Warren Chin

The Other Shore Gao Xingjian,1999-06-15 Gao Xingjian is the leading Chinese dramatist of our time. He is also one of the most moving and literary writers for the contemporary stage. His plays have been performed all around the world, including China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Japan, Australia, the Ivory Coast, the United States, France, Germany and other European countries. Born and educated in China, Gao studied French literature at the Beijing Foreign Languages Institute between 1957-1962. After the Cultural Revolution, he became a resident playwright at the Beijing People's Art Theatre. His works, including Bus Stop, Absolute Signal, and Wilderness Man, were trend-setting and have created many controversies and a wave of experimental drama in China. In 1987 he settled in Paris, France and continued to write in Chinese and in French. He was awarded the Chevalier de l'Ordre des Arts et des Lettres by the French Government in 1992. The present collection contains five of Gao Xingjian's most recent works: The Other Shore (1986), Between Life and Death (1991), Dialogue and Rebuttal (1992), Nocturnal Wanderer (1993), and Weekend Quartet (1995). One finds poetry, comedy as well as tragedy in the plays, which are graced by beautiful language and original imagery. Combining Zen philosophy and a modern worldview, they serve to illuminate the gritty realities of life, death, sex, loneliness, and exile, all essential concerns in Gao's understanding of the existence of modern man. The plays are also manifestations of the dramatist's idea of the tripartite actor, a process by which the actor neutralizes himself and achieves a disinterested observation of his self in performance.

The Ashgate Research Companion to Insurgency and Counter Insurgency Warren Chin,2010-12-28 This collection provides a comprehensive overview of the historical evolution of the art and practice of insurgency and counter insurgency, providing the reader with a wide survey of 'classic' campaigns. It gives an informed and balanced overview of insurgency and counter insurgency in the past, present and future.

Fear of Innocents Liam McCrackin,2022-07-31 John, a free spirit anthropology professor, is in Machu Picchu, Peru. In the predawn, he breaks into the ancient Inca's Torreón tower to witness the sun's rays pass through the tower's immaculately placed window to illuminate the sacred groove. When he emerges, stunned by what he's seen, the world has changed. For the first time in his life, he is the right man in the right place. He knows something about the massive teardrops that now hang in the sky that the world needs to hear. His boss at Langley isn't so sure. As the world descends into chaos, John begins a dangerous trek back home to Colorado to help his sister and parents survive in a deeply divided America now ruled by Red Hats. Along the way, he embarks upon the more difficult journey to adulthood. To live long enough to grow up and finally find someone with whom to share his life, he needs to elude RAP, the president's men. This story is about what can happen when the relentless promotion of fantasies for political gain reduces science to fiction. The only fiction in this story is the teardrops; the rest is history repeating itself if America succumbs to fascism.
