kaliardos, 2016-10-11 Showcasing twenty-five years of iconic art, fashion, and design content from renowned New York-based publication Visionaire. A publishing experiment that began in 1991, Visionaire has taken the shape of everything from a leather-bound portfolio to 12-inch vinyl records to a collection of dolls. With intimate reflections by contributors, a prized collection of nearly 450 images selected from sixty-five issues produced by an astounding cast of artists, photographers, and designers, this book delivers a rich panorama of two decades of media and fashion revolution from the perspective of independent publishing. Original commentary by cofounders Cecilia Dean and James Kaliardos provides unprecedented access to a pivotal New York scene and the creative life behind Visionaire as it shaped the fashion zeitgeist, propelling emerging voices and exceptional content while challenging the limits of print media. This volume is an essential piece of contemporary fashion and media history that traces the shape of things to come. Visionaire contributors include photographers Bruce Weber, Inez & Vinoodh, Mario Sorrenti, Mert and Marcus, Steven Klein, and Steven Meisel; artists Alex Katz, John Baldessari, KAWS, Marina Abramovic, and Yoko Ono; designers Karl Lagerfeld, Rei Kawakubo, and Riccardo Tisci; pop icons Bjork, David Bowie, Kate Moss, Lady Gaga, and Miley Cyrus; and many more. Art and fashion connoisseurs and anyone interested in media, design, and culture will find this landmark volume indispensable.

Visionaire's Fashion 2001 Stephen Gan, 1999 Photographs and text profile the creations of some of the most popular fashion designers of first two years of the twenty-first century.

Visionaire No. 58: Spirit, 2010 Several years before issue 58 came to be, Alexander Lee McQueen came to the Visionaire office to discuss collaborating on an issue that ultimately never happened. One day, the staff was discussing a potential issue printed on seeded paper, and the next day, news came that McQueen, one of the most brilliant creative minds of our time, had passed away. The team took this as a sign and dedicated SPIRIT to him. The issue set out to commemorate McQueen's life and career by publishing the imagery that had defined it. From the iconic Nick Knight image of Devon Aoki with a pin through her forehead to the haunting Inez van Lamsweerde & Vinoodh Matadin portrait of the designer himself, SPIRIT amassed photographs that, like McQueen and his revolutionary fashion, were completely unforgettable. Mario Sorrenti collaborated with fashion editor Camilla Nickerson producing a photo -- based on the sacrificial lamb -- that current Alexander McQueen creative director Sarah Burton describes as incredibly moving and powerful yet heartbreakingly fragile. Printed onto pulp paper embedded with seeds, the issue could be planted to transform into a garden of wildflowers -- a statement about the transience of life and fashion that honored the designer's vision-- Publisher's description

Visionaire No. 63: Forever, 2013-10-31 In its relentless pursuit of pushing the idea of the printed magazine to new progressive heights, Visionaire has pioneered issues that are wearable, edible, audible, sprayable, playable, magical, tactile, digital, and now--with its 63rd issue--indestructible. The world-record breaking collectible limited-edition art and fashion publication strives one step closer along the path to immortality with Visionaire 63 Forever. Working with CGI artists, Visionaire transforms 2D photographs into 3D reliefs, pounded into 9x12-inch embossed metal plates. Conceived with the support of G-Shock, "The Toughest Watch in the World-the watch that never breaks," the inkless and paperless publication aims to take the durable capabilities of high-performance, weather-resistant gadgetry and apply them to the medium of the art and fashion image. Complete with an all-metal case acting as a frame, each issue comes with 10 embossed "pages" by contemporary artists and fashion photographers. Mario Testino contributes the ultimate contemporary fashion icon, Kate Moss, the most recognizable face in the world. Photography duo Inez & Vinoodh capture the iconoclast, Lady Gaga. Fashion designer and photographer Karl Lagerfeld celebrates the grace and strength of the nude male form by photographing his muse, Baptiste. Craig McDean photographs a skull wrapped in vines dating from the mid-1800s used to obtain spiritual guidance. The artist duo Gilbert & George appropriate the icon of Queen Elizabeth's bust taken from British currency, sparking conversations about value, immortality, royalty, life and death. Yoko Ono creates a new text piece and asks the viewer to gaze at their reflection in the mirrored metal and read, "Grow Love with Me". Other contributions by Maurizio Cattelan and Pierpaolo Ferrari, Solve Sundsbo, Steven Klein, and Richard Avedon. All product shots by Plamen Petkov--Publisher's description.

Fashion Design, Referenced Alicia Kennedy, Emily Banis Stoehrer, Jay Calderin, 2013-02-01 Fashion Design, Referenced is a comprehensive guide through the art and industry of fashion design, richly illustrated with over 1,000 photographs and drawings. Within the framework of four central categories, Fashion Design, Referenced examines the many interwoven elements that form the tapestry of fashion. "Fundamentals" provides an overview of the essential structure of the fashion profession (its organization, specializations, and centers) and looks at shifts in style over time and in ever-faster cycles going forward. "Principles" introduces the steps in creating a collection, from design to production, and explores directions suggested by sustainability and technology. "Dissemination" charts the many avenues by which fashion reaches its audience, whether on the catwalk or in the store, in print or online, in the museum or on the street. "Practice" gathers and appraises the work of the most influential and innovative fashion designers of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. From its first question—What is fashion design?—to its last—What does the future hold?—Fashion Design, Referenced chronicles the scope of ideas, inspirations, and expressions that define fashion culture. Issues Jeremy Leslie, 2000 Issues highlights the publications that have revolutionized magazine design and examines the concepts behind their format, page designs, covers, words and images. David Carson's Raygun, Terry Jones' ID, and Visionaire are three powerful examples that have broken traditions and forged images that are aesthetically individual and unique. Around the world countless magazines are published on a regular basis and the competition to attract readers is extremely fierce. But why is this compact, portable and highly accessible medium so effective in disseminating information to the public? And why contrary to predictions has it not been eclipsed by the world wide web? Issues answers these questions and also demonstrates clearly why the digital encounter has proved unequal to the delightfully tactile and spectacular reading experience afforded by print. If a magazine is 'a storage place for explosives', then Issues is a complete arsenal of the most highly explosive magazine designs ever created.

Touch Visionaire Publishing,2000-08 With a new theme and format for each issue, Visionaire stretches the imagination and boundaries of what an art and fashion publication can be. For Issue #32 Where? Visionaire collaborates with the venerable Paris-based fashion house Hermes In Greek mythology, Hermes (as in Hermes) is the messenger of the gods and the deity of the roads in short, the god of travel. Visionaire approached artists and photographers to depict a magical place, a faraway land, an imaginary geographical space The resulting set of 51 pages which double as postcards come packaged with a pencil in an Hermes leather pouch Visionaire #33. Touch will be devoted to the latest techniques in printing effects. Celebrated fashion illustrator Francois Berthoud will create a spectacular portfolio of images devoted to the Fall-Winter 2000-2001 fashion collections The image will come packaged in a Fendi fur case, providing not only a visual experience, but a textural one as well. For Visionaire #34: Man, Visionaire will once again join forces with world-renowned fashion photographer Mario Testino. Testino -- a regular contributor to Vanity Fair and Vogue who has been responsible for numerous advertising campaigns including Gucci, Ralph Lauren, and Calvin Klein -- will focus his camera on men and cull talent from around the world to contribute to an issue of Visionaire devoted exclusively to the masculine world.

Visionaire 51 Visionaire,2007 In Visionaire No. 51: Harmony, works by leading artists--including Maurizio Cattelan, Robert Wilson, Yayoi Kusama, Vik Muniz, Massimo Vitali and Richard Misrach--are presented in the form of six large-scale puzzles. Each puzzle consists of 25 pieces that combine to create one complete image nearly three feet square. The puzzles can be pieced together separately so that each forms one artist's vision, or they can be combined to create other unexpected images. How will you create your Harmony? In collaboration with Lexus, and in celebration of the LS600h Hybrid, Visionaire No. 51 is environmentally sensitive. The puzzles are made from partially recycled paper, non-toxic inks and chlorine free materials. They were fabricated at environmentally sustainable factories that recycle all byproducts, including heat generated during production. Each set of six puzzles comes packaged in a slick, 8x8-inch embossed cube. Available in black or silver.

Visionaire No. 60: Religion Riccardo Tisci, 2011 No designer draws on religious themes to quite such glorious effect as Givenchy's Riccardo Tisci. Thus, it made perfect sense that Tisci came on board to guest-edit Visionaire's 60th issue, Religion. Housed inside a distressed wood case lined in black Plexiglas, a book of images revealed Tisci's world and the inspiration behind his work. Naturally, the works were loaded with symbolism, like a photo of Tisci suckling at the teat of Marina Abramovic — an image the performance artist says echoed the relationship between art and fashion. "When Riccardo was asked who I wanted to collaborate with," Abramovic recalls, "I said the only thing I want is to collaborate with you. That was my ultimatum. I said to him, This is the situation: do you admit that fashion is inspired by art? Well I am the art, you are the fashion, now suck my tits! He's very shy, so it took him a while to come around. But he did. During the shoot, I wanted to be in a state of mind as if I were delivering the emotions of the artist whose work is being used as inspiration—luminous yet strong. Art is giving. Art is nourishing. Art is oxygen to society. I was thinking what the title would be, and I thought of The Contract." For Tisci, it was an opportunity to meditate on his past and present. "Visionaire was a truly important moment of reflection for me," he says. "This collection of work celebrates inner truths, inner dialogues, and moments which words cannot quantify--Publisher's description.
