Away From Keyboard Volume 2 Patricia D. Eddy,2023-01-15 These warriors sacrificed body, heart, and soul for their country. Now, they'll fight for love. Lose your heart to Patricia D. Eddy's compelling characters in books 4-6 of her bestselling Away From Keyboard series. This volume contains 6 bonus scenes featuring your very favorite characters from Second Sight, By Lethal Force, and Fighting For Valor!

Second Sight Dax The Taliban stole my vision, along with any hope I had of a normal life. Abandoned by my brother-in-arms, alone, I started Second Sight to help people. So why can't I help myself? When my business partner has to take off to save his first love, I take over his case. But how can I keep Evianna safe when I can't even see her? Evianna I'm about to become one of the most well-known and powerful women in the tech world. Until a former employee threatens my life. Second Sight has a stellar reputation, but they assign me a blind bodyguard—who happens to own the company. He saves my life once, but can he protect me from a threat neither of could see coming?

By Lethal Force Ford I fell in love at eighteen, and never looked back. But then I went off to war, not knowing Joey had been kidnapped and was fighting for her life. Being trafficked nearly destroyed her, and by the time I made it home, I'd lost her forever. Until her sister calls me twenty years later. She's missing again, but this time, I'll stop at nothing to find her. Joey I survived the worst kind of hell. That's what everyone tells me. That I survived. I disagree. My body lived. My soul? It'll never be the same again. I lost my fiancée, my confidence, and any hope of living a normal life. I managed. Even became a doctor. But I have a dark secret. Under my long sleeves are twenty years worth of scars. When I'm taken from a Doctors Without Borders camp, my worst nightmares come true. No one will find me this time. Not even the man I've loved for twenty years.

Fighting For Valor val-or: great bravery in the face of danger, especially in battle Ripper My story isn't a good one. Six years ago, I was tortured and broken so badly, Ripper died, and Isaad was born. Shaped into a weapon for the wrong side, I couldn't remember who I'd once been. Who I'd wanted to be. Until my captor imprisoned Joey Taylor. I fought my way back with the help of brothers I'd forgotten, though every day, I wish I could stop fighting. Until I meet her. Cara I heard something I shouldn't have, and now I'm on the run. Seattle seemed like a safe place to start over—until it's suddenly not. But there's a man here who wants to help. I thought he was homeless, but he's just damaged. Maybe worse than me. When we're together, neither of us feel quite so broken. Can we survive what's coming? Or will Ripper lose the only thing he has left? Me. Note: These books contain scenes of torture, references to human trafficking, and implied sexual violence that may be disturbing to some readers. Please be aware of these themes before purchasing.

War, Exile and the Music of Afghanistan John Baily, 2016-09-01 In the 1970s John Baily conducted extensive ethnomusicological research in Afghanistan, principally in the city of Herat but also in Kabul. Then, with Taraki's coup in 1978, came conflict, war, and the dispersal of many musicians to locations far and wide. This new publication is the culmination of Baily's further research on Afghan music over the 35 years that followed. This took him to Afghanistan, Pakistan, Iran, the USA, Australia and parts of Europe - London, Hamburg and Dublin. Arranged chronologically, the narrative traces the sequence of political events - from 1978, through the Soviet invasion, to the coming of the Taliban and, finally, the aftermath of the US-led invasion in 2001. He examines the effects of the ever-changing situation on the lives and works of Afghan musicians, following individual musicians in fascinating detail. At the heart of his analysis are privileged vignettes of ten musical personalities - some of friends, and some newly discovered. The result is a remarkable personal memoir by an eminent ethnomusicologist known for his deep commitment to Afghanistan, Afghan musicians and Afghan musical culture. John Baily is also an ethnographic filmmaker. Four of his films relating to his research are included on the downloadable resources that accompanies the text.

The Man and the Fox Idries Shah, 2018-07-21 A man tricks a young fox into believing that he will give him a chicken. The fox is trapped, but through ingenuity and perseverance, he escapes. Reading this story inspires children to face challenges directly, and even to use the obstacles in their paths to solve problems. This story belongs to the rich and ancient storytelling tradition of Central Asia and the Middle East. Retold here by the author and educator Idries Shah, it is one of a series of illustrated books for the young. These tales are designed to foster thinking skills and perception. In an entertaining way, the stories introduce children to interesting aspects of human behavior and help them learn to recognize these patterns in daily life.

An Introduction to Language and Linguistics Ralph Fasold, Jeffrey Connor-Linton, 2006-03-06 This accessible textbook is the only introduction to linguistics in which each chapter is written by an expert who teaches courses on that topic, ensuring balanced and uniformly excellent coverage of the full range of modern linguistics. Assuming no prior knowledge the text offers a clear introduction to the traditional topics of structural linguistics (theories of sound, form, meaning, and language change), and in addition provides full coverage of contextual linguistics, including separate chapters on discourse, dialect variation, language and culture, and the politics of language. There are also up-to-date separate chapters on language and the brain, computational linguistics, writing, child language acquisition, and second-language learning. The breadth of the textbook makes it ideal for introductory courses on language and linguistics offered by departments of English, sociology, anthropology, and communications, as well as by linguistics departments.

Life After You Lucie Brownlee, 2015-09-03 'He crashed on to the pillow next to me, heavy as a felled oak. I slapped His face and told Him to wake up. Our daughter, B, appeared in the doorway, woken up by the screaming – I must have been screaming but I don't remember – and she was crying and peering in. I told her the ultimate adult lie; that everything was all right.' Sudden death is rude. It just wanders in and takes your husband without any warning; it doesn't even have the decency to knock. At the impossibly young age of 37, as they were making love one night, Lucie Brownlee's beloved husband Mark dropped dead. As Lucie tried to make sense of her new life – the one she never thought she would be living – she turned to writing to express her grief. Life After You is the stunning, irreverent and heartbreakingly honest result.

Music and Migration Alexei Eremine,, Ana Fernandes Ngom, Bart Vanspauwen, Carla Soares Barbosa, Carlos Martins, Dan Lundberg, Dieter Christensen, Godelieve Meersschaert, Gustavo Roriz, Isabel Elvas, J.A. Fernandes Dias, Jean-Michel Lafleur, João Jorge, John Baily, Jorge Castro Ribeiro, Jorge de La Barre, Jorge Murteira, Júlio Leitão, Lídia Fernandes, Luisiane Ramalho, Mafalda Silva Rego, Marcello Sorce-Keller, Marco Martiniello, Maria da Luz Fragoso Costa, Maria de São José Côrte-Real, Mark Naison, Miguel Magalhães, Paula Nascimento, Sílvia Martinez, Susana Sardo, Ursula Hemetek, 2010-10-01 Following the format of the journal, the texts, in three parts, testify musical experience in different representations, from elementary school practices to music festivals and resident chamber music, mentioning categories accepted in the Portuguese society, among others, referring to the popular, folk/world and art music.

Dari Grammar and Phrase Book Ehsan M. Entezar, 2010-06-04 Dari Grammar and Phrasebook is the result of many years of research and teaching. It has two parts. Part one (grammar) is a systematic presentation of Dari sound system (phonology, word formation (morphology) and sentence structure (syntax). Each chapter begins with an introduction. This is followed by analysis of the new concepts providing plenty of examples and illustrations. Next comes the chapter summary. Each chapter in part one ends with exercises. Part two (phrasebook) is about how to communicate with Afghans on a variety of situations (topics). This part first discusses language functions such as asking, ordering, requesting, apologizing, persuading, and so on. The second part is about topics or situations involving shopping, health, transportation, security, government and so on. The relevant vocabulary under each topic is listed into nouns, verbs and adjectives. The topics also include cross-cultural notes and proverbs.

Iranian and Minority Languages at Home and in Diaspora Anousha Sedighi, 2023-01-30 While the typology, syntax, and morphology of Iranian languages have been widely explored, the sociolinguistic aspects remain largely understudied. The present companion addresses this essential yet overlooked area of research in two ways: (i) The book explores multilingualism within Iran and its neighbouring countries. (ii) It also investigates Iranian heritage languages within the diasporic context of the West. The scope of languages covered is vast: In addition to discussing Iranian minority languages such as Tati and Balochi, the book explores non-Iranian minority languages such as Azeri, Turkmen, Armenian and Mandaic. Furthermore, the companion investigates Iranian heritage languages such as Wakhi, Pashto, and Persian within their diasporic and global contexts. In the current era of migration and globalization, minority and heritage speakers are increasingly valuable resources. By focusing on the speakers, the companion provides new insights into a multitude of sociolinguistic issues including language attitude and identity, language use and literacy practices, language policy, language shift and loss. The companion is an essential reference for those interested in Iranian languages, minority languages, heritage languages, sociolinguistics, bilingualism, language policy and planning, diaspora and migration studies, as well as those researching in related fields.

News Media and New Media Madanmohan Rao, 2003 This is a compilation of writings on the economic and political impact of new media in traditional and online news organisations. My Life with the Taliban Mullah Abdul Salam Zaeef, 2011-06-16 Abdul Zaeef describes growing up in poverty in rural Kandahar province, which he fled for Pakistan after the Russian invasion of 1979. Zaeef joined the jihad in 1983, was seriously wounded in several encounters and met many leading figures of the resistance, including the current Taliban head, Mullah Mohammad Omar. Disgusted by the lawlessness that ensued after the Soviet withdrawal, Zaeef was one among the former mujahidin who were closely involved in the emergence of the Taliban, in 1994. He then details his Taliban career, including negotiations with Ahmed Shah Massoud and role as ambassador to Pakistan during 9/11. In early 2002 Zaeef was handed over to American forces in Islamabad and spent four and a half years in prison in Bagram and Guantanamo before being released without charge. My Life with the Taliban offers insights into the Pashtun village communities that are the Taliban's bedrock and helps to explain what drives men like Zaeef to take up arms against the foreigners who are foolish enough to invade his homeland.

The Oxford Introduction to Proto-Indo-European and the Proto-Indo-European World J. P. Mallory, D. Q. Adams, 2006-08-24 The authors introduce Proto-Indo-European describing its construction and revealing the people who spoke it between 5,500 and 8,000 years ago. Using archaeological evidence and natural history they reconstruct the lives, passions, culture, society and mythology of the Proto-Indo-Europeans.
