Reform Yourself! Shaun McAfee, 2017 The sixteenth-century Catholic Church was definitely in need of reform. Too many of its leaders were worldly and corrupt; too many of the faithful were living in laxity or ignorance. Unfortunately, Protestantism brought revolution rather than reform, but the saints who rose up in response to it helped renew and transform the Church for generations to come. Our own souls, too, are in constant need of reform, of re-conversion to God and his will for us. We struggle with sin, we become distracted in prayer, we find it hard to be loving and easy to be selfish. In Reform Yourself!, Shaun McAfee (founder of Epic Pew and author of Filling Our Father's House) shows you how these magnificent saints can be guides in your own personal transformation. Drawing upon the saints' writings, works, and life events, Reform Yourself! reveals in each of them a model of a particular virtue or grace that we all need along with practical tips for imitating them in our own lives--Page 4 of cover.

Daily Prayer in the Early Church Paul F. Bradshaw, 2008-10-01
'In liturgical study, and especially in English liturgical study, the subject of the daily office has always been something of the poor relation', writes the author in his preface. This volume aims to do something to fill that gap. It begins with a detailed examination of the Jewish background and of the practice of daily prayer in the first three centuries of the Church, and goes on to trace the evolution of the divine office in both its monastic and secular forms in East and West down to the time of St. Benedict. Intended as a replacement for The Influence of the Synagogue upon the Divine Office by C. W. Dugmore (Alcuin Club Collection No. 45), it not only incorporates the results of recent research by continental scholars and others but also challenges traditional assumptions at a number of important points, offering a fresh interpretation of the evidence.

The Letters and Instructions of Francis Xavier Saint Francis Xavier, 1992 Few letters have been so enthusiastically received & so widely diffused as those of the sixteenth-century Jesuit missionary & Saint, Francis Xavier. Written from India, the Indonesian archipelago, Japan, & the island of Sancian off the coast of China, these letters were copied, recopied, translated into Latin, German, French, & other languages, & frequently printed for wider circulation. They are filled with information on newly discovered lands & cultures, & they are filled with the missionary spirit, the zeal for the honor & glory of God, which animated the whole of Xavier's life & work. They constitute a religious classic & an historical resource heretofore unavailable in English. Francis Xavier was one of the first companions & followers of Ignatius Loyola, the founder of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits). In 1540, he set off as a missionary to southern Asia, where in the midst of ten years of ceaseless labor he produced the 138 letters & instructions that this book contains. The translator of this highly readable English version, M. Joseph Costelloe, S.J., is well known in scholarly circles for his masterful translation of the definitive four-volume biography, FRANCIS XAVIER, HIS LIFE, HIS TIMES by Georg Schurhammer, S.J., published by the Jesuit Historical Institute in Rome.

The 1942 Divine Office Jacob Criostoir,2019-01-30 Second only to the Holy Mass, in which the Most Blessed Eucharist is consecrated for God's Church, the Divine Office has been traditionally considered to be the most important and holy of spiritual practices. The Divine Office is based upon old Hebrew tradition of praying to God seven times per day. While this may seem similar to the Muslim practice of praying five times per day, our tradition dates back much further. The first recorded use of the Divine Office, as we Catholics would know it, was in roughly 80 AD, where the Roman historian Pliny the Younger noticed that Christians would set aside parts of the day to pray the Our Father and Psalms. By the third and fourth centuries, Church Fathers began to incorporate prayers and lessons into the traditional Hebrew prayer hours. These prayer hours are mentioned in the Gospels and in the book of Acts, but the Divine Offices creation can be attributed to the early monastic communities in both Europe and the Middle East.
