We're All Dead Here Glenda Norwood Petz,2023-02-13 From the author of Ghost Girl and Hurricane comes a collection of her best horror short stories and novellas. We're All Dead Here contains ten tales of bone-chilling terror. Snowbound finds a young woman stranded on a desolate highway during a blizzard, a road that she was warned to stay off of. Sheltered inside her car, she is being stalked by night creatures with a thirst for human blood. In Midnight At the Morgue, night watchman, Carlo Ranerry, gets trapped in the basement morgue during a power outage – and he's not alone. What was supposed to be a pleasure trip to New York City turns into a sky terror when the small private jet is hi-jacked in Flight of Fancy. Other stories included are Autopsy, What Grows In the Garden, Riders On the Storm, Dentophobia, Kitty Kibbles, The Rocking Chair, and Scenic Route. All of these stories are nail-biting tales of fear that will haunt you long after you finish the book.

The Pasta Kidz: The Sorry Sticks Bryony Supper,2017-03-22 The Pasta Kidz are back with the big news – Gilbert have made a Pastaball which will be used in the real Pastaball™ game – watch out for further details! The Pasta Kidz™ and Petz Adventures are humorous, zany, magical stories that bring together the pasta-themed Kidz – introducing Victor Vermicelli and Lola Lasagne and their Petz – Val the Vermicelli Snake and Lopscotch the Lasagne Rabbit together in unusual circumstances, engaging with strange magical objects that have a life of their own. The songs, music and humour, told in a specially invented pasta language, will engage 4 - 7 year olds in a fantasy world of friendship. In The Sorry Sticks, the second Pasta Kidz™ adventure in a series of up to forty books, Victor Vermicelli and Val the Vermicelli Snake have been speeding in a ‘No Snake Lane’. When The Big Ticket arrives to tell them off, they call on the Pasta Petz and the Sorry Sticks to help them. After they have shown that they're really very sorry, The Pasta Kidz and Petz celebrate with a Pasta Parade, full of wonderful music from their pasta instruments. Every highly-branded Pasta Kidz™ and Petz™ story, illustrated in beautiful, full-colour detail, contains a moral message and will both inform and entertain young readers. The plots and messages reinforce how the Kidz are unique, with different personalities and their own needs. Each tale shows how they help each other, usually with their own individual pet, and throughout the series we see how their personalities and friendships develop especially when encountering new characters, like the wicked and huge Pasta Beasties!

Welcome To Cowbell, Daniel Chesterfield Glenda Norwood Petz,2023-04-23 Meet Daniel Chesterfield, a 6'7" foul mouthed straight arrow with a trite sense of humor and deep love and respect for law, order, and justice. Trading in his detective shield in Palm Beach County, Florida for a Sheriff's badge in the rural town of Cowbell, Montana, Dan is assigned to take over the Bear Creek County Sheriff's Office Sub-Station. Doesn't sound like much of a challenge for a lawman, right? Except that none of the deputies have ever received any formal training, they have no experience in law enforcement, they don't wear uniforms, and they patrol in their personal vehicles. Ridiculed by other departments and fellow law enforcement officers because of their ineptitude, Dan is determined to provide the necessary training needed to make reputable deputies out of them and bring respect and honor to the department. However, that won't happen without comical incidents. The competency of the department and the deputies is put to the test when the half-naked body of the daughter of a local, prominent rancher is found at Dead Man's Landing, a section of Hanover Pass where Emma Cooper often took nature walks. A preliminary investigation suggests that Emma's death was the result of a grizzly attack. Forensic analyses proves otherwise. Not only was she murdered, but the test results reveal that she'd given birth only minutes before her demise, yet there was no baby at the scene. When Dan visits Flying Aces Ranch to deliver the news to Harrison Cooper about the death of his daughter, he inadvertently stumbles upon a second crime being committed against him. Who killed Emma Cooper and stole her newborn son? Was it the same person who wants her father dead? Are the two crimes coincidental or connected? Dan's investigation will lead him to multiple suspects, but only one of them is guilty of murder, and he's closer to Dan than he realizes. Solving these two crimes aren't the only problems facing Dan. A nemesis from his past has followed him to Montana to finish a job he started months before – sending Daniel Chesterfield to his grave.

Portraits of My Dad Thomas J. Petz,2016-10-01 After the death of his father from prostate cancer, author Thomas (Tom) Petz spent a year processing and reflecting upon his relationship with his father and what made him the truly special person he was. What emerged was a collection of fond memories that brought to light a lasting legacy that transcended his dad's time on the earth. Through the pages in this book, you will hopefully encounter the man whose life provided the inspiration for it. As each portrait of his father brought comfort and encouragement to him, Petz hopes that they offer you the same, perhaps enabling you to see your own loved ones reflected back to you through these genuine and heartfelt moments.

Quantum Entropy and Its Use M. Ohya,Denes Petz,2004-03-24 Numerous fundamental properties of quantum information measurement are developed, including the von Neumann entropy of a statistical operator and its limiting normalized version, the entropy rate. Use of quantum-entropy quantities is made in perturbation theory, central limit theorems, thermodynamics of spin systems, entropic uncertainty relations, and optical communication. This new softcover corrected reprint contains summaries of recent developments added to the ends of the chapters.

The Punishment Room Glenda Norwood Petz,2020-06-19 At 18, Joey Sheffield left home, putting a history of sexual abuse behind her. Fifteen years later, she's summoned home by her sister, Rosemary, to attend the funeral of the man responsible for the crimes committed against her – her father, MacArthur Sheffield. Not wanting to let her sisters down by not showing up, Joey puts her disdain for her parents and the home she grew up in aside and reluctantly returns to Sheffield Manor. Shortly after her arrival, she starts to notice odd occurrences. Voices coming from inside the walls, the stench of her father's cologne, and the aroma of smoke from his favorite pipe tobacco. Things aren't as they seem at Sheffield Manor. When Joey learns that no funeral arrangements have been made for her father, and that no citizens in the town of Cornish, Alabama are aware of his death, she realizes that she's been lured home under false pretenses – and for nefarious reasons. Someone inside the manor wants Joey dead, and they'll stop at nothing to ensure she doesn't leave there alive. *WARNING: This book contains graphic sexual content and adult language.

The Fall of Autumn's Becoming Glenda Norwood Petz,2022-03-25 On October 18, 2013, Autumn Marie Jensen disappeared from Gunney's on Route 93 in Kingman, Arizona. On October 18, 2024, she returned with no knowledge of her eleven-year absence, thrusting her into a life where nothing and no one is as she remembers. Her husband, Simon, is remarried, her two children are adults, and her best friend can't be located. Where was she for all those years, and why can't she remember what happened to her? Is the Autumn who returned to Kingman the same woman who vanished? The new version of her possesses an uncanny ability that the old version didn't. The power to heal the sick and injured. Her unexpected return wasn't happenstance. She came back to fulfill a specific mission, one that will ultimately lead to her having to make the most important decision of her life. Making a choice between who lives, and who dies.

Her mother's new boyfriend, Neil Comstock, has taken up residence with them, and he's mentally and verbally abusive to Sage. Her mother, Doris, doesn't believe the stories her daughter has told her about her beau. Why should she? He never mistreats Sage in her presence. Doris is convinced that Sage is jealous over the relationship her mother has with Neil and is trying to split them up. When Doris and Neil are summoned to the police station after Sage's arrest, DeeDee immediately realizes there's a problem with Neil Comstock when she sees the spirits of two young girls who have attached themselves to him. It doesn't stop there. The number of spirit appearances increases every time DeeDee sees him. Who are the young girls and how is Neil involved in their deaths? What no one knows is that Neil Comstock is a disingenuous imposter and murderous child predator with a dark and vicious history who targets vulnerable, single women with young daughters. Now that he's lured Doris Barclay into his web of deception, he has Sage Barclay set in his crosshairs. The Children In the Woods Glenda Norwood Petz,2022-02-16 Ghost Girl DeeDee Olsen Blanchard is back with another supernatural case to solve. Now an adult and Child Psychologist, she practices medicine in her hometown of Pahokee, Florida. New patient, seven-year-old Ethan Portman, is brought to DeeDee by his mother for treatment of what she believes is a dissociative disorder, telling DeeDee that he has always been a happy and loving child but has suddenly become despondent, refuses to eat, and no longer plays with his toys. Upon her assessment of, and conversation with Ethan, DeeDee discovers that his condition isn't medically related. Ethan is being haunted by the dead twin brother that he never knew existed who is attempting to persuade him to join him so that they can be together forever. To Dee Dee's shock and dismay, she understands that the only way her patient can be with his dead brother is for him to die as well. Determined to learn about the life and history of Nathan Banks, the deceased twin, DeeDee must go deep into the Florida Everglades to solve his murder. What she finds in her quest for the truth is gruesome and heartbreaking. Nathan's ghost leads DeeDee and her husband, David, to Earl and Maylene Tibbetts, an ill-bred, illiterate, backwoods degenerate couple with a long history of abducting and murdering children across the state of Florida. The Tibbetts' farm hides many dark and disturbing secrets, and it's up to DeeDee to expose Earl and Maylene and the multiple crimes they've committed. Putting her own life at risk, she sets out to not only free the souls of the children trapped on the farm, but also to rescue the five living ones who remain there before the Tibbetts kill them, too.
