Five-Star Apps Glenn Fleishman,2010-11-02 It can be a concierge, camera, flashlight, game console, magazine, photo editor, panorama maker, note taker, travel planner, radio, bookstore, night-sky guide, GPS, music player, music maker, and plenty more...if only you could figure out which of the 250,000 (and counting) apps to put on your iPhone or iPad or iPod touch. Author Glenn Fleishman set out to discover how to use your device to find a movie, read a book, retrieve a distant file, make a phone call, play a strategy game—to accomplish a host of useful, and sometimes completely useless, tasks. Glenn sifted through and road tested thousands of apps to find the nearly 200 programs that fit his criteria for interesting, entertaining, useful—and essential—five-star apps. His clear-eyed selections will surprise and charm you and help you complete tasks, have fun, be creative, and learn something. Want to read a book or PDF or follow your Twitter, RSS , or Facebook feeds? You'll find the perfect app for the job. Ready to find the best action, word, and strategy games—so good, you may never put down your iPhone? We know the ones. Yearning for Thai food in an unfamiliar neighborhood or looking to reserve a table at a local restaurant? This book points you to the perfect apps. Need to track the delivery status of a package or turn your device into a barcode reader? Start reading and start scanning. Want to watch a movie—either from the studios or of your own creation? Glenn can direct you to the perfect app. Plus essential apps that will stream music, make you more productive, keep track of files, and much, much more.

Global and Regional Dynamics in Knowledge Flows and Innovation Chris Van Egeraat,Dieter Kogler,Phil Cooke,2015-10-14 Innovation, which in essence is the generation of knowledge and its subsequent application in the marketplace in the form of novel products and processes, has become the key concept in inquiries concerning the contemporary knowledge based economy. Geography plays a decisive role in the underlying processes that enable and support knowledge formation and diffusion activities. Place specific characteristics are considered especially important in this context, however, more recently investigation into innovative capacity of places has also turned its attention to external knowledge inputs through innovation networks, and increasingly recognize the evolutionary character of the processes that lead to knowledge creation and subsequent application in the marketplace. The chapters that comprise this book are embedded at the intersection of the dynamic processes of knowledge production and creative destruction. The first three contributions all discuss the role of global innovation networks, in the context of territorial and/or sectoral dynamics, while the following two chapters investigate the evolution of regional or metropolitan knowledge economies. The final three contributions adopt a knowledge base approach in order to provide insight into the organisation of innovation networks and spatiality of knowledge flows. This book was published in a special issue of European Planning Studies.

If You Give a Mouse an iPhone Ann Droyd,2014-10-21 The perfect gift for parents everywhere, from the New York Times bestselling author of Goodnight iPad. The parody of If You Give a Mouse a Cookie that every parent will relate to. If you give in to temptation and give a bored little mouse your iPhone, even for ten minutes, he's probably going to beam to some faraway place beyond time, space, and the sound of your pleading voice. And if he's that far gone, he won't have any idea what's going on around him, and he might end up missing out on all the real fun. From the New York Times-bestselling author of Goodnight iPad comes a delightful new commentary on the perils of our tech-obsessed lives and a fully charged romp for readers of all ages.

Heartbeats in Rhyme Anita Britto,2020-09-20 The Art and Soul of Anita Britto If you share my passion when it comes to rhyme I hope my book appeals to you and you lose track of time I’ve let my mind meander and travel far and wide Unrestrained – Unfettered – My soul has been my guide When words rush in like angels perhaps where eagles dare And my heart with pleasure fills while floating in mid air I drift along the mountains, the valleys, lakes and hills And soak in William Wordsworth with golden daffodils I dream of Keats and Shelley while Byron plays the fool Once you breathe Kahlil Gibran you’re sucked in a whirlpool Enticed by none but Oscar Wilde whose wit one can’t surpass Walt Whitman will knock you out with his leaves of grass While Rilke’s sonnets beckon and Rumi makes you swoon And Javed Akhtar sings a rhyme under the crescent moon No matter whom you fancy obey the tide and swim Listen to Neruda’s call before the lights go dim Words don’t ask for reason nor do they ask for rhyme Express your thoughts with passion and sentiments sublime While Rumi makes you ponder reflecting on each word Gulzar is magic to my soul – “I’m shaken and I’m stirred”

Connecting Disciplinary Literacy and Digital Storytelling in K-12 Education Haas, Leslie,Tussey, Jill,2021-01-15 The idea of storytelling goes beyond the borders of language, culture, or traditional education, and has historically been a tie that bonds families, communities, and nations. Digital storytelling offers opportunities for authentic academic and non-academic literacy learning across a multitude of genres. It is easily accessible to most members of society and has the potential to transform the boundaries of traditional education. As concepts around traditional literacy education evolve and become more culturally and linguistically relevant and responsive, the connections between digital storytelling and disciplinary literacy warrant considered exploration. Connecting Disciplinary Literacy and Digital Storytelling in K-12 Education develops a conceptual framework around pedagogical connections to digital storytelling within K-12 disciplinary literacy practices. This essential reference book supports student success through the integration of digital storytelling across content areas and grade levels. Covering topics that include immersive storytelling, multiliteracies, social justice, and pedagogical storytelling, it is intended for stakeholders interested in innovative K-12 disciplinary literacy skill development, research, and practices including but not limited to curriculum directors, education faculty, educational researchers, instructional facilitators, literacy professionals, teachers, pre-service teachers, professional development coordinators, teacher preparation programs, and students.

Net Works Xtine Burrough,2012 Offers an inside look into the process of successfully developing thoughtful, innovative digital media. Using websites as case studies, each chapter introduces a different style of web project--from formalist play to social activism to data visualization--and then includes the artists or entrepreneurs' reflections on the particular challenges and outcomes of developing that web project. Combining practical skills for web authoring with critical perspectives on the web, this book is ideal for courses in new media design, art, communication, critical studies, media and technology, or popular digital/internet culture.

Mindful alex:g,2015-01-28 What if all the conspiracies we have heard about are not theories but facts? Westminster. The day after tomorrow. A new political party has come to power, out of nowhere, and has made enemies of the rich and powerful – 'shadow people' connected to financial and corporate conglomerates, and perhaps even royalty. Ray Grady, a former talk show icon, has the charisma to lead this new force to the House of Commons and stop the nation descending into anarchy. There’s just one minor complication... Ray has just been assassinated, and all hell is about to break loose if the public finds out. A scientific genius has a way to reanimate this now-deceased Prime Minister, but the risk of exposure of the plan could lead to the wrecking of the country’s fragile stability. Ray’s inner circle of advisers must pull off the greatest escape of all – bringing their leader back from the dead. Unknown to them, they could have some major allies... including forces from the spirit world. With twists and turns, it's time to accept this is not the world as we see it described in the mainstream. The propaganda has gone, to be replaced with devastating truth. Are you ready to be Mindful? A UK-based The West Wing for a new era of politics, where the choices on offer are no longer left or right, Mindful will appeal to readers of political fiction and fans of television shows such as the American restaging of House of Cards.
