Let's Talk Jewish Joseph Rubinstein,Auriel Ibn Michell,2001 Let's Talk Jewish is nothing more than an attempt to present ideas and teachings that are dear to all Jews and Christians. We feel the greatest blessing will come, if after reading one page, you the reader can sit back and say, I never really looked at it that way. When that happens our goal will have been accomplished. This book is meant to be used, marked up, studied, not admired.

Look at the Moon! the Revelation Chronology John A. Abrams,2007-08 Job 19:25: For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth The Book of Revelation is not in chronological order. In the 14th chapter of the Book of Revelation we find our Savior Jesus Christ on the earth, standing on Mount Sion in Israel, with 144,000 redeemed from humanity. Revelation 14:1: And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads. However, five chapters later in the 19th chapter of Revelation we see our Master Jesus Christ still in Heaven about to lead the armies of holy angels down to the earth. Revelation 19:11-14: 19:11: And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. 19:12: His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. 19:13: And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of G-D. 19:14: And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. The goal of Look at the Moon! is to place the events of the Book of Revelation into their correct chronological order.

Journals and Journeys of a Writer/Rider Karina Guardiola-Lopez,2014-01-27 The Journals and Journeys of a Writer/Rider is about the one journey we all have in common; Life. The tests, tasks, trials, trails, travels, tribulations, testimonies and treats life has to offer. As I ride out this life's journey, I write it out as well. With our memories, stories, voices, pens and pads, our mental journals and journeys can come to life. These are mine. Let the journey begin.

New York Magazine ,1982-12-20 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself, while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.

The Play's the Thing Kathleen Keena,2015-04-17 Author Kathleen Keena was a part-time college English teacher, Method-trained actor, and community director when she met Clark Bowlen, theater chair at Manchester Community College in Connecticut in 1988. They formed an artistic partnership that combined their diverse strengths to produce classic and contemporary shows. Actors joined them as fellow artists on a journey that spanned the academic, community, and theatrical world. Their work included a hip-hop "Midsummer Night's Dream," a rock-and-roll "Taming of the Shrew," a postwar-themed show performed by Vietnam veterans, and several original musicals. Nontraditional theater productions that addressed contemporary social issues became their signature work. In The Play's the Thing, Keena documents the nature and process of that work to show how they developed a theater department at a local community college and took it beyond the campus walls. She also offers additional information about theater including: what makes a good script; the interpretive analysis of a script; challenges common to specific script categories and the continuity of lighting, sound and costuming to create a sustained suspension of reality. Documenting an artistic journey, The Play's the Thing shares one couples' contributions to theater and shows how they facilitated innovative approaches to conventional theater.

The Encyclopaedia Britannica: Refectory-Sainte Beuve ,1911 The last great work of the age of reason, the final instance when all human knowledge could be presented with a single point of view ... Unabashed optimism, and unabashed racism, pervades many entries in the 11th, and provide its defining characteristics ... Despite its occasional ugliness, the reputation of the 11th persists today because of the staggering depth of knowledge contained with its volumes. It is especially strong in its biographical entries. These delve deeply into the history of men and women prominent in their eras who have since been largely forgotten - except by the historians, scholars-- The Guardian, <https://www.theguardian.com/books/booksblog/2012/apr/10/encyclopedia-britannica-11th-edition>.
