The Ultimate Dating System Leonard Bustos, Leonardo Amorado, 2013-09-16 Most people tend to spend thousands of dollars marketing their homes or cars online, yet, if they're single, they won't take the time or effort to professionally market themselves. What's more important to your happiness? This system shows you how to increase your value in the Interpersonal Marketplace by optimizing your presentation, and using data and technology to market yourself like a famous celebrity. If you've been searching for the love of your life and you haven't yet found them, there are 7 main reasons why you probably haven't: 1. You haven't met the right person, and you'll know it when you do 2. You're very selective and you don't want to settle 3. You know or have met someone special but don't know how to connect" or make them want you 4. You haven't defined the type of person you want to be in your life 5. You have little or no opportunities to meet someone special 6. You're worried the older you get the more difficult it becomes. 7. All your efforts have been unsuccessful and frustrating for so long that you've almost given up. You're to the point where you're hardly making the effort anymore and you're hoping that someday if you're lucky, the love of your life may magically appear. What if I told you that you are about to discover the solution to all of these challenges? Dating has been transformed from a daunting transaction based on scarcity to one in which the possibilities are almost endless. Now anyone can search for exactly what they want, connect with more people, and get more information about those people than ever before. As journalist Dan Slater shows, online dating is changing society in more profound ways than we imagine. He explores how these new technologies, by altering our perception of what's possible, are reconditioning our feelings about commitment and challenging the traditional paradigm of adult life. Slater takes readers behind the scenes of a fascinating business. Dating sites capitalize on our quest for love, but how do their creators' ideas about pro ts, morality, and the nature of desire shape the virtual worlds they've created for us?

This Chair Rocks Ashton Applewhite, 2019-03-05 "Wow. This book totally rocks. It arrived on a day when I was in deep confusion and sadness about my age. Everything about it, from my invisibility to my neck. Within four or five wise, passionate pages, I had found insight, illumination, and inspiration. I never use the word empower, but this book has empowered me." —Anne Lamott, New York Times bestselling author Author, activist, and TED speaker Ashton Applewhite has written a rousing manifesto calling for an end to discrimination and prejudice on the basis of age. In our youth obsessed culture, we're bombarded by media images and messages about the despairs and declines of our later years. Beauty and pharmaceutical companies work overtime to convince people to purchase products that will retain their youthful appearance and vitality. Wrinkles are embarrassing. Gray hair should be colored and bald heads covered with implants. Older minds and bodies are too frail to keep up with the pace of the modern working world and olders should just step aside for the new generation. Ashton Applewhite once held these beliefs too until she realized where this prejudice comes from and the damage it does. Lively, funny, and deeply researched, This Chair Rocks traces her journey from apprehensive boomer to pro-aging radical, and in the process debunks myth after myth about late life. Explaining the roots of ageism in history and how it divides and debases, Applewhite examines how ageist stereotypes cripple the way our brains and bodies function, looks at ageism in the workplace and the bedroom, exposes the cost of the all-American myth of independence, critiques the portrayal of elders as burdens to society, describes what an all-age-friendly world would look like, and offers a rousing call to action. It's time to create a world of age equality by making discrimination on the basis of age as unacceptable as any other kind of bias. Whether you're older or hoping to get there, this book will shake you by the shoulders, cheer you up, make you mad, and change the way you see the rest of your life. Age pride!

MY STORY ON ONLINE DATING APPS

The book profiles my time as an over-40s man engaged with online dating apps, during which period I was stood up, ghosted, verbally abused, propositioned for sex and asked to be a surrogate father to an unborn child. The lessons I learned have been encapsulated in this book for the benefit of men and women engaged with online dating sites and apps such as 'Tinder', 'Bumble', 'Hinge' and others, and who wish to avoid the first date mistakes that I made. STATE OF INTERNET DATE My book also provides an overview of Internet dating's major issues, including;

- Why you have a less than 20 per cent chance of finding love online.
- Why black women who seek love should never use 'Tinder'.
- Why all online dating apps should carry a government health warning.
- Why Internet dating apps would prefer that you don't find love.
- Why 90 per cent of online daters may not actually want a relationship.

This text details personal advertising in print and digital media, as well as online dating services, speed dating, the use of mobile dating apps and other topics. Interviews reveal the appeal and limitations of personal advertising for meeting people. This book offers a window into the development of trust and relationships, as well as the increasing role technology plays in shaping how people meet and mate in the modern world.
