Pain Log Book Source Studio,2020-06-26 CHRONIC PAIN and Chronic Illness - Pattern Catching, Symptom Tracking Journal If you've been suffering from chronic pain for a while and have thought of creating a pain journal and mood tracker for quite some time, then this journal will be your real sidekick. Through observation of your symptoms and triggers during the day, you can easily highlight trends and track the effectiveness of your current treatments. Sharing these details with your healthcare team can drastically improve your chronic pain management. Instead of needing to mentally recall how often you have felt pain or how severe it was, you can easily refer to your journal for a detailed record and description. You'll be able to track daily: The overall level of pain, Locations of pain, Interference of pain on your sleep, The effect of weather changes on your pain, Your fatigue during the day, Your mood, Exercise level, Medications and/or supplements. You'll also have a section for your notes so that you can add additional triggers, water intake, pain patterns that you've noticed as well as your body's reactions to certain food groups. Each day consists of 2-pages of trackers. They are not pre-dated so that you can use whenever needed. You'll have total of 122 tracking pages. This journal is a life changer for chronic pain sufferers, their doctors, caregivers, family and friends. Also would make a thoughtful gift to someone you love who is in need of this health tracker.
