The Endra Scripts - Endra: Anecdotes of a Modern Day Witch Phases 1-10 Polonious,Julie Bonetti,Susan Barbaro,2017-10-11 Who is Endra? A modern day witch? Conjurer? Energy maven? She is the woman we all wish to be and some of us are becoming. You can read about her in 10 Plays where she uses science, nature, physics and universal understandings to deal with the issues we all deal with. Find real meaning in the energy of the Tarot, the I-Ching, herbs, nature and science. Knight is Endra’s partner and he lives in realms not of this world, and exists in Windover for only one reason: that’s where Endra is. Endra looks like us, walks like us, lives with us, but is very different from us. She is sensitive to energy & a psychic medium who uses magick. The magick she employs is not sleight of hand, or distraction, but is based in nature, science and the power of the mind. She lives differently and through her interactions in her town of Windover and her discussions with her lover, Knight, we might think and learn to live a little bit more like her. She is authentic, powerful, and knows what she wants, needs and will put up with. Endra: Anecdotes of a Modern Day Witch: Phase 1: Seeing Tarot - Endra “sees” Tarot cards in a different way. Learn about the Tarot, this maven, her town and her Knight. Phase 2: The Real Practice of Herbs - Endra shares her true craft and highlights what is real and what is not. Cauldrons, wands and fakes beware! Phase 3: Time for Reiki - Reiki through space & time heals in quite a different way. Travel with Endra & Knight to see things differently. Phase 4: Acupressure for Change - What is the point of using acupuncture if you don't affect real change? Endra uses the points to make her point clear. Phase 5: Cha Ching, Here's Your Change - Phobias, marches & protests consume Windover. What is it that Endra uses to keep her perspective? Phase 6: Mirror, Mirror on the Wall, Who’s the Bestest of Them All? - A class on energy gathers gurus, witches and warlocks. The energy dictates who is the most powerful of all. Phase 7: The Elixir of Words and Digesting the Truth - Doctors celebrate their diagnosis but Endra spots the real truth. Words can heal or harm. Phase 8: A Different Transmission - Endra hits the radio airwaves, for a whole different type of broadcast. Phase 9: The Scent of Magick - Science meets energy. Who ever thought of using science as Endra does? Phase 10: The Mysterious Breath - The power of breath takes on a new meaning when Endra is invited to your party. Once you meet Endra, you will want to be her best friend. You will want to understand her better and maybe, just maybe . . .You might learn a little bit of your own magick!

And that’s where we are. Social media, television, movies, other self-help books are unfulfilling. They just perpetuate an empty feeling. If you are interested in what everyone else is doing, keep supporting them. Yet, if you are interested in accessing something else within yourself and all around you, our books help to open the door to magick, science, creativity, and psychic ability. We work with energy. What does that mean? Everyone wants to talk to us or be in our conversations. So, we wrote about what we know and have experienced. If you want to be in our conversations, listen to our podcasts. Otherwise, read our books, that’s where the energy is. Find our books on our Amazon Author pages. Also visit:

Collaborative Business Ecosystems and Virtual Enterprises Luis M. Camarinha-Matos,2013-06-29 Towards collaborative business ecosystems Last decade was fertile in the emerging of new collaboration mechanisms and forms of dynamic virtual organizations, leading to the concept of dynamic business ecosystem, which is supported (or induced ?) by the progress of the ubiquitous pervasive computing and networking. The new technologies, collaborative business models, and organizational forms supported by networking tools invade all traditional businesses and organizations what requires thinking in terms of whole systems, i. e. seeing each business as part of a wider economic ecosystem and environment. It is also becoming evident that the agile formation of very dynamic virtual organizations depends on the existence of a proper longer-term embedding or nesting environment (e. g. regional industry cluster), in order to guarantee certain basic requirements such as trust building (Trusting your partner is a gradual and long process); common interoperability, ontology, and distributed collaboration infrastructures; agreed business practices (requiring substantial engineering Ire-engineering efforts); a sense of community (we vs. the others), and some sense of stability (when is a dynamic state or a stationary state useful). The more frequent situation is the case in which this nesting environment is formed by organizations located in a common region, although geography is not a major facet when cooperation is supported by computer networks.

Anyone with a digital video camcorder, microphone, computer and some technical savvy can launch an Internet video podcast show to inform, direct or enlighten. You can offer foresight, insight, or hindsight. Open a business or find a job creating and delivering digital video recordings—usually free-as podcasts. If you want to make money with video podcasting, offer to sell a sponsor's publicity and advertising on your video, or an author's creative works, interviews, or sermons. You can even show people how to fill out tax forms using a video podcast for instruction on most any subject people can learn independently. People who subscribe to video podcasts usually want to view for free. You can charge for a course to train or teach a class by video lecture and/or demonstration, but what if you want an actual paid job in video podcasting? And can you make more money in video than in the older, audio MP3 file 'radio' podcasting? Careers in video podcasting are beginning to bloom as seen by a variety of podcasting associations, news publications, and career information. Even job listings unrelated to podcasting are 'broadcast' by RSS feeds. Create your own job in podcasting by showing others how to find new trends and applications in their careers. Make informational, how-to, and motivational video podcasts. What if you want to use video podcasting to actually get hired? Are there jobs right now in video podcasting? Or is the field still primarily for trade publication publishers, syndicators, and video entrepreneurs on the Web?

Your Perfect Business Match Jack A. Tesmer, 2002 Matches organizational types to organizational needs and ways to proceed.

More Perfect Unions Rebecca L. Davis, 2010-03-31 The American fixation with marriage, so prevalent in today's debates over marriage for same-sex couples, owes much of its intensity to a small group of reformers who introduced Americans to marriage counseling in the 1930s. Today, millions of couples seek help to save their marriages each year. Over the intervening decades, marriage counseling has powerfully promoted the idea that successful marriages are essential to both individuals' and the nation's well-being. Rebecca Davis reveals how couples and counselors transformed the ideal of the perfect marriage as they debated sexuality, childcare, mobility, wage earning, and autonomy, exposing both the fissures and aspirations of American society. From the economic dislocations of the Great Depression, to more recent debates over government-funded Healthy Marriage programs, counselors have responded to the shifting needs and goals of American couples. Tensions among personal fulfillment, career aims, religious identity, and socioeconomic status have coursed through the history of marriage and explain why the stakes in the institution are so fraught for the couples involved and for the communities to which they belong. Americans care deeply about marriages—their own and other people's—because they have made enormous investments of time, money, and emotion to improve their own relationships and because they believe that their personal decisions about whom to marry or whether to divorce extend far beyond themselves. This intriguing book tells the uniquely American story of a culture gripped with the hope that, with enough effort and the right guidance, more perfect marital unions are within our reach.

Love at Last Sight Tyler Carrington, 2019-01-16 Love at Last Sight opens with the seemingly simple question, How did single people meet and fall in love in new big cities like Berlin at the turn of the century?, but what emerges from this investigation of daily newspapers, diaries, serial novels, advice literature, police records, and court cases is a world of dating and relationships that was anything but simple. The murder of Frieda Kliem, a young, enterprising seamstress who was using newspaper personal ads to find a husband reveals the tremendous risk associated with modern approaches to love and dating in a big city filled with strangers, swindlers, and a pervasive set of middle-class normativities that parents, peers, and authorities used to discredit men and women looking for love and intimacy. The risk of fraud, censure, or worse was ever-present, especially for gay Berliners, single women, and the many petit-bourgeois who strove for the stability of middle-class life but were outsiders to the social power structures of society. Indeed, though the technologies and opportunities of the big city offered the best shot at finding love or intimate connection among the urban sea of strangers, availing oneself of them—making an acquaintance on the street, pursuing a missed connection from the streetcar, or using a matchmaking service or newspaper personal ad—meant putting one's livelihood, respectability, and life on the line. This was the romantic dilemma facing the vast majority of city dwellers at the turn of the century, and a great many chose to risk everything for some measure of connection and intimacy. This book explores the history of dating as a way of illuminating a core tension of modern, metropolitan life that emerged at the turn of the century and persists through the present day--

When she receives a lucrative request for an in-person consultation from someone signed O, her brother persuades her to go to London with him, teaching him what he needs to know in order to survive the short appointment. But when O moves up the time of the rendez-vous and Ruth's brother is nowhere to be found, she is forced to take matters into her own hands.
