Kanzul Islam Qari Mohammad Amin Chishti Saeedi,2016-01-01 I wanted to write this book in response to the types of questions I had encountered during the course of my 17 year career as a religious teacher, to young children and adults in the United Kingdom. I was faced with many questions; this meant that I had to refer to various books and other sources of research to get the best answers as possible.
I could not find any comprehensive text dealing with questions that were asked of me. It occurred to me that I should compile a book comprehensive enough to address central questions and issues associated with practices of our Deen as well as special Du'as which we should try to read in every day life. I have dealt with the importance of Durood Shareef and Du'as that should be recited. This book is aimed at the English speaking youth to make it more accessible so that the maximum amount of benefit can be reaped from it. I hope that this ensures what children learn will remain with them so that they do not forget the lessons this book teaches. I take responsibility for what ever is written in this book and any mistakes are my own and may Allah forgive me if there are any. I pray that people get benefit from this book and pass on any knowledge they get for the pleasure of Allah.

THE LIVES OF THE SAHABAH1-3 VOL 3 01-01-2008,

Identity, Marginalisation, Activism, and Victimhood in Egypt

Mina Ibrahim,2022-11-30 This book, first ethnographic attempt, examines negated spaces, practices, and relationships that have been intentionally or unintentionally dismissed from academic and non-academic studies, articles, reports, and policy papers that investigate and debate the experiences of Coptic Orthodox Christians in Egypt. By taking the Coptic identity and faith to bars, liquor stores, coffeehouses, weed gatherings, prisons, casinos, night clubs, brothels, dating applications, and porn sites, this book argues that airing out this “dirty laundry” points to the limits of victimhood and activist narratives that shape the representation of Coptic grievances and interests on both national and international levels. By introducing misfits who exist in the shadows of the well-studied Coptic rituals, traditions, miracles, saints’ apparitions, and street protests, the book highlights the contradiction between the centrality of sin to the (Coptic) Christian tradition and theology, on one hand, and on the other hand the dismissal of lives that are dominantly labelled as sinful while simultaneously studying Copts as agents or victims of history and in today's Egyptian society. Drawing on many years of fieldwork accompanied and preceded by periods the author spent as a student and a lay servant in different forms of services in the Coptic Orthodox Church, the book acknowledges the recent anthropological work that is critical of how the secular West and its academia misrepresent God and His believers in the Middle East. However, the fact that this book extends its arguments from "ethnographic confessions" collected from who deal with God on a daily basis since their childhood, it investigates the implications and consequences of inviting God to be part of an anthropological study that complicates aspects of repentance and salvation among the largest Christian minority in the Middle East.

Contemporary Pakistani Speculative Fiction and the Global Imaginary Shazia Sadaf, Aroosa Kanwal, 2023-09-26 As the first book-length study of emergent Pakistani speculative fiction written in English, this critical work explores the ways in which contemporary Pakistani authors extend the genre in new directions by challenging the cognitive majoritarianism (usually Western) in this field.

Responding to the recent Afro science fiction movement that has spurred non-Western writers to seek a democratization of the broader genre of speculative fiction, Pakistani writers have incorporated elements from djinn mythology, Qur'anic eschatology, Desi (South Asian) traditions, local folklore, and Islamic feminisms in their narratives to encourage familiarity with alternative world views. In five chapters, this book analyzes fiction by several established Pakistani authors as well as emerging writers to highlight the literary value of these contemporary works in reconciling competing cognitive approaches, blurring the dividing line between possibilities and impossibilities in envisioning humanity's collective future, and anticipating the future of human rights in these envisioned worlds.

Prayer (Solah) Abu Khadijah Damansari, 2024-03-15 In this book, Abu Khadijah Damansari embarks on a profound journey, delving deep into the essence of Islamic worship through the lens of Prayer (Solah). With care, the author carefully arranges sacred texts from the Qur'an, Hadiths of the Prophet Muhammad (may Allah's peace and blessings be upon him), the sayings of the prophetic Companions (may Allah be pleased with them), and insights from our esteemed Islamic scholars (may Allah have mercy on them). This compelling guide serves both – as a technical manual and a spiritual roadmap, compiled and written to nurture both the heart and mind of the reader. From the obligation of Solah to the intricate details of its performance, every aspect is elucidated with clarity and reverence. Readers will find themselves equipped with not only the knowledge of how to perform Solah correctly but also the inner disposition necessary for a meaningful connection with the Divine. The book meticulously outlines the essentials: from the times for prayer to the significance of the Adhan and Iqamah, from ensuring bodily purity to dressing appropriately for prayer. Each chapter unfolds seamlessly, addressing the compulsory, recommended, offensive, and forbidden elements of Solah. From the basic description of prayer to the details and nuances of prayers, from the significance of supererogatory prayers to the etiquette of group prayer, no stone is left unturned. Additionally, the author navigates through special circumstances, such as the prostrations of forgetfulness, shortening and combining prayers, and the prayers for various occasions like the two 'Eids and Jumu'a. Prayer (Solah) – invites readers to deepen their spiritual connection with the Lord Almighty through the profound worship of prayer. Whether you're just beginning your spiritual journey to seek guidance or yearning for a deeper understanding, this book intends to illuminate your path towards spiritual fulfillment, InshaAllah.

Sense and Sensibility in Islam Abdul Elah Nazer, 2012-04-28 Islam, more than 1400 years after its revival by Prophet Muhammad is still misunderstood today. The traditional Islam practised today, is not the Islam of the Prophets, Abraham and Muhammad. It has been acutely syncretized with alien concepts of Paganism, Zoroastrian and Judeo-Christian. This book will attempt to explain some of the misunderstood verses using linguistics within its various contexts. Resorting to reason, Sense and Sensibility in Islam “sieves” out words and expressions of literalism from historicity. The resulting exegesis closely mirrors the message of the Quran as understood by the Pagan, Persian and the Judeo-Christian weltanschauung of the days of the Prophet Muhammad. The use of logic and context of the message is paramount. Arabic lexicons are frequently consulted and ancient metaphors revealed. Myths, legends, dogmas, miracles, superstitions, and historicity will be examined in the light of modern disciplines of archaeology and its sub-discipline of epigraphy, anthropology, cosmology and other scientific disciplines in deciphering and “teasing” out the message to its “original” rational intent. Contrary to popular perception, Islam is not a religion. It is in fact opposed to it, states Nazer. Traditional Islam today is a syncretic medley of traditions from Zoroastrian, Jewish and Christian traditions. While Nazer attempts to separate Original Islam from this syncretism, he asks various pertinent questions on the origins of Prophet Muhammad; the rituals perpetuated in the name of Islam by the Pagan Meccans of the Omayyad Period and later Abbasside Zoroastrian Persians and question their authenticity through linguistics, common sense and unveiled metaphors from Arabic Lexicons. Like separating wheat from chaff, Nazer “teases” out ancient words and metaphors from commonly translated rituals in today’s Islam. What was the essence of the ancient faith, he asks? Did Abraham travel all the way to Mecca to found a faith on the ritual of prayers, or did he found a system of socio-economic reforms, which Muhammad followed, for later generations? Did Abraham build the Kaaba in Mecca? Did Mecca exist during Abraham’s time? What do the words Kaaba and Bakkah really mean? Was Bakkah the Mecca of today, or was it the Baca or Bekah of the Judaic religion? Nazer explains these words through linguistics from context and the answer may surprise many, including the followers of traditional Islam today. Finally, Sense and Sensibility in Islam examines whether Islam is compatible with Western democracy. Is Islam a democracy or an autocracy, allied to patristic bondage as practiced in Iran and Saudi Arabia? He comes to the conclusions that Islam is a set of social reforms that lead to peace, security and human rights for all.
