Gongyo TLK Liturgy of the Nichiren School Sylvain Chamberlain-Nyudo, 2016

Gongyo Liturgy of Nichiren Buddhism Buddhahood Times, 2022-01-07 The twice daily chanting of Gongyo is the basis of Nichiren Buddhist Practice. Reciting two chapters of the Lotus Sutra and chanting Nam-Myoho-Renge-Kyo is your way of moulding your mind, your heart, your very life, towards Buddhahood. Gongyo refers to the daily practice of reciting two parts of the Lotus Sutra, which most people learn within the first few months of practice. Though beginners might not fully understand what they are studying, Nichiren Daishonin assures us that understanding is not a prerequisite for reaping Buddhism's benefits. He states: A baby does not know the difference between water and fire, and cannot distinguish medicine from poison. But when the baby sucks milk, its life is nourished and sustained ... if one listens to even one character or one phrase of the Lotus Sutra, one cannot fail to attain Buddhahood - Nichiren Daishonin In this brand new format, after the recitation of the 2nd chapter and the verse portion of the 16th chapter, daimoku can be chanted for as long as desired, after all the silent prayers are said to end gongyo. The recitation now takes only about 5-7 minutes, leaving more time for the primary practice of chanting Nam-myoho-enge-kyo. The silent prayers are appreciation to the Gohonzon, the representation of the ceremony in the air, the treasure tower, Shakyamuni Buddha and Taho Buddhas, to Nichiren, to Kumarajiva, who translated the Lotus Sutra, appreciation for the Three Founding Presidents of Soka Gakkai and for the achievement of the goals of the practitioner, the Prayers for Worldwide Kosen-rufu and for the Deceased; and finally for the happiness of all living beings. This liturgy also contains an english translation of the two Lotus Sutra excerpts (Hoben and Juryo Chapter) Reciting gongyo and chanting Nam-myoho-enge-kyo each day is a ceremony in which the microcosm of our lives harmonizes with the macrocosm of the universe. By engaging in this ceremony morning and evening, we bring forth the power to direct our lives toward the greatest happiness- Daisaku Ikeda If there are times when you don't feel like chanting and reciting gongyo, remember one thing, the only person who loses out if you skip it ... is you. Thank you.

Nichiren Shu Service Ryusho Jeffus, 2013-04-16 The basic Sacred Service of Nichiren Shu as performed at Myosho-ji, Wonderful Voice Temple is presented in this book in the order followed at this temple. Also provided in this book are some additional prayers, such as Memorial Prayers, Prayers for the Sick, Prayer of St. Francis, Prayer Before Meals. Frequently in the course of our daily lives we face challenges which we may feel would be more appropriately addressed through prayers other than the standard prayer offered traditionally during Nichiren Shu services. In my work as a hospital chaplain I have been called upon to provide many such prayers, frequently from a Christian perspective. Even occasionally I have been asked to pray from a strictly spiritual perspective without any reference to deity or supreme being or reference to any organized religion. In the few pages which follow I offer not only a couple of suggested prayers but also my understanding of how to construct your own personal prayer when the words of others do not fit your needs.

The Liturgy of Gongyo of Nichiren Buddhism Buddhahood Times, 2022-02-03 This Gongyo Liturgy book consists complete Gongyo (in English and Japanese) along with Soka Gakkai Prayers and English Gongyo Translation. In this new format after the recitation of the 2nd chapter and the verse portion of the 16th chapter, Daimoku can be chanted for as long as desired, after all the silent prayers are said to end gongyo. The recitation now takes only about 5-7 minutes, leaving more time for the primary practice of chanting Nam-myoho-enge-kyo. The silent prayers are appreciation to the Gohonzon, the representation of the ceremony in the air, the treasure tower, Shakyamuni Buddha and Taho Buddhas, to Nichiren, to Kumarajiva, who translated the Lotus Sutra, appreciation for the Three Founding Presidents of Soka Gakkai and for the achievement of the goals of the practitioner, the Prayers for Worldwide Kosen-rufu and for the Deceased; and finally for the happiness of all living beings. This liturgy also contains an english translation of the two Lotus Sutra excerpts (Hoben and Juryo Chapter) Reciting gongyo and chanting Nam-myoho-enge-kyo each day is a ceremony in which the microcosm of our lives harmonizes with the macrocosm of the universe. happiness- Daisaku Ikeda Thank you!

Nichiren Daishonin Liturgy George Romero,2019-01-17 The general format has emerged over the years. Initially, it followed the form of Nichiren School. In the 80s, silent prayers were added for the success of the lay believers NSA and Soka Gakkai itself, and in memory of its first two departed presidents. By the 90s, prayers of appreciation for the priesthood were abandoned. In this new format, after the recitation of the 2nd chapter and the verse portion of the 16th chapter, daimoku can be chanted for as long as desired, after all the silent prayers are said to end gongyo. The recitation now takes only about seven minutes, leaving more time for the primary practice of chanting Nam-myoho-rence-kyo. The silent prayers currently are appreciation to the Gohonzon, the representation of the ceremony in the air, the treasure tower, Shakyamuni and Taho Buddhas, to Nichiren, and the four bodhisattvas of the Earth. For the achievement of the goals of the practitioner and the deceased; and finally for the happiness of all living beings. It is indicated by Nichiren's Goshos, however, that more significant than the wording of the prayers is the practitioner's genuine purpose in doing gongyo and showing their gratitude and willingness to achieve their Supreme Awakening

The Heart of the Lotus Sutra Daisaku Ikeda,2014-01-01 The Lotus Sutra has been regarded for centuries as one of the most important teachings in Mahayana Buddhism. This book goes beyond theory to show how to bring these teachings into practice in daily life. Containing profound truths for all people from every culture, it reveals the secret for attaining happiness for both oneself and others through the process of self-reformation. Based on the teachings of Nichiren, a 13th-century Buddhist teacher and reformer, the scriptures of the Lotus Sutra show how every person can attain Buddhahood.

Waking the Buddha Clark Strand,2014-05-01 Is there more to Buddhism than sitting in silent meditation? Is modern Buddhism relevant to the problems of daily life? Does it empower individuals to transform their lives? Or has Buddhism become too detached, so still and quiet that the Buddha has fallen asleep? Waking the Buddha tells the story of the Soka Gakkai International, the largest, most dynamic Buddhist movement in the world today—and one that is waking up and shaking up Buddhism so it can truly work in ordinary people's lives. Drawing on his long personal experience as a Buddhist teacher, journalist, and editor, Clark Strand offers broad insight into how and why the Soka Gakkai, with its commitment to social justice and its egalitarian approach, has become a role model, not only for other schools of Buddhism, but for other religions as well. Readers will be inspired by the struggles and triumphs of the Soka Gakkai's three founding presidents—individuals who staked their lives on the teachings of the Lotus Sutra and the extraordinary power of those teachings to help people become happy.

This inspiring narrative provides readers with the principles with which they can positively transform their own lives for the better and realize enduring happiness for themselves and others.

Sacred Services of the Lotus Sutra Ryuei McCormick,Mark Herrick,2019-07-29 This book contains the full and complete daily gongyo meditation service for Nichiren Shu Buddhists. Nichiren Shu practitioners perform a twice daily gongyo meditation service that involves all six senses in an act of celebration, fully immersing themselves into the sublime reality of the Lotus Sutra while taking refuge in the Sanctuary of Awakening. Every gongyo meditation service is a re-creation of the Lotus Sutra's mystical Ceremony in the Air. This book's unique sutra recitation design matches the Japanese Shindoku with English in a side by side, line by line format, making it easy to recite either Shindoku or English while seeing what is the meaning of each line. The English translation is graciously provided with permission by Kosei Publishing of Japan, from their newest translation of the Threefold Lotus Sutra. Their translation is carefully balanced for ease of recitation in English and updated neutralizing gender references making this translation relevant for today's modern practitioners. This book includes the full and complete daily gongyo service, as well as optional Shodaigyo Meditation, memorial service, healing service, meal service, Dharanis, Shomyo hymns, and two silent guided meditations. It provides detailed instructions how to celebrate the various services as well as a short introduction to Nichiren Shu Buddhism.
