The future of restaurants: The new normal and beyond In 2023, a paradox is emerging among restaurant consumers. Although customers seem to have an insatiable taste for restaurants, many are feeling the pinch economically. Restaurants should find ways to provide high-quality food at reasonable prices. This could amplify revenue and guests' perception of value.

Economics and the Origin of the Restaurant - Cornell University The restaurant as we know it is more a culmination of economic forces than, as commonly believed, an artifact of the French Revolution. Paris was the dominant commercial and cultural center at the time of the emergence of the restaurant in Europe.
