The Cherished Life Luo YeWuHen26,2019-10-30 There were always too many grievances in the world that could not be explained or explained.It would be better to ignore all sorts of matters and face life and death.The road beneath his feet, the fog in front of him, his life, and his enlightenment.Sword in hand in the chaotic world, free and easy, everything, but the heart.

Caring Forever Mo Mojiang,2019-12-09 Seven years ago, when she was under him, she had personally sent him to that prison without the light of day.Seven years later, he returned from the end of his life, looking down on her, while she could only prostrate herself in front of him and let him humiliate her to his heart's content.Her father was lying in a deep slumber. All the life she had hoped for had been lost into a pool of blood.She stood high up on the 28th floor, looking at him with a brilliant smile, Don't you just want revenge? Ye Sheng, you can finally get your wish today.Some of the scars burned the heart like a fire, making it difficult to revive.Gu Ying had been thinking ever since. If there hadn't been a beginning, then there wouldn't have been an end like her and Ye Sheng.

Not only did he meet one of the Four Great Beauty s, the beauty Yang. He also saw the elegant and noble Mei Fei, This is great. Wife Makes Trouble Again Mo Xi,2020-10-15 Fifteen years later, when she returned from England, she had let those who had hurt her repent, but she did not think that she would ruin his good fortune. He was the most respected young master of the sixteen northern provinces, the eldest son of the governor's mansion. He put his arm around her waist and whispered into her ear, How are you going to compensate me for spoiling my good fortune? She held the newly acquired Browning against his waist. How are you going to pay? ...

Provincial Strategies of Economic Reform in Post-Mao China Peter T.Y. Cheung,Jae Ho Chung,Zhimin Lin,2016-12-05 Focusing on the role of provincial leadership in the initiation and implementation of economic reform, this text studies economic decentralization in eight Chinese provinces. In each area, resource allocation and acquisition of foreign capital and investment are investigated.

Down by the Station Roberta S. Greenwood,1996-06-01 In 1933, the demolition of the thriving Los Angeles Chinatown for the construction of Union Station sealed the remains of this intact community 14 feet below the railroad tracks. The planning and construction of the Metro Rail subway system five decades later included efforts to preserve and protect cultural resources in the area, detailed in this volume. The assemblage of excavated material objects reflects the import, preparation, and service of food; recreation; health practices; the presence of women and children, rubbish disposal practices; and degree of participation in local social networks. The unprecedented numbers and densities of artifacts illuminate aspects of lifeways not previously recorded, revealing a rich picture of people and life in nineteenth and early twentieth century Los Angeles. Intensive historical research, oral history, and laboratory analyses have been synthesized into a comprehensive reconstruction of a community that was isolated socially, economically, and geographically.

Dictionary of the Ben cao gang mu, Volume 3 Zheng Jinsheng,Nalini Kirk,Paul D. Buell,2018-02-23 The Ben cao gang mu, compiled in the second half of the sixteenth century by a team led by the physician Li Shizhen (1518–1593) on the basis of previously published books and contemporary knowledge, is the largest encyclopedia of natural history in a long tradition of Chinese materia medica works. Its description of almost 1,900 pharmaceutically used natural and man-made substances marks the apex of the development of premodern Chinese pharmaceutical knowledge. The Ben cao gang mu dictionary offers access to this impressive work of 1,600,000 characters. This third book in a three-volume series offers detailed biographical data on all identifiable authors, patients, witnesses of therapies, transmitters of recipes, and further persons mentioned in the Ben cao gang mu and provides bibliographical data on all textual sources resorted to and quoted by Li Shizhen and his collaborators.

Rethinking Chinese Politics Joseph Fewsmith,2021-06-17 Understanding Chinese politics has become more important than ever. Some argue that China's political system is 'institutionalized' or that 'win all/lose all' struggles are a thing of the past, but, Joseph Fewsmith argues, as in all Leninist systems, political power is difficult to pass on from one leader to the next. Indeed, each new leader must deploy whatever resources he has to gain control over critical positions and thus consolidate power. Fewsmith traces four decades of elite politics from Deng to Xi, showing how each leader has built power (or not). He shows how the structure of politics in China has set the stage for intense and sometimes violent intra-elite struggles, shaping a hierarchy in which one person tends to dominate, and, ironically, providing for periods of stability between intervals of contention.

Imperial Court Mu ZiYun,2020-06-12 The world is a prison, the years are a lock, the great road is difficult, my heart goes in every direction, breaking through the four seas and the lands, controlling all living things. □

Exporting Chinese Architecture Charlie Qiuli Xue,Guanghai Ding,2022-08-18 This book studies the unexplored history of China-aided architecture erected in the developing world since the 1950s. By 2019, over 1,000 buildings had been delivered to more than 160 countries, including parliament houses, convention centers, stadiums, gymnasiums, theaters, schools, hospitals, libraries, railways, and stations. These projects, which have played a significant role in promoting economic transformation, cultural engagement and social and environmental well-being, have largely been overlooked or misunderstood by the international community. Why did China donate so many foreign-aid buildings? How were these buildings built in the remote land of developing countries with intricate influences and limited resources? Have they helped modernize the recipient countries? The authors of this book use a wide range of representative projects built in different historic periods and geographical locations as case studies to address the above questions from various perspectives. This book fills an enormous gap in modern architecture in China and the world. It offers architectural students and scholars in various disciplines the necessary knowledge on diplomatic architecture; informs architects the appropriate methods of cross-border design and low-tech building; teaches government officials the best practice of donating and receiving foreign-aid buildings; and enhances public awareness of cultural diversity in Asia, Africa, Oceania, and Latin America. With abundant first-hand materials, historical pictures, and drawings, the book is a must-read for those who are interested in modern architecture and developmental aid in the world. China's architecture abroad, notably in Africa and Asia, has been perceived with both fascination and anxiety. Based on a wealth of sources often difficult to access for scholars from outside China, this book links the history and present of China's architectural mobilities in ways that will stimulate new debates in architectural history and urban studies. - □ukasz Stanek, Professor of Architectural History, The University of Manchester, UK
