Down Bollywood Street, On Melody Beat Sukumar Mandalika, Ravi C. Narayan, 2018-10-06 India is home to almost every religion in the world, each practised by its own set of believers. But two religions are practised, indeed celebrated, by all Indians across the length and breadth of the country all the time . . . cricket and cinema. Indian cinema is 100 years old. 105 years, to be exact, since Dadasaheb Phalke made India's first full length silent film Raja Harishchandra in 1913. Sound entered the silent movie when Ardeshir Irani made India's first talkie film Alam Ara in 1931. Sound brought into movies that magical potent, that elixir craved for by entertainment seeking audiences of all ages, all classes . . . . MUSIC ! This book showcases some of Bollywood's immortal music melodies from 1950 to 2010 that have stood the test of Time. And the people behind them. Come, let's take a trip DOWN BOLLYWOOD STREET, ON MELODY BEAT !

Ramanujan Srinivasa Ramanujan Aiyangar, 1995-09-07 The letters that Ramanujan wrote to G. H. Hardy on January 16 and February 27, 1913, are two of the most famous letters in the history of mathematics. These and other letters introduced Ramanujan and his remarkable theorems to the world and stimulated much research, especially in the 1920s and 1930s. This book brings together many letters to, from, and about Ramanujan. The letters came from the National Archives in Delhi, the Archives in the State of Tamil Nadu, and a variety of other sources. Helping to orient the reader is the extensive commentary, both mathematical and cultural, by Berndt and Rankin; in particular, they discuss in detail the history, up to the present day, of each mathematical result in the letters. Containing many letters that have never been published before, this book will appeal to those interested in Ramanujan's mathematics as well as those wanting to learn more about the personal side of his life. Diana, one of the members under Marten served her in front of Allan Pearson who was a Hollywood Director. He was astonished seeing her beauty. He helped her and offered her film to play a lead role. She denied but when he made her understand, she accepted his proposal after discussing with her father-like. He gave her an international podium and then she was a popular personality. Again she took a U-turn. She left America after completing her studies. When she reached Russia, she came across her second childhood friend. He deflowered her and Olga tried to attempt suicide but Igor stopped her and gave her full support. Finally, she joined the Russian Army after leaving the world of glamour and fulfilled the dream of her parents. She married with Igor and kept living a very happy life with him.

Mallika-e-Tarannum, Noorjehan I'jāz Gul, 2008 India split into India and Pakistan and forced people to opt for one or the other. It affected all sectors including the film industry. Singer-actress Noorjehan represented the generation that suffered the most. After becoming immensely popular across the country in the 1930s and 1940s, she opted for Pakistan after the Partition. But physical location of artists has often failed to divide them or their fan following. This was very true of Noorjehan. The magical quality of her voice continued to wield a charm on both the countries. Fans treated her as a common treasure and a symbol of shared tradition and values. She was the most sensational singer-star of the Indian film industry of her time and was often called Mallika-e-Tarannum (the queen of melody). Even Lata Mangeshkar, referred to as the nightingale because of her melodious voice, was inspired by her. She was born in Qasoor (Punjab) of undivided India in 1926. She perfected her classical singing under Ustad Ghulam Mohammad Khan and enthralled audience with her personality which was a rare blend of beauty, voice, acting and success. She passed away in Pakistan in 2000. Her first visit to India after Partition was in 1982, when she was welcomed with open arms by one and all including the then Prime Minister, Indira Gandhi. She was also received by Dilip Kumar and Lata Mangeshkar. The audience had got one more opportunity to hear her sing live Awaz De Kahan Hai & Her voice had not lost the magic touch. The 10,000 songs she rendered in Hindi, Urdu, Punjabi and Sindhi acted as a vibrant link between both sides of the border reminding people of their glorious past. Her first major hit was Khandaan in 1942, after which she married its director Shaukat Hussain Rizvi and shifted to Bombay (now Mumbai). Soon followed other hits such as Duhai (1943), Naukar (1943), Nandan (1943), Dost (1944), Badi Maa (1945), Gaon Ki Gori (1945) and Anmol Ghari (1946). In Jugnu in 1943, her lead actor was Dilip Kumar. In Zeenat (1945) she popularized Qawwali with songs such as Aahein Na Bhari Shikwein Na Kiye. While her professional side was exemplary, there was turmoil in her personal life. She had a series of flings, two divorces and many scandals. She was very possessive and thought she could hold people through emotions. Her failure to retain those she considered dear hurt her and left her heart-broken.

Rishton Kee Dhoop-Chhaanv Jyoti malhotra, 2020-06-10 Our life makes us go through various kinds of experiences. Every situation narrates a tale and each relationship becomes a character in the story and makes its own contribution. Sometimes we see different characteristics of the same person. At times, he makes us laugh and at other moments, he causes immense pain. These subtle feelings tickle us sometimes and anguish us at others. The heart becomes restless during some moments and at others, gets completely absorbed in the thoughts of the beloved. At times, it gets drenched in the ambrosia of love and at others, it gets converted into the deadly poison 'Halahal' that has the ability to destroy the entire universe. Whether it is nectar or poison, both of them require a vessel to contain them. In the same way, I have attempted to pour the liquids inside my heart into the containers of my poems. I have made an attempt to translate my innermost sensations into words and presented them for you. I hope that these dialogues of my heart will touch your heart and you will relate to them like your own personal experiences. Maybe, the readers find some hindi words to be difficult to understand. And that might create a break in relishing the poems. Keeping that in mind, an English narrative has been provided along with every couplet
