Applying Islamic Principles to Clinical Mental Health Care

Hooman Keshavarzi, Fahad Khan, Bilal Ali, Rania Awaad, 2020-07-26

This text outlines for the first time a structured articulation of an emerging Islamic orientation to psychotherapy, a framework presented and known as Traditional Islamically Integrated Psychotherapy (TIIP). TIIP is an integrative model of mental health care that is grounded in the core principles of Islam while drawing upon empirical truths in psychology. The book introduces the basic foundations of TIIP, then delves into the writings of early Islamic scholars to provide a richer understanding of the Islamic intellectual heritage as it pertains to human psychology and mental health. Beyond theory, the book provides readers with practical interventional skills illustrated with case studies as well as techniques drawn inherently from the Islamic tradition. A methodology of case formulation is provided that allows for effective treatment planning and translation into therapeutic application. Throughout its chapters, the book situates TIIP within an Islamic epistemological and ontological framework, providing a discussion of the nature and composition of the human psyche, its drives, health, pathology, mechanisms of psychological change, and principles of healing. Mental health practitioners who treat Muslim patients, Muslim clinicians, students of the behavioral sciences and related disciplines, and anyone with an interest in spiritually oriented psychotherapies will greatly benefit from this illustrative and practical text.

The Wonderful Miracles of Sufi Saints of Kashmir Pirzada

Ghulam Rasool Shaiva, 2021-11-25 This volume in Persian verse is authored by Pirzada Ghulam Rasool Shaiva Zoonimari (d. 1288 AH). He was the father of Historian Hasan Khoihami. Its translation in Urdu was rendered in 2000 AD by late Khwaja Nazir Ahmad Kashtwari (retd. Under Secretary GAD J&K Govt.). Its English translation in verbatim has been attempted by the compiler. The book describes the miracles performed by the Kashmiri saints, most of who belonged to the spiritual lineage of Sultan-ul-Arifin Shaikh Hamza Makhdum Kashmiri (RA)

The Army and Democracy Aqil Shah, 2014-04-21 In sharp contrast to neighboring India, the Muslim nation of Pakistan has been ruled by its military for over three decades. The Army and Democracy identifies steps for reforming Pakistan's armed forces and reducing its interference in politics, and sees lessons for fragile democracies striving to bring the military under civilian control.

Awlya-i-Kashmir Sayid Ashraf Shah,2021-11-21 The book comprises of three sections. Part one deals with the introduction of Islam in Kashmir right from the time of Prophet Muhammad (SAW) followed by Sufi saints starting from 7th Hijri causing mass conversion voluntarily on getting impressed by the behaviour of the saints who lived a life of austerity. Part 2nd deals with the translation of a 150 year old hand-written Persian poetry manuscript translated in to English, describing the wonderful miracles performed by the Sufi saints of the area. Part 3rd deals with the biographies of the saints mentioned in part 2 with their spiritual and family lineages and copies of some age old manuscripts with bibliography at the end. The book makes great revelations of the past years which is bound to make interesting reading for all people.

Myths ,Distortions and Misconceptions of India Pakistan History Agha Humayun Amin,2013-12-19 In 1960s a Pakistan Army general officer Major General Fazal Muqeem Khan made the historically absolutely false assertion that One measure of the lack of British trust in the Muslims was evident in the British Indian

Army. While there were several wholly Hindu and Sikh infantry battalions in the army, there was never a single combatant all Muslim unit. The Muslims were ever mindful of their nobler past, resisted the new western influence at every turn. Most Hindus had no such scruples . This is from page .9 of Fazal Muqeems classic officially sponsored book The Story of the Pakistan Army published in 1961. All of what Major General Fazal Muqeem stated had nothing to do with the truth ! Not white lies as many erroneously state but lies in black ink on white paper ! Firstly Muslims were actually saved by the English East India Company from total political extinction in all parts of India ! Delhi the Muslim capital was in hands of Hindu Marathas in 1803 when the English Company captured it. Punjab whose Muslims later became martial thanks to British policy was ruled by a 8 Or 9 % Sikh minority and many Muslim mosques were used as horse stables and gunpowder magazines and plastered with cow dung and sometimes washed with cow urine ! Peshawar, Kohat, Bannu, Nowshera, Dera Ismail Khan was ruled by Sikhs whose French and Italian governors hobbies was cutting off and collecting heads of unruly Pashtun tribesmen ! Thus the Pashtun Mullahs of Peshawar and Bannu hailed English East India Company as liberator of Muslims in their

Friday sermons ! Sindh was only saved by Treaty of Amritsar forced on Ranjeet Singh by the English Company in 1809 wherein the Sikh was ordered not to attack and occupy Sindh. Hindus constituted 80 % of the Bengal Army units which rebelled in 1857 although the leaders of the rebellion were the Hindustani and Ranghar Muslim cavalrymen who constituted just about 4 % of the Bengal Army. Note that the Bengal Army had no Bengalis by race. On the other hand Muslims from Punjab and present Pakistans KP province constituted some 40 to 50 % of all Indian troops who loyally fought for the British troops against the Hindu and Muslim rebels of 1857. Now the more specific distortions of Fazal Muqem which were picked up without investigation by Stephen Cohen when he wrote his Pakistan Army in 1980s. That there were no all Muslim units in the British Indian Army ? Yes there were ! 1st Bengal Cavalry also known as Skinners Horse was all along Hindustani Muslim and Ranghar as early as 1857 and all along till First World War. 15 Lancers was all along all Muslim regiment from its raising in 1857 till 1916. 17th Lancers was an All Muslim unit in the reorganization of 1892 till the end of First World War. In addition the Bengal Army had six All Muslim infantry Battalions in 1893 i.e the 5th, 12th, 17th, 18th, 33rd and 40th. The 5th, 12th and

17th Infantry were entirely Hindustani and Ranghar Muslim units .The 18th and 33rd Infnatry were 100 % Punjabi Muslim units and the 40th Infantry were entirely Pathan Muslim. In addition there was the There was the 126th Harazra Pioneers an All Muslim Mongol Shia Hazara unit. As late as 1945, there was the 4th Battalion of Indian Parachute Regiment, an all Muslim unit. The 15th Lancers was only made a mixed regiment after its Pathan Muslim squadrons refused to fight against the Turks in Iraq in 1916. The 5th Light Infantry was only disbanded after it rebelled under a false impression that it was being sent to fight the Turks and rebelled and captured Singapore for two days in 1915. After First World War only all Muslim units were discontinued as Muslim troops had bayoneted British officers, defected to German and Turkish lines in actual fighting and refused orders to fight. Fazal Muqeems total dismissal of existence of all Muslim units in the British Indian Army has no basis and should not have been re-confirmed by a man as eminent as Stephen Cohen

Radical Maajid Nawaz, 2016-03-01 Maajid Nawaz spent his teenage years listening to American hip-hop and learning about the radical Islamist movement spreading throughout Europe and Asia in the 1980s and 90s. At 16, he was already a ranking member in Hizb ut-Tahrir, a London-based Islamist group. He quickly rose through the ranks to become a top recruiter, a charismatic spokesman for the cause of uniting Islam's political power across the world. Nawaz was setting up satellite groups in Pakistan, Denmark, and Egypt when he was rounded up in the aftermath of 9/11 along with many other radical Muslims. He was sent to an Egyptian prison where he was, fortuitously, jailed along with the assassins of Egyptian President Anwar Sadat. The 20 years in prison had changed the assassins' views on Islam and violence; Maajid went into prison preaching to them about the Islamist cause, but the lessons ended up going the other way. He came out of prison four years later completely changed, convinced that his entire belief system had been wrong, and determined to do something about it. He met with activists and heads of state, built a network, and started a foundation, Quilliam, funded by the British government, to combat the rising Islamist tide in Europe and elsewhere, using his intimate knowledge of recruitment tactics in order to reverse extremism and persuade Muslims that the 'narrative' used to recruit them (that the West is evil and the cause of all of Muslim suffering), is false. Radical, first published in the UK, is a fascinating and important look into one man's journey out of extremism and into something else entirely. This U.S. edition contains a Preface for US readers and a new, updated epilogue.

Underbalanced Drilling: Limits and Extremes Bill Rehm, Arash Haghsheenas, Amir Saman Paknejad, Abdullah Al-Yami, Jim Hughes, 2013-11-25

The present crude oil and natural gas reservoirs around the world have depleted conventional production levels. To continue enhancing productivity for the remaining mature reservoirs, drilling decision-makers could no longer rely on traditional balanced or overbalanced methods of drilling. Derived from conventional air drilling, underbalanced drilling is increasingly necessary to meet today's energy and drilling needs. While more costly and extreme, underbalanced drilling can minimize pressure within the formation, increase drilling rate of penetration, reduce formation damage and lost circulation, making mature reservoirs once again viable and more productive. To further explain this essential drilling procedure, Bill Rehm, an experienced legend in drilling along with his co-editors, has compiled a handbook perfect for the drilling supervisor. Underbalanced Drilling: Limits and Extremes, written under the auspices of the IADC Technical Publications Committee, contain many great features and contributions including: Real case studies shared by major service companies to give the reader guidelines on what might happen in actual operations Questions and answers at the end of the chapters for upcoming engineers to test their knowledge Common procedures, typical and special equipment involved, and most importantly, the limits and challenges that still surround this technology

Navies of South Asia Kunwar Rajendra Singh,2002 The book analyses the evolution of navies of South Asian states. Though all of them can trace their root to the British naval policy in the sub-continent, they have, over the period, responded in different ways to the naval and maritime challenges, in the context of their national requirements as well as changing regional and international environment. The book also projects the policies of the respective navies in the near future.

India's Wars Since Independence Maj Gen Sukhwant Singh,1980 Maj Gen Sukhwant Singh, offers a strategic analysis of the evolution of the Indian Army and the various wars fought by the Indian Defence Forces since independence of the country. He lists the causes and effects of the Indo-China War of 1962; he also talks exclusively about the formation of Bangladesh and the contribution made by the Indian Army in that regard; he informs the reader about the 1965 war with Pakistan and analyses its repercussions; and most importantly, he highlights the primal points that the Army has to be aware of in the future. This book is divided into three parts. The first part deals with the full-length study of the campaign that led to the creation of Bangladesh in 1971. Written authoritatively with the inside knowledge of the developments, both in the field and at the Army Headquarters, it makes a professional appraisal of leadership, strategy and tactics. The second part of the study of independent India at war cuts a broad swatch including the hostilities on the western border with Pakistan in the 1971 war. It assesses military strategy in relation to the previous wars with Pakistan and China, describes the evolution of the three wings of the defence services from the time of their inception, evaluates their various roles in 1971, and pinpoints the weaknesses inherent in the present set-up in relation to the functions the services are called upon to fulfill to ensure the protection of national interest. In the third and final part on India's wars since independence, a frank appraisal of the lessons that they teach and the questions that they raise in relation to the problem of building a credible and meaningful defence system for the country are dealt with.

Extremely Violent Societies Christian Gerlach,2010-10-14 In this groundbreaking book Christian Gerlach traces the social roots of the extraordinary processes of human destruction involved in mass violence throughout the twentieth century. He argues that terms such as 'genocide' and 'ethnic cleansing' are too narrow to explain the diverse motives and interests that cause violence to spread in varying forms and intensities. From killings and expulsions to enforced hunger, collective rape, strategic bombing, forced labour and imprisonment he explores what happened before, during, and after periods of widespread bloodshed in countries such as Armenia, Indonesia, Bangladesh, Nazi-occupied Greece and in anti-guerilla wars worldwide in order to highlight the crucial role of socio-economic pressures in the generation of group conflicts. By focussing on why so many different people participated in or supported mass violence, and why different groups were victimized, he offers us a new way of understanding one of the most disturbing phenomena of our times.
