Fluent Forever Gabriel Wyner, 2014-08-05 NATIONAL BESTSELLER • For anyone who wants to learn a foreign language, this is the method that will finally make the words stick. “A brilliant and thoroughly modern guide to learning new languages.”—Gary Marcus, cognitive psychologist and author of the New York Times bestseller Guitar Zero At thirty years old, Gabriel Wyner speaks six languages fluently. He didn't learn them in school—who does? Rather, he learned them in the past few years, working on his own and practicing on the subway, using simple techniques and free online resources—and here he wants to show others what he's discovered. Starting with pronunciation, you'll learn how to rewire your ears and turn foreign sounds into familiar sounds. You'll retrain your tongue to produce those sounds accurately, using tricks from opera singers and actors. Next, you'll begin to tackle words, and connect sounds and spellings to imagery rather than translations, which will enable you to think in a foreign language. And with the help of sophisticated spaced-repetition techniques, you'll be able to memorize hundreds of words a month in minutes every day. This is brain hacking at its most exciting, taking what we know about neuroscience and linguistics and using it to create the most efficient and enjoyable way to learn a foreign language in the spare minutes of your day.

The Mind of a Pyoneer Bryan Scott Burrell II, 2021-05-17 This book is very motivational and inspirational. In a sense, it is a how to/step by step guide, combining my past experiences and knowledge, with everything I implemented in starting my own business today. This book is to hopefully inspire more like-minded business people, and to also inspire people to become first time authors themselves. For readers to take anything that they might learn from within this book itself, applying it to their personal lives and business also. That at worst, this book could well off just be a good read for someone. I wanted to duplicate most of what I knew about business, marketing and entrepreneurship, putting it all in book form. To teach what I knew; giving back to others that may need to know some of the things that are in this book, creating synergy for each one to reach one, and as the saying goes, "iron sharpens iron." This book points out specific and personal times where the universe allowed things to come full circle for me. Furthermore, this book touches on: investing, economics, education, accounting, gold, and more. Conveying a bit of financial literacy; understanding markets, business conduct, business strategies, knacks & niches, and business marketing techniques. This book covers topics such as: branding, marketing, advertising, promoting, and outsourcing. Graphics & design, design theory, technology, social media, platforms, and marketplaces. Innovation, creation, enterprise, real estate and the automobile industry. Going also, into ownership, business plans, passive income, residual income, creating streams of revenue, scaling and growing a business. Funneling and integrating a business and other subsidiary company. Exhausting all your resources and adapting and adjusting to things, learning as you go, along with learning from your mistakes. This book explains what it means to be a Pyoneer and/or have the mind of a Pyoneer and how to overcome adversity. How to endure, and persevere through opposition, struggles, and hard times. How to work hard, stay diligent, and understand your true value within; value that others may need. It is a book to inspire you all to never quit, and to also inspire you to go for anything you want that is good. I hope this book motivates you all to start asserting yourself in whatever that is.

Darkness Lane Thomas Kies, 2018-06-05 Random Road introduced Geneva Chase—a reporter with a compelling voice, a damaged woman who recounts her own bittersweet story as she hunts down clues, says Library Journal—to murders straight out of a nightmare—six bodies found naked and cut to ribbons in a posh Connecticut home. Having survived this and a personal tragedy, Geneva's story still includes alcoholism and career challenges compounded by the rocky finances of her newspaper employer. But she's working. She's fighting the urge to reconnect with a magnetic yet married lover. And she's raising a rebellious young lady who is not her daughter but a cherished legacy. Nevertheless the newshound in Geneva spurs her to bad if not downright dangerous choices as two unrelated crimes unexpectedly collide. A fifteen-year-old-girl at her ward's high school has vanished along with her English teacher. Is this same-old, same-old, or something more? And then there's the abused woman who torched her sadistic husband, and how to keep her out of the clutches of powerful mobsters—and thus, out of the news. Out on the crime beat, Geneva works to unravel the connection, if any, between these two disparate stories while her newspaper is put up for sale, a high-flying Hollywood production lights up the town, and her personal battles accelerate.

Jarring twists and turns include charming movie stars, treacherous diamond merchants, adultery, sex traffickers, and murder. While the clock ticks and Geneva works desperately to find the missing student, she comes to the horrible realization that she's in over her head. Darkness Lane, the second novel in the Geneva Chase Mystery Series, hurtles along at a breakneck speed where nothing is what it seems, and where art and reality collide in a terrifying climax.

Oral Tradition Narratives of the Emai People Ronald P. Schaefer, Francis O. Egbokhare, 2000 This collection of seventy prose of narrative samples represents the only published record of the oral tradition of the Emai people of southern Nigeria. The narratives are presented in both Emai orthography and English translation. They tend to portray everyday cultural practices of the Emai with human characters or their animal personification. As such, they provide an initial glimpse of Emai cosmology, cultural values and social norms as well as a firm impression of how Emai grammatical resources function in spontaneous narrative discourse. Ronald P. Schaefer is Professor at the College of Arts and Sciences, Department of English Language and Literature, at the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. Francis O. Egbokhare teaches at the University of Ibadan in Nigeria.
