The Wor(l)ds of Neapolitan Arts and Crafts Raffaella Antinucci, Carolina

Diglio, Maria Giovanna Petrillo, 2019-07-19 This collection of essays investigates the terminology of traditional Neapolitan arts and crafts analyzed from a novel linguistic and cultural perspective. With some exceptions, the trades examined in the contributions—including pizza and pastry making, the art of presepio (crib), lute-making and coral dealing, among others—still exist in Naples and in the Campania region. They represent an important component of the cultural heritage of the area that this volume brings to light by furthering current research in the fields of terminology, history and cultural anthropology. The book is divided into two sections, corresponding to the two languages in which the articles are written (English and French), although the terminological analyses also focus on Italian, Neapolitan and Spanish. This choice is expressly demanded by the political legacy of Naples, which for six centuries was alternately dominated by French, Spanish and Austrian rulers whose lasting influence on the city's traditions and language the essays explore.

Salvation Reaches to the End of the Earth Lee Kah Wor, This book serves as a documentation of what a recipient of the mercy and grace of Elohim has found convincing from His written Word. God is love. I have the utmost respect for the gift of free choice from the loving Father God. This is the third of five-volume series on The Messianic Credentials. It is not about what the right choice should be. It would be ludicrously futile to debate over such a thing as it is a matter of perception. In the process of putting this series together, I realized that God (Elohim) did not write what we like to hear. He wrote what we need to hear. This is because love corrects (Proverbs 3:12 and Hebrews 12:6). And God is love (1 John 4:8 and 1 John 4:16). He wrote the Bible out of His Spirit of love. In view of the above, I have written this series to relay that same Spirit. It is an appeal to consider reunion with God the loving Father from the perspective of the salvation wrought through Christ crucified. The love of God will bring about a change in perspective. In the words of Romans 2:4, it is the kindness of God that leads to repentance. As a caveat, this series is to be read with an open mind. It is meant to present the state of things from a Biblical perspective with no malicious and derogative intent. Any perception to the contrary is highly unfortunate and/or regrettable. Volume 3 - Salvation Reaches the End of the Earth Jesus of Nazareth was born to die the death of the Cross. Even before birth, He was despised and hated but yet held in awe. You will find the scriptural basis when you explore the trailhead of Isaiah 49:7 in the third volume of this series. When the appointed time for the fulfilment of the redemption plan arrived, the beloved Son of God as Jesus of Nazareth allowed Himself to be crucified as the perfect sacrificial Lamb. He was not murdered and neither was He suicidal. Read all about it in Volume 3. It speaks volumes about Him.

Echad Lee Kah Wor, 2024-01-12 ECHAD is the watchword of Israel and it is found in the most important prayer of Judaism called "The Shema" (Deuteronomy 6:4-9). Orthodox Jews firmly believe that "Echad" refers to God as an absolute singular divine Being. No one has seen God at any time except God's beloved Son Whom God sent in the flesh as Jesus the Christ to explain, reveal and interpret God (John 1:18). Jesus has revealed the truth of "Echad" as recorded in the New Testament.

The Suffering Servant Exalted Lee Kah Wor, 2020-04-18 This book serves as a documentation of what a recipient of the mercy and grace of Elohim has found convincing from His written Word. God is love. I have the utmost respect for the gift of free choice from the loving Father God. This is the fifth and final volume of The Messianic Credentials series. This series is not about what the right choice should be. It would be ludicrously futile to debate over such a thing as it is a matter of perception. In the process of putting this series together, I realized that God (Elohim) did not write what we like to hear. He wrote what we need to hear. This is because love corrects (Proverbs 3:12 and Hebrews 12:6). And God is love (1 John 4:8 and 1 John 4:16). He wrote the Bible out of His Spirit of love. In view of the above, I have written this series to relay that same Spirit. It is an appeal to consider reunion with God the loving Father from the perspective of the salvation wrought through Christ crucified. The love of God will bring about a change in perspective. In the words of Romans 2:4, it is the kindness of God that leads to repentance. As a caveat, this series is to be read with an open mind. It is meant to present the state of things from a Biblical perspective with no malicious and derogative intent. Any perception to the contrary is highly unfortunate and/or regrettable. The quality and success of an occasion hinges on the amount of preparation that goes into it. The ultimate sacrificial lamb was tested and proven to be without spot or blemish. In this fifth volume, you will get to see how God prepared Jesus of Nazareth to be the perfect sacrificial Lamb from even before birth. He was well prepared, so to speak, before being deployed as the Perfect sacrifice for sin. For the lack of a better example, just relate to how one would prepare the turkey for Thanksgiving. We have been purchased with the precious blood of a spotless and unblemished sacrificial lamb (1 Peter 1:19). You will also get to see a biblical example of deployment without prior preparation.

Matthew 22 - An Exciting Boxing Match Lee Kah Wor,2021-10-24 In Matthew Chapter 22, Jesus exemplified 1 Corinthians 9:26, Easy-to-Read Version, I fight like a boxer who is hitting something, not just the air. A tag team of three boxing schools challenged Jesus! Three deadly and fatal jabs were delivered in the form of seemingly pious and earnest questions: 1. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar? 2. In the resurrection, whose wife is the woman married to seven brothers who died one after another without a child? 3. Which is the greatest commandment in the Law? See the sinister intent that was lurking behind each of those questions. Watch how Jesus took down each one of them with just a single knock-out punch. Observe Jesus' heart of love as He neutralized each diabolical onslaught. Listen to what Jesus was trying to unveil as He asked for the interpretation of Psalm 110:1. Finally, learn from the Lord and Master, Jesus the Christ, as we trace this match back to the Garden of Eden and the Wilderness Temptation. As the pages unfold, you are sure to be kept at the edge of your seat!

The Shema Lee Kah Wor,2024-01-15 The “Shema” is the most important prayer in Judaism. Within the Shema is the watchword for Israel; “Echad”. Orthodox Jews interpret and firmly believe that the word forms the key principle of Judaism; there is only one God. Notwithstanding, God sent His beloved Son as Jesus the Christ to reveal the truth of “Echad” and therein the essence of the Shema as recorded in the New Testament.

Mashiach vs Nachash Lee Kah Wor,2023-12-17 I believe God formed the world with the 22 Hebrew letters and Hebrew was the original language of the world when it spoke one language. God formed the nation of Israel to preserve that original language. It is through that nation that the beloved Son of God manifested Himself in the flesh as Jesus the Christ. Every Hebrew letter has a pictogram and numeric value assigned to it. Gematria is a method of interpreting the Hebrew scriptures by computing the numerical value of words. This eBook serves to present the scriptural basis for the use of gematria as a Bible interpretation tool. Apart from that, it also presents the love of God as evident from how He formed the Hebrew words, including those as contrasting as Mashiach (Messiah) and Nachash (snake), which alludes to the devil. Why did God equate the Messiah and Satan with the same numerical value? What does the Messiah (Savior) have in common with Satan (destroyer)? The answer to that question is the crux of this eBook. It is with fervent hope that this eBook will whet your appetite for God’s Word so that you will crack open the Bible to see for yourself just how much God loves you.

The Righteousness of God Lee Kah Wor, 2022-07-21 Discover the redemptive power of the righteousness of God in this short comic strip. Be blessed and established in being the righteous in Christ Jesus; unshakable and immovable!

The TaNak (Hebrew Bible) Testifies of Jesus Lee Kah Wor, 2024-01-18 It has always been God's will for all humanity to get to know Him through Jesus Christ and Him crucified. This is evident right from the very beginning. This eBook serves to prove that with Hebrew word study, gematria (reading words as numbers), and New Testament scriptures. As the great theologian Augustine once said, "The new is in the old concealed; the old is in the new revealed." In the words of Jesus Himself, "You search the Scriptures, for in them you think you have eternal life; and these are they which testify of Me." - John 5:39 (NKJV) Come join me on this refreshing and exciting experience of seeing Jesus in the Old Testament.

Removing Sin (Hakheh et Shinav) Lee Kah Wor, 2024-01-31 The Passover Haggadah is a guidebook to the Passover Seder (evening meal) in which four types of children are mentioned. "Hakheh et shinav"; hit or strike his teeth. This is a directive from the Passover Haggadah on how to deal with a wicked or guilty child, one of the four children types. It carries the connotations of coming down real hard on a wayward child in order to change his ways. However, a closer look at the Hebrew words reveals that the Gospel of Jesus Christ is concealed in the phrase "Hakheh et shinav". This eBook rightly divides the Hebrew phrase "Hakheh et shinav" to unveil the Gospel of Jesus the Christ. Brace yourself for an Emmaus experience of expounding the Old Testament scriptures which actually testify of Jesus (John 5:39).

Changing the Wor(l)d Stacey Young, 1997 Changing the Wor(l)d draws on feminist publishing, postmodern theory and feminist autobiography to powerfully critique both liberal feminism and scholarship on the women's movement, arguing that both ignore feminism's unique contributions to social analysis and politics. These contributions recognize the power of discourse, the diversity of women's experiences, and the importance of changing the world through changing consciousness. Young critiques social movement theory and five key studies of the women's movement, arguing that gender oppression can be understood only in relation to race, sexuality, class and ethnicity; and that feminist activism has always gone beyond the realm of public policy to emphasize improving women's circumstances through transforming discourse and consciousness. Young examines feminist discursive politics, critiques social science methodology, and proposes an alternative approach to understanding the women's movement.

Surviving Wor(l)ds Endre Farkas, 1999 The horrifying actuality that is the Holocaust sits like an immovable altar to evil in the middle of the twentieth century. Fifty years later, Endre Farkas, child of Holocaust survivors, revisits its terrors through the stories of his parents and through his own journeys. His parents, who both survived concentration camps only to confront renewed xenophobia a dozen years later during the Hungarian revolution, were forced to escape with their young son to Canada. The book is a personal journey of sorts' a journey to recover, if not innocence, perhaps lost hope. Canadian Literature Dealing with the Flesh Eric Lee Kah Wor, 2024-01-31 It is just so gratifying to the flesh to beg Jesus for forgiveness whenever we stumble. As much as it sounds so spiritual and humble, it actually negates the Cross. Every believer has the flesh to deal with and we succumb to it every now and then whether we like to admit it or not. Whenever that happens, we inevitably feel condemned and even question our own salvation. The self-proclaimed high and mighty religious folks would come down really hard with the call to perfection (Matthew 5:48, NKJV). However, if the truth be told, they are not that perfect themselves. This eBook serves to present a practical approach to applying scriptural basis for dealing with the flesh as well as to unpack the Biblical meaning of perfection. May the Holy Spirit lead you to the truth and the truth shall set you free from man-made traditions of religiosity!

Worship God Lee Kah Wor, 2023-07-03 "Worship" is first mentioned in Genesis 22:5 (NKJV), "And Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey; the lad and I will go yonder and worship, and we will come back to you." According to the rule of first mention, we get a sense of the intended meaning of a word or doctrine from whence it was mentioned for the first time. Hence, worship is in the context of the father offering his beloved son as the sin offering. Therefore, the worship of God has to do with the sacrificial death of God's beloved Son as Jesus the Christ. To pay God homage out of fear is completely amiss. It is nothing more than dead works. God is looking for those who would worship Him in Spirit and Truth. This compact and concise eBook serves to prove from Scriptures that true worship is to rest in God's unconditional love for us.

History of The/my Word Johanna Drucker, 1995 THE HISTORY of the/my WORLD provides a striking alternative to the familiar telling of historical events. Johanna Drucker's account of mythic and major moments in the course of western civilization marches roughshod over received traditions. When before has anyone called Alexander the Great by a diminutive of his first name? Or published a documentary photograph of the Last Supper? Or of Moses taking his first tentative steps into the waters of the Red Sea? This work interweaves references and irreverence, humor and insight, poetic language and an eclectic imagination. The combination of typographic innovation, visual puns, and linguistic play are unique elements of Drucker's style. A richly suggestive work combining the intersection of official history and individual memory, this work will permanently change your image of what comes after the opening line, In the beginning....

Image Driven Nature Lee Kah Wor, 2022-10-11 In this book, you will see: 1. God Whom you cannot see (as contradictory as it may sound); 2. God's unconditional love for you; 3. The resurrection of Jesus in the Bible; 4. The root of relational issues; and 5. Your true and undisputed identity. References are drawn from real life observations and the Holy Bible. Allow yourself to be persuaded by the truth of God being your loving Father Who Himself tenderly loves you. After all, faith is in essence divine persuasion. God persuades with the definitive display and proof of His love for us as seen in Jesus Christ and Him crucified. All of God's wonderful promises and plans for you and I have been reduced to writing in the Holy Bible. The Son of God descended from heaven as Jesus the Christ to explain God. You can run to the bank with it. I am not ashamed of the gospel because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes. God is pleased through the foolishness of what is being publicly proclaimed about Jesus Christ to save those who believe. God loves us. This is truth. Jesus came to persuade us of that truth. He did that by His death, burial, and resurrection. By Jesus Christ and Him crucified, you shall know the truth and the truth shall set you free. In the course of writing this book, I believe the Lord brought two of my friends on the journey through Facebook posts. The post by Xanny Ang on mutual expectations inspired the opening portion of the book. The sharing by Judy Huang is such a beautiful description of Jesus' love for us that it formed the perfect closing. God does not force His love on us. He persuades. So, sit back, relax and enjoy this exhilarating experience of divine persuasion.
