The Age of Netflix Cory Barker, Myc Wiatrowski, 2017-09-05 In 2016, Netflix--with an already enormous footprint in the United States--expanded its online streaming video service to 130 new countries, adding more than 12 million subscribers in nine months and bringing its total to 87 million. The effectiveness of Netflix's content management lies in its ability to appeal to a vastly disparate global viewership without a unified cache of content. Instead, the company invests in buying or developing myriad programming and uses sophisticated algorithms to narrowcast to micro-targeted audience groups. In this collection of new essays, contributors explore how Netflix has become a cultural institution and transformed the way we consume popular media.

Global Media Giants Benjamin Birkinbine, Rodrigo Gomez, Janet Wasko, 2016-07-01 Global Media Giants takes an in-depth look at how media corporate power works globally, regionally, and nationally, investigating the ways in which the largest and most powerful media corporations in the world wield power. Case studies examine not only some of the largest media corporations (News Corp., The Microsoft Corporation) in terms of revenues, but also media corporations that hold considerable power within national, regional, or geolinguistic contexts (Televisa, The Bertelsmann Group, Sony Corporation). Each chapter approaches a different corporation through the lens of economy, politics, and culture, giving students and scholars a thoughtful and data-driven guide with which to interrogate contemporary media industry power.

Latin American Film Industries Tamara L. Falicov, 2019-06-27 Film production in Latin America is as old as cinema itself, but local film industries have always been in a triangulated relationship with Hollywood and European cinema. This book situates Latin American film industries within the global circulation of film production, exhibition and distribution, charting the changes that the industries have undergone from the sound era to the present day. Focusing in particular on Argentina, Brazil and Mexico, Tamara Falicov examines commonalities among Latin American film industries, such as the challenges of procuring funding, competition from Hollywood, state funding battles, and the fickle nature of audiences, as well as censorship issues, competition from television, and the transnational nature of Latin American film. She addresses production, exhibition, and distribution contexts and financing and co-production with Europe and the United States, as well as the role of film festivals in funding and circulating films both within and outside of Latin America. Newer trends such as the revival of protectionist measures like the screen quota are framed in contrast to the U.S.'s push for trade policy liberalization and issues of universal concern such as film piracy, and new technologies and the role of television in helping and hindering Latin American cinema.

The Routledge Handbook to the Culture and Media of the Americas Wilfried Raussert, Giselle Liza Anatol, Sebastian Thies, Sarah Corona Berkin, José Carlos Lozano, 2020-03-02 Exploring the culture and media of the Americas, this handbook places particular emphasis on collective and intertwined experiences and focuses on the transnational or hemispheric dimensions of cultural flows and geocultural imaginaries that shape the literature, arts, media and other cultural expressions in the Americas. The Routledge Handbook to the Culture and Media of the Americas charts the pervasive, asymmetrical flows of cultural products and capital and their importance in the development of the Americas. The volume offers a comprehensive understanding of how inter-American communication is constituted, framed and structured, and covers the artistic and political dimensions that have shaped literature, art and popular culture in the region. Forty-six chapters cover a range of inter-American key concepts and dynamics, divided into two parts: Literature and Music deals with inter-American entanglements of artistic expressions in the Western Hemisphere, including music, dance, literary genres and developments. Media and Visual Cultures explores the inter-American dimension of media production in the hemisphere, including cinema and television, photography and art, journalism, radio, digital culture and issues such as freedom of expression and intellectual property. This multidisciplinary approach will be of interest to a broad array of academic scholars and students in history, sociology, political science; and cultural, postcolonial, gender, literary, globalization and media studies.

Manual del Godínez Jorge Pinto, 2015-08-17 Un libro que te hará recordar que todos somos Godínez, o lo hemos sido alguna vez. Jorge Pinto entrega en este libro imprescindible para filósofos, sociólogos, economistas, hipsters, ninis, budistas, presidentes de la república, yonquis y, por supuesto, GODÍNEZ: un retrato fiel de esta clase trabajadora que ha hecho de la oficina y su copiadora, ¡un estilo de vida! Por el creador del Bunsen: Ciencia y chocolate y Hipsters (un manual ilustrado) De traje y corbata azul de bolitas rosas, con la sonrisa pícara de quincena recién pagada; dispuesto a matar con tal de conseguir el 2x1 en las pizzas o helados de yogur... o bien, de viernes causal (pandroso nice) con mochila LV patito y la amarga expresión de chin, es fin de mes y no hay dinero para el antro, el Godínez se yergue imponente para formar un ejército que se reproduce como conejitos en granja de menonitas, sí: Godínez de todos los países ¡uníos! TVMorfosis 3 Guillermo Orozco, Gabriel Torres Espinoza, Fernando José García Moreira, Carlos Scolari, Dominique Wolton, Armando Zacarías, José Carlos Lozano, Germán Franco, Alejandro Verano, Ignacio Ramonet, 2019-10-01 En lugar de sumarse a los discursos fatalistas sobre el fin de los medios y sus audiencias, TVMorfosis reconoce las mutaciones comunicacionales contemporáneas en el marco de las brechas digitales que se asientan en las asimetrías económicas y socioculturales que, al mismo tiempo, subrayan y reproducen. Esto no impide reconocer lo nuevo de la condición comunicacional contemporánea (Orozco), el intercambio constante entre las posiciones de emisor y receptor, concebidos como prosumers; la emergencia y diversidad de las audiencias denominadas por Lozano como parroquianos, cosmopolitas, exploradores y colonos; y el (re)descubrimiento de las historias, de los cuentos, de los contenidos como razón y fundamento de los procesos de comunicación, pasando de la centralidad de los medios a la centralidad de las narrativas (Scolari). Ante estos retos, otro conjunto de textos (Torres, Franco, García Moreira y Verano) presentan experiencias, diagnósticos y análisis de políticas públicas en materia de medios y telecomunicaciones. Finalmente, los textos de Wolton y Ramonet ponen el acento en torno a los procesos de comunicación política y los desafíos democráticos de las sociedades desigualmente conectadas.

Global Media Dialogues Lee Artz,2023-07-24 This book, the first of its kind, brings together leading scholars from multiple perspectives in a serious dialogue about continuity and change in global media production and content. Looking at a wide swath of the world, these authors show the emergence of transnational collaboration in global television and film production across national borders that seem to transcend national cultures and identities. At the same time, traditional class analysis of such phenomena is reframed within the rise of myriad social movements for equality, democracy, human rights, and defense of the environment. What are the effects of media, local or global? Does the West continue to dominate or is cultural imperialism waning? With original chapters written by leading scholars from a variety of disciplines, this book will appeal to students and scholars interested in global media communication, cultural studies, and international political economy.

Media Education in Latin America Julio-César Mateus,Pablo Andrada,Maria Teresa Quiroz,2019-07-22 This book offers a systematic study of media education in Latin America. As spending on technological infrastructure in the region increases exponentially for educational purposes, and with national curriculums beginning to implement media related skills, this book makes a timely contribution to new debates surrounding the significance of media literacy as a citizen's right. Taking both a topical and country-based approach, authors from across Latin America present a comprehensive perspective of the region and address issues such as the political and social contexts in which media education is based, the current state of educational policies with respect to media, organizations and experiences that promote media education.

Exclusive content and platform competition in Latin America World Intellectual Property Organization,2020-11-05 Platforms often compete over non-price strategies such as the exclusive distribution of products. But these strategies are not always welfare-enhancing. Using rich data on audiovisuals distributed on platforms in Brazil, we find that non-exclusive distribution and availability of titles across platforms is more effective in deterring online piracy than in the single homing case. Moreover, in certain markets (TVOD), it induces higher average investment in the production of new titles upstream. We discuss options of copyright and antitrust policies in the light of these findings.

Developing Strategic Business Models and Competitive Advantage in the Digital Sector Daidj, Nabyla,2014-09-30 Rapid technological advancements have the ability to positively or negatively impact corporate growth and success. Professional leaders and decision makers must consider such advancements when designing and implementing new policies in preparation for the sustainable future of the business environment. Developing Strategic Business Models and Competitive Advantage in the Digital Sector focuses on the application of preemptive planning in the media and entertainment industries to combat an increasingly uncertain future of innovation and competition. With research-based examples and analysis, this book is an essential reference source for academicians, researchers, and professionals interested in learning more about the impact of technology on industry success, including the changes and challenges created by the Internet and electronic media.

Political Economy of Media Industries Randy Nichols,Gabriela Martinez,2019-10-28 This book provides a critical political economic examination of the impact of increasingly concentrated global media industries. It addresses different media and communication industries from around the globe, including film, television, music, journalism, telecommunication, and information industries. The authors use case studies to examine how changing methods of production and distribution are impacting a variety of issues including globalization, environmental devastation, and the shifting role of the State. This collection finds communication at a historical moment in which capitalist control of media and communication is the default status and, so, because of the increasing levels of concentration globally allows those in control to define the default ideological status. In turn, these concentrated media forces are deployed under the guise of entertainment but with a mind towards further concentration and control of the media apparatuses many times in convergence with others

TVMorfosis 5 Guillermo Orozco,Gabriel Torres Espinoza,Miquel Francés,Álvar Peris,Fernando José García Moreira,Juan Piñón,Julio Cabero Almenara,Beatriz Quiñones,Irma Ávila Pietrasanta,Alfredo Sabbagh Fajardo,Toby Miller,Alejandro Piscitelli,2016-11-25 ¿Qué significa ser creativo en la era digital?, ¿cómo se puede o se ha podido en la televisión? y ¿para qué serlo justamente en un escenario donde la creatividad parece causa y efecto de sí misma? Éstas son, apenas, algunas de las preguntas que se plantean y se tratan de contestar en los capítulos de este libro. Esta edición de Tvmorfosis aborda, entre otros temas, ¿cómo ha florecido la ya desahuciada televisión?, los cambios que han experimentado las audiencias, las transformaciones de las legislaciones relacionadas con la televisión y con los nuevos medios. Además, se tratan casos regionales, como el de Colombia y Brasil, y particulares como las audiencias infantiles o el de la creatividad desde y para el público, o bien, el cambio cultural que se está gestando en la era digital y con los nuevos modelos de Televisión.
