Grandma Says: Wake Up, World! Agnes Baker Pilgrim,2015-12-01 Agnes Baker Pilgrim, known to most as Grandma Aggie, is in her nineties and is the oldest living member of the Takelma Tribe, one of the Confederated Tribes of Siletz. A descendant of both spiritual and political tribal leaders, Grandma Aggie travels tirelessly around the world to keep traditions alive, to help those in need, and to be a voice for the voiceless, helping everyone to remember to preserve our Earth for animals and each other in a spiritual environment. Considered an excellent speaker, she has mesmerized her audience wherever she appears, and now her wit, wisdom, memories, advice, stories and spirituality have been captured for all to hear. Honored as a "Living Cultural Legend" by the Oregon Council of the Arts, Grandma Aggie here speaks about her childhood memories, about her tribe and her life as a child growing up in an area that often didn't allow Indians and dogs into many public places, as well as about such contemporary issues as bullying, teen suicide, drugs and alcohol, Pope Francis, President Obama, water conservation, climate change, and much more. This is an amazing recording of one of the oldest and most important voices of the First Nation and of the world. Her stories and advice will mesmerize and captivate you, as well as provide a blueprint for how all the inhabitants of the earth can live together in harmony, spirituality, and peace.

Friends G. Bernard Rodgers, 2015-05-15 Friendship is earned by those that show love, care, kindness, and concern, to those they feel are important to them. When you describe a friend, you must first know what it means to be a friend. The real feelings you get, knowing that you have a friend, is the same feeling your friend gets, knowing that you feel the same way about them. With respect and honor, based on the quality of your friends' character, then you decide if they should be your friend. Let's use our intelligence to view ourselves, as being the quality people that anyone would be honored to be friends. Remember, Always with Love

Grandma Tell Me a Story Edith Bennett MacLelland, 2011-08-23 Most children love to hear stories, especially at bedtime. The favorite story of my two sons was told them by their father, over and over again, of which they never tired: HOW HE CAME OVER TO AMERICA FROM SCOTLAND ON A BIG BOAT. My purpose in writing this story now, of my voyage to Africa on a freighter, is that my grandchildren and great grandchildren might enjoy hearing of some of my experiences, which in the providence of God, have taken place in my life. Some statistics and a little information was acquired from the library before leaving for the various countries. This has been interwoven in my travelogue all of which was written on board ship.

Continuing My Walk as Ordered by God Joyce Ashton-Douglas, 2010-08-23 This is my second attempt to go solo. It is a continuation of a series I like to refer to as My walks with God. In the first book, My Walk through life as God orders my steps, I simply let the spirit pick the poems I put in the book and I am basically doing the same with book number two, Continuing My Walk as ordered by God. I hope you will find something inside these pages that will bring comfort, understanding or the answer to a troubling problem. May the Lord bless you all!

If you can answer Yes to any of these questions, and maybe even if you can't, Grandma Dipped Snuff is a must-read book for you. Taken from a weekly column in a small-town newspaper, these essays are as current as today, but reflect the sense of a time gone by.
