Chief's Clipboard Ronny J. Coleman,2005-03 A beloved, well-respected figure in the fire community, Chief Ronny Coleman has spent the last 20 years imparting his wisdom in the pages of Fire Chief Magazine. Chief's Clipboard collects 100 of the most influential columns from Chief Coleman's writings. These columns address a broad range of issues from leadership, to health and safety, to succession planning that all fire chiefs face in the course of their daily work. Many of the columns reflect actual events and critical turning points in the careers of firefighters moving up through the ranks.Chief's Clipboard offers sound advice on how fire chiefs should develop their leadership, engage their staff, survive political situations within their organizations and communities, take care of themselves, and bring honor to the profession. Chief Coleman's real-world approach and his ability to summon the future of the fire service and place it in a context that all can understand make this an invaluable addition to any fire chief's reading list.

Notes from the Back of the Clipboard Michael Brackett,2008-10-01 Notes From The Back of the Clipboard contains a variety of anecdotes about experiences the author encountered during his life and the lessons he learned from those experiences. The anecdotes include growing up as a child, running a cattle ranch, operating a historic tug boat, managing an international consulting business, holding a variety of management positions, emergency service work (fire rescue, medical, law enforcement), a multitude of recreational activities, and raising three boys. The anecdotes come from simply observing people in the act of being themselves. Some anecdotes are funny, some are heart warming, some are serious, and some are sad, but they are all facts of life. Each anecdote presents a lively story that ends with a message for the reader. These anecdotes provide the reader a fresh perspective on life and may refresh experiences the reader had that could lead to a more rewarding and fulfilling life.
