The PowerShell Conference Book Mike Robbins,2018-09-12 This book is designed to be like a conference in a book where each chapter is written by a different author who is a subject matter expert on the topic covered in their chapter. Each chapter is also independent of the others so you can read one chapter, ten chapters, or all of them. You can start with the first chapter, the last one, or somewhere in-between and not miss out on anything related to that particular topic. This book is written for the intermediate to advanced audience. Prior experience with PowerShell is highly recommended.100% of the royalties from this book are donated to the PowerShell + DevOps Global Summit's OnRamp Scholarship Program. United Nations Global Conferences Michael G. Schechter,2005
This new book covers the origins purposes, trends and controversies of the United Nations' global conferences. There are 30 such conferences to compare, and many argue that they have not been worth the money spent on them. Others, however, suggest that they offer the only effective way to address global problems, like racism, sexism, overpopulation, environmental degradation, overfishing, urbanization, and the proliferation of small arms. This is the first comprehensive study of this key topic, delivering information essential to the ongoing debate on multilateralism, with examinations of: * the typical structure of a conference * description of the Global Conferences * substantive and institutional outcomes of the conferences * changes resulting from the conferences * UN Conferences as mechanisms for coping with the problems of the 21st Century This book is essential reading for students of the United Nations, international organisation and global governance, as well as practitioners from non-governmental organizations.

If I Had Two Wings: Stories Randall Kenan, 2020-08-04 Finalist for 2020 National Book Critics Circle Award in Fiction Longlisted for the 2020 National Book Award for Fiction Finalist for the 2021 Aspen Words Literary Prize Mingling the earthy with the otherworldly, these ten stories chronicle ineffable events in ordinary lives. In Kenan's fictional territory of Tims Creek, North Carolina, an old man rages in his nursing home, a parson beats up an adulterer, a rich man is haunted by a hog, and an elderly woman turns unwitting miracle worker. A retired plumber travels to Manhattan, where Billy Idol sweeps him into his entourage. An architect who lost his famous lover to AIDS reconnects with a high-school fling. Howard Hughes seeks out the woman who once cooked him butter beans. Shot through with humor and seasoned by inventiveness and maturity, Kenan riffs on appetites of all kinds, on the eerie persistence of history, and on unstoppable lovers and unexpected salvations. If I Had Two Wings is a rich chorus of voices and visions, dreams and prophecies, marked by physicality and spirit. Kenan's prose is nothing short of wondrous.

The Halifax Conference Craig Leonard, 2019-07-16 The Halifax Conference presents a transcript of a conference held at the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design on October 5–6, 1970, transcribed and adapted by artist Craig Leonard. Organized by Seth Siegelau, the Conference was conceived as a means of bringing about a “meeting of artists...[from] diverse art making experiences and art positions...in as general a situation as possible.” Infamously, the conference was held in the college’s boardroom, while students and other interested parties watched the proceedings on a video monitor in a separate space. The result was a conversation that devolved—technologically and ideologically—into a quasi-tragicomic farce, punctuated by remarkable moments of rupture initiated by activist resistance to the Conference from the outside and dissenting voices from within. Attendees at the Conference included Carl Andre, Joseph Beuys, Ronald Bladen, Daniel Buren, Gene Davis, Jan Dibbets, Al Held, Mario Merz, Robert Morris, Robert Murray, N.E.Thing Co. (Iain and Ingrid Baxter), Richard Serra, Richard Smith, Robert Smithson, Michael Snow, and Lawrence Weiner.

Implementing Student-Led Conferences Jane M. Bailey, Thomas R. Guskey, 2001 This book explains how teachers can serve as facilitators as students lead their parents through discussion of their work. The 9 chapters are: (1) Philosophy and Purpose of Student-Led Conferences (relevance, responsibility, and reporting to parents); (2) Roles and Responsibilities of Participants (teacher, student, parent, administrator, office staff, and support teacher role); (3) Designing Formats for Student-Led Conferences (individual or student-involved conferences, simultaneous conferences with multiple families, and presentation or showcase conferences); (4) Preparing Students to Lead Conferences (e.g., portfolios, making time for reflection, role-playing, and preparing students); (5) Preparing Parents and Colleagues for Student-Led Conferences (communicating the concept, preparing parents, and introducing the concept to colleagues); (6) Organizing for Student-Led Conferences: It's All in the Details (e.g., scheduling, arranging facilities, and encouraging parent participation); (7) Anticipating and Handling Unique Solutions (e.g., parents who cannot attend, potentially abusive parents, and students with special needs); (8) Evaluating Student-Led Conferences (e.g., gathering comments from parents, students, and colleagues); and (9) The Role of Student-Led Conferences in Authentic Assessment and Reporting. Student conference resources are included. (Contains 20 references.) (SM)
