Worldwide Tango Milonguero Travel Guide Michael Komm,2023-12-18 You are ready, ready for tango. Anyone can dance. Who doesn't dream of going on a journey and enjoying beautiful music, which touches all of us. In togetherness, in an embrace, in a dance! I want to share this joy. My tango. It is not a fairy tale that brings us these feelings for tango music. It is a passion, a passion, so beautiful to watch and to feel. A feeling like coming home. A welcoming home, a warm embrace and a beautiful moment, for 10 minutes or longer, depending on the length of the songs. It all happens with a leading man and a reacting-following woman or with dance partners of the same sex. You think it's a dream, and it won't work? Be open and travel with me! In this book. Tango for everyone, traveling around the world. The author Michael Komm: get to know areas of his life, his experiences and his encounters with people. You will see his passion for TANGO, with everything that is there in all facets and nuances of his life. There are friends, family, love, passion, professional passion, giving, enrichment, sexuality-sensuality, scent, feeling and this in such a way that it reaches the heart. To share this, with husband and wife, or life partner, is the art of accepting, understanding and practicing it. Living dance, living love - MY TANGO. In his book, Michael Komm tells us about his point of view, his travels, where it has taken him in over 80 places on our planet, with different worlds. We will read and understand what it is all about! He leaves us free to follow him and to travel. So, it will be a journey around the world for us, with tango. Even for non-dancers, this book offers valuable insider tips to make traveling and LIFE easier. Let's celebrate, rejoice, travel without fear, and embrace the party.

Lines of Courage Jennifer A. Nielsen,2022-05-17 Jennifer A. Nielsen, award-winning author of A Night Divided and Rescue, artfully weaves together the stories of five kids living through World War I, each of whom holds the key to the others' futures... if they are lucky -- and brave -- enough to find each other. A powerful, absorbing story that shines a light on an often overlooked chapter in human history. -- Alan Gratz, #1 New York Times bestselling author of Refugee World War I stretches its cruel fingers across Europe, where five young people, each from different backgrounds and nations, face the terror of battle, the deprivations of hunger, and all the awful challenges of war. Felix, from Austria-Hungary, longs for the bravery to resist Jewish deportations before his own family can be taken. Kara, from Britain, dreams of someday earning her Red Cross pin and working as a nurse -- or even a doctor. Juliette, of France, hopes her family can remain knitted together, despite her father's imprisonment, as the war's longest battle stretches on and on. Elsa, from Germany, hopes her homing pigeon might one day bring her a friend from out of the chaos. And Dimitri, of Russia, wants only to survive the front, where he's been sent with no weapon. None of them will find exactly what they want. But the winds of fate may cross their paths to give each of them just what they need. And in this remarkable exploration of World War I by critically acclaimed author Jennifer A. Nielsen, they will discover that friendship and courage can light the way through the most frightening of nights.

Football in the 1980s Michael Keane,2018-10-05 Do you remember a time when footballers' perms were tighter than their shorts? When supporters still swayed on terraces? When a chain-smoking doctor played central midfield for Brazil? Take a nostalgic stroll back to an era when football on TV was still an occasional treat, when almost anyone could finish runners-up to Liverpool and when finishing fourth in the top flight was not a cause for celebration but a sackable offence! Football in the 1980s is an affectionate look at all the essential facts, stats and anecdotes from the decade before the national game was commercially rebranded. Including both some of modern football's darkest days and its most memorable matches, Football in the 1980s will take you back to a time of tough tackles, muddy pitches and cheap seats. Read on for a grandstand view . . .

The Politics of Dating Apps Lik Sam Chan,2021-03-09 An examination of dating app culture in China, across user demographics--straight women, straight men, queer women, and queer men. In this exploration of dating app culture in China, Lik Sam Chan argues that these popular mobile apps are not merely a platform for personal relationships but also an emerging arena for gender and queer politics. Chan examines the opportunities dating apps present for women's empowerment and men's performances of masculinity, and he links experiences of queer dating app users with their vulnerable position as sexual minorities. He finds that dating apps are both portals to an exciting virtual world of relational possibilities and sites of power dynamics that reflect the heteronormativity and patriarchy of Chinese society.

Ways of Hearing Damon Krukowski,2019-04-09 A writer-musician examines how the switch from analog to digital audio is changing our perceptions of time, space, love, money, and power. Our voices carry farther than ever before, thanks to digital media. But how are they being heard? In this book, Damon Krukowski examines how the switch from analog to digital audio is changing our perceptions of time, space, love, money, and power. In Ways of Hearing-modeled on Ways of Seeing, John Berger's influential 1972 book on visual culture-Krukowski offers readers a set of tools for critical listening in the digital age. Just as Ways of Seeing began as a BBC television series, Ways of Hearing is based on a six-part podcast produced for the groundbreaking public radio podcast network Radiotopia. Inventive uses of text and design help bring the message beyond the range of earbuds. Each chapter of Ways of Hearing explores a different aspect of listening in the digital age: time, space, love, money, and power. Digital time, for example, is designed for machines. When we trade broadcast for podcast, or analog for digital in the recording studio, we give up the opportunity to perceive time together through our media. On the street, we experience public space privately, as our headphones allow us to avoid "ear contact" with the city. Heard on a cell phone, our loved ones' voices are compressed, stripped of context by digital technology. Music has been dematerialized, no longer an object to be bought and sold. With recommendation algorithms and playlists, digital corporations have created a media universe that adapts to us, eliminating the pleasures of brick-and-mortar browsing. Krukowski lays out a choice: do we want a world enriched by the messiness of noise, or one that strives toward the purity of signal only?
