Dumb Luck and the Kindness of Strangers John Gierach, 2021-06-08 Witty, shrewd, and always a joy to read, John Gierach, “America’s best fishing writer” (Houston Chronicle) and favorite streamside philosopher, has earned the following of “legions of readers who may not even fish but are drawn to his musings on community, culture, the natural world, and the seasons of life” (Kirkus Reviews). “After five decades, twenty books, and countless columns, [John Gierach] is still a master” (Forbes). Now, in his latest original collection, Gierach shows us why fly-fishing is the perfect antidote to everything that is wrong with the world. “Gierach’s deceptively laconic prose masks an accomplished storyteller...His alert and slightly off-kilter observations place him in the general neighborhood of Mark Twain and James Thurber” (Publishers Weekly). In Dumb Luck and the Kindness of Strangers, Gierach looks back to the long-ago day when he bought his first resident fishing license in Colorado, where the fishing season never ends, and just knew he was in the right place. And he succinctly sums up part of the appeal of his sport when he writes that it is “an acquired taste that reintroduces the chaos of uncertainty back into our well-regulated lives.” Lifelong fisherman though he is, Gierach can write with self-deprecating humor about his own fishing misadventures, confessing that despite all his experience, he is still capable of blowing a strike by a fish “in the usual amateur way.” “Arguably the best fishing writer working” (The Wall Street Journal), Gierach offers witty, trenchant observations not just about fly-fishing itself but also about how one’s love of fly-fishing shapes the world that we choose to make for ourselves.

First AccessORY GlytchedChiq, Across the world people are finding magical items that allow them to access abilities found in myth and legend. Where these items are coming from or why there are so many coming into public purview at one time is unknown. What is known is that people who find them sometimes die of mysterious causes. Whether from the item or from something attracted to these strange magics is also unknown. There are contradictory reports whether or not this is a case of delusion or hysteria or if the veil or membrane that separates here from there has been damaged or destroyed. For anyone who finds an AccessORY, they can no longer go back to their normal lives. The item changes them and their place in our Reality. Be careful. Be prepared. Beware choosing the wrong AccessORY. ~ Brutal slow burn with world(s) building.
