Cyan Syd Logsdon,2017-07-19 Colonizing Cyan may be overcrowded Earth's last hope for survival. It took Earth's last, dying effort, led by Keir Delacroix of the original explorers, to plant a colony on Cyan. Now the new colonists are uneasy in their seasonless paradise. Will destruction come upon them from a renegade explorer and her DNA modified creatures of the torrid zone, or from Saloman Curran, the man whose heartless manipulations brought them here? Or will it come from their own inability to adapt to their new home?

Heritage from Cyan Chris J Berry,2007-09-05 Book two of The Cyannian Trilogy continues the fantasy. It describes the development of a Universal Technology needed to provide another platform for the supernatural and physical dimensions to interact. Over the years, following their return from Cyan, Tristram teaches his people to submit their allegiance to the Infinite One and take Earth into the celestial realm. They achieve this, allowing him to complete the first stage of his great plan. Before making his transition to the spiritual dimension, he begins the second stage. Set now in their belief in the spiritual life beyond, Tristram is able to guide his people from the celestial window. They develop the Universal Technology, and from Earth, now settled in the higher physical life-plane, provide Tristram with the platform that will allow him to seed a virgin world out in the universe.

The Many Deaths of Cyan Wraithwate R. Perez de Pereda,2014-02-26 The good part about being immortal is that you cannot die. That is also the bad part. Brash, young, and markedly sociopathic, Cyan has the makings of a full army commander if he lives long enough to be promoted. But when a close brush with death breaks his resolve, he is rendered unable to lead his men, let alone leave his tent, for weeks. The tide starts to turn when his superiors send him a magical artifact that ensures he will not die on the battlefield. Unfortunately for Cyan, he soon learns that not dying can be worse than not living - a side effect of the artifact's magic turns more of his body to lifeless iron with each passing day. Knowing time is short before he becomes just another statue in a town square, he sets off on a quest to rid himself of his cursed immortality.

Cyan Toxin Jei Anders,2018-12-28 Fact 645 - High heels make great weapons. Somehow, Allie always managed to attract every sociopath within a 100 click radius. Don't ask her how she did it. She chalked it up to the unlucky curse that had plagued her all her life. And Sloven the Slayer was no different. Creepy was his middle name. Luckily, her mama had taught her the advantage of a well placed kick. Fact 792 - Allie hated liars, especially gorgeous ones of the male variety. After the attempt on her life and her team's betrayal, she tried to go back to her life, to ignore how lonely she was, to forget the nightmares that plagued her and the face of the one man she still wanted despite his lies. But life was never that simple. Fact 864 - Good doesn't always triumph. Sometimes evil just slaps you in the face and steals your popsicle. It was just one lie.

! Daniel Arthur Zagaya,2020-04-14 This is precisely a book about the preciousness of time. If I would say what this book is about it would remove the mystery. This is also a book about the value of privacy. I'll be very considerate for what you don't know and telling you what this book is about. I'd rather not completely leave you out of the know. For the most part we start from the center of the !, Expanding completely.... If I had to say what this book is about in as few words as possible, actually this book is about living within the moment, collecting and accounting for every moment leading up to this one. This is a book about accountability. This is also a book about accepting that I have full responsibility for all my ideas. I turned 34 yesterday actually on the 10th of March 2020. Perhaps you don't even think anyone's birthday is relevant. Perhaps, you don't think time exists. This is also a book about the congruence of beliefs. So, basically I started as an ! Leaving back till now. As you've already figured out grammatically, this book may very well be off the rails. You'll figure it out. Have fun!

A Storm to Remember (Short Story) Cyan Skye,2022-02-12 Big, scary-looking tough guys don't name their cat Mr. Kitty. And they definitely don't spend hours in the freezing cold searching for their lost cat in the middle of the worst blizzard in memory. When the pretty girl across the neighborhood finds an orange tabby named Mr. Kitty, the man who claims him is the last person she'd expect: James is huge and intimidating. But when he's gone, she can't stop thinking about him. As the blizzard worsens, Ashley finds herself trapped at home with no power or heat. There's only one person who knows she's in trouble. Will James come to her rescue, and can the two of them warm each other's hearts in the midst of a storm? A Storm to Remember is a roughly 6,000-word uplifting short story full of cutesy feels and light, clean romance to warm the heart and brighten the soul. * * *

When the doorbell rang, I wiped my hands on my pants, feeling way more nervous than I should have. It was just a guy coming to get his cat. There was no reason to feel this way. But when I glanced through the peephole, the guy standing there was so tall, I could barely see the bottom of his face. His body blocked my view of the rest of the porch. That's how big this guy was. I was home alone, and he was a stranger. There's probably some rule about this that mothers teach their daughters when they're young. Like, "Always have a friend there when you're going to invite strange men to your home." But somehow the nerves coursing through me felt a whole lot more like excitement than fear. Good lord, this was probably a sign I hadn't had a date in far too long. Just the sight of a man on Valentine's Day had me all giddy. He probably wasn't even single. And he was probably starting to think I hadn't heard the doorbell, so when I saw him reach out to knock, I yanked it open. Trying to look normal. Like I hadn't been just sizing him up from the other side. I hadn't actually been able to see his face through the peephole, and now that I had, I couldn't help but stare. He was terrifying. But also extremely handsome. Maybe it was the cut angles of his jaw, or the deep, quiet sharpness to his gaze. And he must have left home in a hurry, because he wasn't wearing a coat. Just a flannel shirt that made him look something like a lumberjack. I'd never thought a lumberjack could be cute before. * * *
