Past Shadows Anne Marshall Bunney,2007-10 This fascinating, thoughtful psychological murder mystery addresses the problems of modern man dealing with the real failure to understand the real meaning of love and will, its sources and its interrelation. Man has long been fascinated with the mind of man and has always been drawn to the deepest recesses of fear. What triggers someone to commit murder? In this mystery, the author allows us to journey with individuals participating in group therapy who are seeking self-discovery that reveals their mysteries, their squalor and their magnificence. As they become suspects in murder, in the face of ongoing mistrust, the characters deal with the multiplicity of love, pathos, tragedy and passion . . . living symbols of our time. The author draws upon her personal clinical wisdom and psychotherapy experience as she explores the minds of the people involved in dealing with the contradictions of the human heart that are exacerbated by violent acts of murder and psychic deceit. It is a riveting novel filled with unforgettable characters where much is not as it seems.

Accidentally Flirting with the CEO 4 (Billionaire Romance) Shadonna Richards,2017-01-20 What happens when your secret fantasies about the hot new CEO are exposed at the office? Shy, quiet Pamsey Jackson secretly has the hots for her sexy, but emotionally distant, boss Brett Lorenz. But it isn't until she accidentally sends him the wrong digital file (a personal folder with her diary notes and revealing selfies) during a late at night work session that things heat up. The question is: Will things ever be cool between them?

Fantasia for the Man in Blue Tommye Blount,2020 An examination of a brutal America through the voices of its most vulnerable sons. In his debut collection, Fantasia for the Man in Blue, Tommye Blount orchestrates a chorus of distinct, unforgettable voices that speak to the experience of the black, queer body as a site of desire and violence. A black man's late-night encounter with a police officer - the titular man in blue - becomes an extended meditation on a dangerous, erotic fantasy. The late Luther Vandross, resurrected here in a suite of poems, addresses the contradiction between his public persona and a life spent largely in the closet: It's a calling, this hunger / to sing for a love I'm too ashamed to want for myself. In Aaron McKinney Cleans His Magnum, the convicted killer imagines the barrel of the gun he used to bludgeon Matthew Shepherd as an infant's small mouth as well as the sad calculator that was built to subtract from and divide a town. In these and other poems, Blount viscerally captures the experience of the other and locates us squarely within these personae--

Wink Murder: an edge-of-your-seat thriller that will have you hooked Ali Knight,2011-04-14 How well can you ever know the people you're closest to? 'A tight-plotted, too-close-for-comfort thriller' Stylist. Perfect for fans of Shari Lapena, Linda Green and Louise Jensen. Kate has an enviable life: a loving family and a perfect husband, Paul. But one night she finds Paul drunk and covered in blood, mumbling about having killed something - or someone. When a young and attractive woman who works for Paul is found murdered, Kate's suspicions about what he has really done send her on an increasingly desperate search for the truth that threatens to smash her carefully constructed life. Doing the right thing should seem obvious, but as the lies multiply, the truth is not as straightforward as it seems. How well does Kate really know the man she's married to? 'Grips from first to last' Choice '[A] tightly-plotted, high-pitched psychological thriller' Daily Mirror 'A fast-paced whodunit' Woman and Home

The Outsiders S. E. Hinton,2005 Three brothers struggle to stay together after their parents' death, as they search for an identity among the conflicting values of their adolescent society in which they find themselves outsiders.

Simply Magic Mary Balogh,2007-03-27 BONUS: This edition contains an excerpt from Mary Balogh's The Secret Mistress. On a splendid August afternoon Susanna Osbourne is introduced to the most handsome man she has ever seen . . . and instantly feels the icy chill of recognition. Peter Edgeworth, Viscount Whitleaf, is utterly charming—and seemingly unaware that they have met before. With his knowing smile and seductive gaze, Peter acts the rake; but he stirs something in Susanna she has never felt before, a yearning that both frightens and dazzles her. Instantly she knows: this brash nobleman poses a threat to her heart . . . and to the secrets she guards so desperately. From the moment they meet, Peter is drawn to Susanna's independence, dazzled by her sharp wit—he simply must have her. But the more he pursues, the more Susanna withdraws . . . until a sensual game of thrust-and-parry culminates in a glorious afternoon of passion. Now more determined than ever to keep her by his side, Peter begins to suspect that a tragic history still haunts Susanna. And as he moves closer to the truth, Peter is certain of one thing: he will defy the mysteries of her past for a future with this exquisite creature—all Susanna must do is trust him with the most precious secret of all. . . .
