Head Start Programs D. Catherine Baltzell,Sherri Doughty,1999-05 Head Start has served over 16 million children at a cost of $35 billion in the 30+ years of its existence. Funding for Head Start has tripled in the past 10 years. Growing out of the War on Poverty in the mid-1960s, Head Start was created to provide comprehensive educational, health, social, and mental health services to disadvantaged preschool children. This report describes the (1) number and characteristics of those served, (2) services provided and the way they are provided, (3) federal and nonfederal program dollars received and spent by programs delivering Head Start services, and (4) other programs providing similar early childhood services.

Windows 10: Secrets and Tips for Busy People Kim Komando, It's a miracle that you get as much done as you do. Technology is helping you to be increasingly productive, although none of us often pays attention to its role in our lives. But just imagine tackling everyday tasks like paying bills, organizing digital photos, chatting with your kids scattered around the country and so much more without a PC or laptop. It's simply mind-boggling just how much we get done every day, thanks to computer programs such as Microsoft Windows. Microsoft has been paying attention to its billions of users; at least it has in the past few years with Windows 10. You're busy and these Windows 10 features can help save you time and effort.

Startup Program Design: A Practical Guide for Creating Corporate Accelerators and Incubators, Paolo Lombardi,Adam Berk,2021-12-28 A practical manual for designing startup collaboration and acceleration programs that deliver results for any organization Startup accelerators. Business incubators. Hackathons. These are the hallmarks of the innovation ecosystem development practices used to discover, launch, and scale the most forward-looking startups of the last decade. If you want to adopt these approaches to your own business but aren't sure how to implement them, now is the time to master the practices of today's most successful early-stage investors. In Startup Program Design, two seasoned veterans deeply versed in startup engagement programs provide you with the tools to introduce open innovation practices to your organization. While other books on innovation management tend to be conceptual at the expense of hands-on experience, Startup Program Design is a practical manual vertically focused on preparing the organization, identifying the right strategy, and designing an attractive and effective offer. Filled with real-world examples, interviews with program managers, lessons learned, and diagrams and canvases that outline a step-by-step logical sequence, it points you toward results that are scalable and repeatable. Whether you’re an innovation manager, executive, consultant, service designer, business owner, or startup community activist, this first-of-its-kind guide offers a radical new framework for true innovation.
