The Pomodoro Technique Francesco Cirillo, 2018-08-14 Available through bookstores for the first time, the internationally acclaimed time management system that has been used by millions, written by Francesco Cirillo, creator of the Pomodoro Technique. Francesco Cirillo developed his famed system for improving productivity as a college student thirty years ago. Using a kitchen timer shaped like a pomodoro (Italian for tomato), Cirillo divided the time he spent working on a project into 25-minute intervals, with 5-minute breaks in between, in order to get more done, without interruptions. By grouping a number of pomodoros together, users can tackle a project of any length, and drastically improve their productivity, enhance their focus, and better achieve their goals. Originally self-published, and shared virally online, this new publication of The Pomodoro Technique includes several new chapters on how teams can use the pomodoro method to save time and increase productivity. The process underlying Cirillo's technique includes five stages: planning the day's tasks, tracking your efforts, recording your daily activities, processing what you have done, and visualizing areas for improvement. With this tried and tested method, readers can simplify their work, find out how much time and effort a task really requires, and improve their focus so they can get more done in the same amount of time each day.

The Pomodoro method is a time-chunking method aimed at those of us who have trouble concentrating for more than 1 hour at a time. Using a manual timer such as a kitchen timer (i.e. not a timer on your phone), you time 25 minute chunks of work in between short breaks. ★ 1 Pomodoro = 25 minutes of focused work plus a 5 minute break. ★ You complete 4 Pomodoros in a row then you take a longer break of 15 minutes to 1 hour and then repeat. ☐ Rules of the Pomodoro Technique ① During the 25 minute block, do NOT get distracted otherwise the Pomodoro isn't a real Pomodoro. Focus is the magic ingredient here so hold your attention only on the task at hand nothing else. Everything else can wait for your breaks. ② Don't focus on how many tasks you complete in a day, focus on how many Pomodoros you complete successfully. You could work on one project for an entire day if you wanted to. The importance is just that you have focused your attention on the tasks/projects at hand. Whether that task takes 1 Pomodoro, or 10 doesn't matter. Just take your productivity one complete Pomodoro at a time. What You'll Need: ♦ Our workbook, first of all ♦ A physical pomodoro timer (or egg timer, or Google 'pomodoro technique online timer') ♦ A pen/pencil ♦ Your dedication and focus
