Off the Grid Dick Parker,2020-02-28 Off the Grid: Isaac has grown up in a secretive community started by a group of five men in the 1970's. It is in the remote part of Montana and everyone there does as they are told and stays away from the outside world. He meets Jason, a former member who was cast out. Isaac remembers Jason from when he was younger and they soon are having a secret friendship. That friendship evolves when Jason tells Isaac that he was cast out because he'd had sex with another male member. At first Isaac is shocked but he's attracted to Jason and their friendship grows to much more. Mud Bogging: Jordan is home for the summer between his third and last year of college. He's helping his dad on the family farm and learns that there is a new redneck living on the neighboring farm. He soon meets Trent who was given the farm by his aunt who inherited it. Trent is kind of out there and very open about being naked and letting it all hang out. He and Jordan, who has a boyfriend who is also home from school in another state, soon become friends and a lot more. It's going to be a hot summer.
