C.W.G. Peter Minack,2000 A vibrant, adventurous first novel from a writer of real power Set during the American Civil War of the 1860s, Campaigning with Grant is a daring, funny and highly original adventure through one of the most momentous events in American history, and also a bittersweet reminder of the nature of history, conflict, loyalty and love. Campaigning with Grant begins as a portrait of the famous Yankee General Ulysses S Grant, as told by the ghost of his staff officer, John A Rawlings, from his privileged place in the 21st Century. As the story unfolds, Rawlings' character paints a funny, contemporary picture of the nature of war, heroes and loyalty from his collected memories and stories of his life as he followed Grant through the Civil War as his Chief of Staff. At once a clever and witty take on this incredible period of history and the foibles of the characters that inhabit it, Campaigning with Grant is also a reflection on the nature of deception: of the reliability of Rawlings' memories, the authenticity of the stories of others, Rawlings' dogged loyalty to Grant, Rawlings' father's endless lies, and the constantly shifting sands of history. Adventurous, insightful, innovative and at times breathtakingly beautiful, Campaigning with Grant is a compelling first novel from a writer of great power.

Conversations with God for Teens Neale Donald Walsch,2012-10-01 Suppose you could ask God any question and get an answer. What would it be? Young people all over the world have been asking those questions. So Neale Donald Walsch, author of the internationally bestselling Conversations with God series had another conversation. Conversations with God for Teens is a simple, clear, straight-to-the-point dialogue that answers teens questions about God, money, sex, love, and more. Conversations with God for Teens reads like a rap session at a church youth group, where teenagers discuss everything they ever wanted to know about life but were too afraid to ask God. Walsch acts as the verbal conduit, showing teenagers how easy it is to converse with the divine. When Claudia, age 16, from Perth, Australia, asks, Why can't I just have sex with everybody? What's the big deal?, the answer God offers her is: Nothing you do will ever be okay with everybody. 'Everybody' is a large word. The real question is can you have sex and have it be okay with you? There's no doubt that the casual question-and-answer format will help make God feel welcoming and accessible to teens. Conversations with God for Teens is the perfect gift purchase for parents, grandparents, and anyone else who wants to provide accessible spiritual content for the teen(s) in their lives.

Flickering in the Arctic FAA Cwg,2003-07-01 This unique anthology celebrates the Community Writers Group of Fairbanks, Alaska. Founded in April 1998, the Community Writers Group includes writers from all walks of life and levels of experience. What they share is their passion for writing and their commitment to helping one another grow. These emerging writers take a clear-eyed look at their past and present lives, including adventures operating the Healy Roadhouse, running a dog sled team down a well packed trail, and hitting pay dirt at Ketchum Creek. Not all adventures are Alaskan in spirit, though. One story tells of a woman's miraculous recovery from breast cancer, another follows a runaway boy who jumps a freight train with nothing more than a pork chop to sustain him. Other stories and poems draw upon fantasy. How does a vampire who dislikes the taste of blood cope? What if a boy led his family out of a blizzard by pretending to be the leader of a French-Indian tribe who defied British soldiers? These writers speak from the heart, a heart as big as all outdoors. Pull up a chair and join them.

Cwg National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA),2018-07 A FORTRAN program which calculates the mutual coupling between circular apertures in a conductive plane is documented. The program is quite general in that the apertures do not have to be the same sizes, nor do they have to be polarized in the same direction. In addition, several waveguide modes (TE and/or TM) may be specified in the apertures and the mutual coupling between all combinations of apertures and modes will be calculated. The program also allows multiple layers of homogeneous dielectrics to be placed over the aperture array. Outside the layered region, one can specify either a homogeneous half-space, or a perfect reflecting surface. Bailey, M. C. Langley Research Center RTOP 506-44-21-03...

Ancient Egypt in the Modern Imagination Eleanor Dobson,Nichola Tonks,2020-01-23 Ancient Egypt has always been a source of fascination to writers, artists and architects in the West. This book is the first study to address representations of Ancient Egypt in the modern imagination, breaking down conventional disciplinary boundaries between fields such as History, Classics, Art History, Fashion, Film, Archaeology, Egyptology, and Literature to further a nuanced understanding of ancient Egypt in cultures stretching from the eighteenth century to the present day, emphasising how some of the various meanings of ancient Egypt to modern people have traversed time and media. Divided into three themes, the chapters scrutinise different aspects of the use of ancient Egypt in a variety of media, looking in particular at the ways in which Egyptology as a discipline has influenced representations of Egypt, ancient Egypt's associations with death and mysticism, as well as connections between ancient Egypt and gendered power. The diversity of this study aims to emphasise both the multiplicity and the patterning of popular responses to ancient Egypt, as well as the longevity of this phenomenon and its relevance today.
