Pirates, a Mayan Princess and Fairies EBF Scanlon,2015-11-03 Mysteries, deaths, and happenings occur throughout the centuries at a renowned college. Sixteenth century: Magenta, a Mayan princess, is captured by the Spanish conquerors. They take her back to Spain for trial as a witch. Close to England, she is rescued by pirates. Magenta's involvement with Captain Eric leads to marriage. He overlooked her witchcraft skills. Years later, while their seven-year-old child was at the renowned college, she is accused of witchcraft, as is her mother. Both are burned as witches. Captain Eric is put to death. His pirates are too late to save him. Twenty-first century: The princess's descendants, Tarinda and Andre, enrol at the college. Their friends Cynthia and Alder, two modern-day fairy children, also enrol at the college. The children become best of friends. Will OAK from the fairy council unravel the mysteries? Will magic spells bring forth a miracle?

Aster and the Egyptian Mystery EBF Scanlon,2015-11-03 Isis, goddess of Egyptian mythology. Sacred words written by Isis are stolen from her temple. Isis tries to locate the papyri with the help of temple maiden descendants and her son, Horus, transfixed in the body of a falcon. Ninetieth-century archeologist found the sarcophagus with papyri inside. He smuggles it to England; later it turns up in the British Museum. A young trainee curator, in fact a modern-day fairy called Aster, discovers them in the vault. Aster is taken to Isis's temple in London and hears the story of these papyri. She relates her tale to the fairy council elders and asks them for help. The fairy queen, Narcissus, aids in the return of sacred documents to Isis.

The Ebf Application Foundation Robert Neumann,2010-01 Many e-commerce solutions have been developed to provide suppliers with a virtual storefront. Those e-commerce solutions are most often licensed from a software provider and hosted on a dedicated web server. The cost for licensing, customization and maintenance of the virtual storefront consumes a significant amount of the total revenue that is made with the e-business. Businesses with a solid revenue stream can more easily bring up those investments than businesses that operate upon very small profit margins and volumes. For Small and Medium Enterprises (SME), which are run by only a few individuals, it becomes literally impossible to afford an investment as such. Even though the investment amortized within a very short period of time, those businesses would not be able to gather the necessary funds. Certainly, SME could sidestep to a personal storefront on huge marketplaces, but firstly might such a general purpose marketplace not provide all the functionality that is required and secondly does such a marketplace not integrate with other systems. This book covers an approach towards an e-commerce platform that due to its low TCO is affordable by even the smallest enterprises.

The Next Queen of Fairies Ebf Scanlon,2010-08 It's almost time for the 200-year Immortal Realm gathering and all the fairies are excited because a new queen will be chosen. Not every creature is excited, however. An evil goblin sets out to kill Narcissus, the chosen one, before she is crowned, but fairies Rowan and Oak aren't going to let anything bad happen to their future queen. Will these fairies be able to save Narcissus from the evil goblin before it's too late? Or will the Immortal Realm have to find someone else to serve as queen? EBF. Scanlon is a retired registered nurse, tutor and clinical Aromatherapist practitioner. She originally told this story to her grandchildren and they loved it so much she put it in book form. Therefore, the study seeks to assess knowledge, attitude and practices of Exclusive Breast Feeding (EBF) among working nursing mothers in the Sekyere South District of the Ashanti Region. A descriptive cross-sectional study design was used. The study population considered working nursing mothers who were attending welfare clinic with a baby for immunization and growth monitoring and whose last child was between six to twelve months. A simple random sampling method was used to choose two health facilities from each of the five sub-districts from where the sample was selected Construction of the Earnings and Benefits File (EBF) for Use with the Health and Retirement Survey Olivia S. Mitchell,Jan Olson,Thomas L. Steinmeier,1996 Analysts using the Health and Retirement Survey (HRS) often require information on earnings, labor market attachment, and social security benefits in order to better understand the factors affecting retirement and well-being at older ages. To this end, several derived variables were constructed and documented in the Earnings and Benefits File (EBF) described here. The EBF provides a set of summary earnings, employment, and social security wealth measures for a subset of HRS respondents in Wave 1 of the survey, for whom administrative records are available. The EBF, a restricted data file, is available from the University of Michigan's Institute for Social Research for matching only with versions of the HRS containing geographic detail no finer than the Census Division level. The Fairy, the Witch and the Knight from the Crusade Ebf Scanlon,2015-11-03 Two nine-year-old fairies, Daphne and Myrtle, have two mortal friends, Amber and Christine. The fairies also have two 'imaginary' mischievous pixie friends, Cilli and Kissy, who can only be seen by them. Daphne and Myrtle are attending a mortal school and have the opportunity to go away to the school's camp. While at camp, they get involved in an adventure in the woods and find a castle where a prisoner is being held. The prisoner is a Lady who has an evil witch as a sister. Also trapped in the same woods is a Knight, held by some enchanted trees. He is there to defend his Lady from a dragon. Will the knight be able to save his fair Lady? The Fairy Council must come to the rescue, as The Fairy, the Witch and the Knight From the Crusade comes to its stunning conclusion. About the Author: EBF. The Political Content of British Economic, Business and Financial Journalism Gary James Merrill,2019-03-16 This book assesses the extent to which British news organizations gave exposure and credence to different political interpretations of economics and business news in the decade before the 2008 Financial Crisis. Through the content analysis of some 1,600 news items, this study provides compelling empirical evidence to inform often theoretical debates about neoliberal assumptions in the media. In each of the three pre-2008 case studies – economic globalization, private finance and public services, and Tesco – Merrill finds that the Telegraph, The Times, the Sunday Times and, to varying extents, the Guardian-Observer and the BBC gave limited exposure and credence to ideas from the left of the political spectrum. As such, he builds an important comparative picture of economic, business and financial journalism in the period before the defining event of the decade, the effects of which continue to resonate.

Drawings. Vincent Van Gogh Vincent van Gogh,Evert van Uiter,Johannes van der Wolk,Sjraar van Heugten,Louis van Tilborgh,Ronald Pickvance,E. B. F. Pey,1990 Amidst the wealth of books commemorating van Gogh's centenary, none is more stunning than this beautiful set. The first deals with his paintings and the second with the drawings; together they are the official publication of the remarkable exhibitions held in the Netherlands earlier this year - shows which gave an unprecedented opportunity to view many rarely seen works. Few painters appeal to the imagination as much as Vincent van Gogh, and these two books demonstrate magnificently the powerfully individualistic qualities of his work as well as the coherent pattern of ideas and obsessions.

The European Baptist Federation Keith G. Jones,2009-11-01 A criticism often leveled at Baptists is that they have no theology of ecclesial reality beyond the local. In this book Keith Jones describes the history and current reality of the European Baptist Federation (EBF), which brings together over fifty national Baptist groups in Europe and the Middle East and seeks to demonstrate that there is an ecclesial reality within the organization, expressed in its communal life, mission activity, working on theological education, in relationship to other Christian world communions and in its decision making processes. The role of the pivotal figure of the General Secretary of the EBF is examined with particular reference to two significant figures. The relationship of European Baptists during the cold war era is explored, as is the relationship to two key mission agencies from the USA who have done much work in Europe. This represents ground-breaking work in terms of an examination of how Baptists in Europe work together trans-nationally.
