Winning by Beginning Ken Simpson, 2012-08-01 I have the rare distinction of being one of only a very few people who can claim the title of Grand Prize Winner of the IsaBody Challenge. This is the body transformation competition that began in 2007 and is promoted and supported by Isagenix International LLC, the world leader in whole-body nutritional cleansing, cellular replenishing, and youthful aging. The funny thing about hearing that title is that in the beginning, I had every excuse in the book to not even start. I'll mention those excuses later on, but you need to understand that wearing the title of Winner is not where the winning began. Earning the title was an exciting point in my life's journey and I enjoyed having it bestowed on me by my peers in Isagenix, but I became a winner when I finally decided to begin the journey in the first place. That was by far the hardest part and I have respect for anyone who can finally come to the place where they make the decision to change. That is when we truly become winners when we finally act upon our decision to change. Isagenix has created thousands of winners.

Still Bigger Than Pink Csp Mirm Lori Lober, 2009-05 Conclusion On January 2, 2009, I saw my oncologist for my annual scans. While I am confident in my wellness and feel better than I have ever felt, I cannot help but be a bit nervous each time the tests are run. I am alive and well with great news! All are clear and I remain no evidence of disease! I know dedication to self-care and my new IsAgenix regimen are working to create balance in my body allowing for optimum healing! My doctors cannot give me definite answers as to why my treatments have been successful when others have failed, or even why I'm still alive and thriving now, NINE years after my stage IV, metastatic breast cancer diagnosis. However, they have said many times that I am a very proactive patient. Of course, being proactive does not guarantee success and long-term survival - unfortunately, there are no guarantees. However, I feel that truly believing that I was not going to die, most certainly was an important factor. In addition to that, my faith, the support of my family and friends, the combination of everything discussed in this book, and yes, a little luck, have all contributed to my long-term survival. Prior to being diagnosed with cancer, I would not necessarily have considered myself an extraordinarily lucky person. Now, however, the quality of life I live every day is much richer, the special moments more memorable, and the love I have to offer both to myself as well as to others, is deeper and more fulfilling. This is precisely why I tell everyone I meet that I feel blessed to have actually had cancer, and I continue to be deeply grateful to now be healthy and happy. Journey well! Lori C. Lober, CSP, MIRM
