Loving Ean Elle Christensen, 2015-06-29 Laila All of my life, I dreamt of my own fairy tale romance.
Imagine my surprise when I discovered that my soul mate was a lifelong friend. Ean is everything I want and everything I need. But, my romance has become a fractured fairy tale. Ean has pulled away and let his pain engulf him, leaving no room for me. I want to heal him and bring him back to me.
But, if he won't let me, I will move on. I will find another destiny. Ean Laila is the best part of me, the light in my soul. She is my destiny. I want to give her all that I am, all that I have.
But, the guilt and pain from my mistake has ruined me I am not worthy of her and I will not drag her down into my Hell. My love for her is forever.
But, she deserves some one who isn't broken So, I'll watch her walk away, into the arms of another.

Learning from Memory Bianca Maria Pirani, Ivan Varga, 2011-05-25 This challenging book, with excellent contributions from international social scientists, focuses on the link between body and memory that specifically refers to the use of digital technologies. Neuroscientists know very well that human beings automatically and unconsciously organize their experience in their bodies into spatial units whose confines are established by changes in location, temporality and the interactive elements that determine it.
Our memories might be less reliable than those of the average computer, but they are just as capacious, much more flexible, and even more user-friendly. The aim of the present book is to outline, by the body, what we know of the sociology of memory. The authors and editors believe that an analysis at the sociological level will prove valuable in throwing light on accounts of human behavior at the interpersonal and social level, and will play an important role in our capacity to understand the neurobiological factors that underpin the various types of memory. This book is an ideal resource for advanced and postgraduate students in social sciences, as well as practitioners in the field of Information and Communication technologies. Scholarly and accessible in tone, Learning from Memory: Body, Memory and Technology in a Globalizing World will be read and enjoyed by members of the general public and the professional audience alike.

Ean Legacy: la construcción de la innovación

María Alejandra Chaux Echeverry, Miguel Ángel Orejuela Duarte, 2023-11-23 Gran parte de nuestra labor como arquitectos radica en la responsabilidad que adquirimos con los edificios que diseñamos: cómo van a funcionar, cómo se van a mantener, cómo se van a operar... Sin embargo, existe un reto mayor que impone el proyecto a su autor, que lo desafía y pone a prueba su visión y experiencia, y es cómo se transformará este en el futuro. Cómo a través del tiempo, con el cambio generacional y cultural de sus ocupantes, podrá interactuar con ellos como lienzo sobre el cual crear nuevos espacios, de manera tal que se minimice la intensidad en el consumo del capital natural y genere valor a la experiencia humana para sí mismo y su entorno. Es ahí donde la responsabilidad como arquitectos nos transforma en constructores de un mañana que brinde mejores oportunidades a nuestro planeta. Una de las principales motivaciones en el proyecto Ean Legacy fue conocer y explorar nuevos caminos a través del diseño y la construcción, no solo para generar arquitectura de calidad, sino arquitectura con responsabilidad y conciencia.
