Sharing not Staring Trevor Millum, Chris Warren, 2014-04-16 Sharing not Staring steers teachers towards using the interactive whiteboard in ways which purposefully tap into its huge potential to make teaching more interactive, more exciting, more creative and enjoyable. The approaches described in this updated and highly practical new edition fall into the following broad categories: • Spotlight and word cover/reveal effects – having the impact of a puzzle which emphasises the question as opposed to a standard answer • Text Organisation – enabling sequencing and exploration of syntax • PowerPoint – exploiting the creative potential of this often overused or misused tool. • Word –

Performing the equivalent of conjuring tricks in the classroom. You can animate text, map it, organise it, hide it or scramble it. • Image, moving image and Flash – discovering the impact and potential of well chosen still images or video clips. Flash programs that have specific applications with words can add to the wonder and magic of English. The activities outlined in this book can be undertaken with any of the popular brands of interactive white-board and are relevant with all age groups, across all educational borders.

Literacy Smarts Jennifer Harper, Brenda Stein Dzaldov, 2011 This highly readable book is about keeping the mind open to the amazing possibilities that the digital world affords teachers and their students. Aside from the ability to give immediate feedback and save responses, interactive whiteboards can facilitate using assessment to improve student learning. Literacy Smarts advocates for student-centred learning, where teachers act as guides on the journey of learning that includes student choice, focused assessment, differentiated curriculum, collaborative work, and higher-level thinking. Based on extensive classroom experience, the book argues that interactive whiteboards can create numerous possibilities for teaching and learning. It describes how interactive whiteboards can lead us into the future of learning -- interpreting, managing, exploring, and expanding our students' thinking and enabling authentic learning. It will enable teachers to help students grow as learners as they think, interact, and engage with a wide variety of texts across the content areas.
