Life from Scratch Sasha Martin, 2016-03 It was a culinary journey like no other: Over the course of 195 weeks, food writer and blogger Sasha Martin set out to cook--and eat--a meal from every country in the world. As cooking unlocked the memories of her rough-and-tumble childhood and the loss and heartbreak that came with it, Martin became more determined than ever to find peace and elevate her life through the prism of food and world cultures. From the tiny, makeshift kitchen of her eccentric, creative mother, to a string of foster homes, to the house from which she launches her own cooking adventure, Marin's heartfelt, brutally honest memoir reveals the power of cooking to bond, to empower, and to heal--and celebrates the simple truth that happiness is created from within--

He wants to know why his friend Joseph has joined engineering even though he is interested in something else. He wants to know whether or not his batchmate Shweta loves him. Most of all, he wants to know from his mother who his father is. But no one will answer his questions and so he has to discover the answers himself, all of which has a major impact on his life. This is a story about the journey of four friends as they battle their way through their medical and engineering courses. This is a story about friendship and family....
