Private Label Rights: This basically gives the owner of the product the right to do anything that he or she wishes to do to the product. They can inscribe their name on the product, or make changes to the product. They can keep it with themselves for as long as they want, or sell it for a profit.

How to Pull Money from Any Resell Rights Product John Hayes, James Williams, 2011-11-03 Making money from any resell rights product even if it's old, over exposed and everyone already owns it. I know it sounds cheeky but it's true. Just because people may already own what you have and if they're digital resell rights products the chance is high that they probably do, that's ok. You're going to learn how to pluck your lame old resell product from obscurity and make it a star. Just because your resell product has let itself go over the years doesn't mean that it can't be made sexy again and new life breathed into it extreme make over style. To launch your sales through the roof this time you need to be different from all the others selling the same thing. This is why most resellers fail because they do what everyone else does and why the more experienced resellers are snapping up your share of the sales because they know this. To set yourself apart and to sell any resell rights product in your collection no matter how old it is or even if everyone already owns it you must re-create it, don't worry I'll walk you through it every step of the way so that by the time you're finished you'll be snapping up your share of the sales yourself.

Getting Started with PLR and Resell Rights Mark Nathwani,2011-08-20 Dear Budding Reseller,Hi and thank you for your wise investment in this step-by-step PLR & Resell Rights success manual.In the coming pages, I intend for you to follow a detailed, step-by-step, day-by-day, proven PLR & Resell Rights plan I have laid out for you, which I have personally tested, done, and reaped the results and profits from.I will be showing you what to do to succeed online as a marketing reseller that the average reseller does not do.As I write this, I find it fascinating in some instances. For one, it is a plan that almost anyone can follow you don't have to be a rocket scientist or even attend college to understand and follow this plan. Hence, what I have aptly called blindly follow your way to proven PLR & Resell Rights blueprint.Two, this plan is really over simplified, which I hazard a guess that most resellers overlook some hidden gems covered in the plan. I will be guiding you within the plan in doing what the average reseller does not do, which is to be responsible for the cutting edge between those who succeed and those who do not. Don't worry about the fact that there are thousands of resellers out there with the same product, because I remind you, too, that not everyone will do it right when it comes to reselling. You have gained an immediate edge over other resellers just having a copy of this manual in your hands! There is hardly any guesswork and planning required on your part, because you will find them all right here, within the coming pages. I will also show you what and where to outsource for all the things you need to get started for under $200. Be forewarned, though, that because your maximum investment is only as little as $200, this can spell investing more effort on your part. With that said, it's game time. Warm Regards, Mark Nathwani
