Rosalee, the Pw Marcy Lytle,2018-09-18 We don't always get to choose the life we will lead, and for a young woman growing up as a preacher's kid, being a preacher's wife wasn't part of her plan--yet God's plans are not always the same as our own. In Rosalee, the PW, author Marcy Lytle shares the biography of her mother, Rosalee--a story of a young woman's life in the 1940s as she meets and marries a US Air Force man in khakis. It isn't long, however, before Rosalee's husband hears "the call" for a career she loathes; it's the same career her father had, and she cannot rid herself of images of the persecution her father experienced, all because of his job as a pastor. Rosalee is talented, creative, and determined, but she often escapes behind her sewing machine until her children start growing up and moving on. Yet a simple telephone call will begin Rosalee's own new career, as she begins to make strokes that pull her to the top, above the waters of despair. Join Rosalee as she discovers some amazing truths about marriage, life, and aging that enable her to open her hands wide to those around her. Rosalee will one day receive the surprise of her life, and it is this final discovery that amazes her youngest daughter and compels her to tell this story...

Fearing what fate may await them if they are discovered on a primitive planet, the aliens place their trust with the rancher and ask for his help. The rancher provides his visitors with the supplies they need to repair their ship and accepts their offer of appreciation of a round trip visit to their planet to meet their leader. The rancher finds his life changed forever, his recurring ailments are cured and suddenly blessed with a mental capacity allowing him to mysteriously perform unexplained savant-like skills. After only a few hours, the rancher returns to his wife on earth. Using gifts given him by his alien friends is able to change the world, ending hunger and establishing a world peace heretofore unknown to man. I Have Something to Say PW the Poet,2015-07-09 In life, events occur that may touch our lives, our hearts leaving us questioning, searching for ways to express our feelings. In this book, I took a pen and wrote words gifted to me from a heavenly source. The words come alive upon paper for all to visualize, to read, and to maybe say what you could not. It speaks about joy, sorrow, and the tragedies in life that cause tears to fall in the silence of the night. It is a reflection into a soul searching, hoping that there are still possibilities leading to which we all seek and desire love.
