Feed Mira Grant, 2010-05-01 Feed is an electrifying and critically acclaimed novel of a world a half-step from our own that the New York Times calls "Astonishing" – a novel of zombies, geeks, politics, social media, and the virus that runs through them all – from New York Times bestseller Mira Grant. The year was 2014. We had cured cancer. We had beat the common cold. But in doing so we created something new, something terrible that no one could stop. The infection spread, virus blocks taking over bodies and minds with one, unstoppable command: FEED. Now, twenty years after the Rising, Georgia and Shaun Mason are on the trail of the biggest story of their lives—the dark conspiracy behind the infected. The truth will out, even if it kills them. More from Mira Grant: Newsflesh Feed Deadline Blackout Feedback Rise Praise for Feed: I can't wait for the next book.—N.K. Jemisin It's a novel with as much brains as heart, and both are filling and delicious.—The A. V. Club Gripping, thrilling, and brutal... Feed Tommy Pico, 2019-11-05 A Finalist for the Kingsley Tufts Award for Poetry A New York Times Notable Book of the Year From the Winner of the Whiting Award, an American Book Award, and finalist for a Lambda, Tommy Pico's Feed is the final book in the Teebs Cycle. Feed is the fourth book in the Teebs tetralogy. It's an epistolary recipe for the main character, a poem of nourishment, and a jaunty walk through New York's High Line park, with the lines, stanzas, paragraphs, dialogue, and registers approximating the park's cultivated gardens of wildness. Among its questions, Feed asks what's the difference between being alone and being lonely? Can you ever really be friends with an ex? How do you make perfect mac & cheese? Feed is an ode of reconciliation to the wild inconsistencies of a northeast spring, a frustrating season of back-and-forth, of thaw and blizzard, but with a faith that even amidst the mess, it knows where it's going.

The Feed Nick Clark Windo, 2018-03-13 Now a Streaming Series! Blake Crouch's Recursion meets Mad Max and The Girl with All the Gifts in this startling and timely debut that explores what it is to be human and what it truly means to be connected in the digital age. The Feed is accessible everywhere, by everyone, at any time. It instantaneously links us to all information and global events as they break. Every interaction, every emotion, every image can be shared through it; it is the essential tool everyone relies on to know and understand the thoughts and feelings of partners, parents, friends, children, colleagues, bosses, employees . . . in fact, of anyone and everyone else in the world. Tom and Kate use the Feed, but Tom has resisted its addiction, which makes him suspect to his family. After all, his father created it. But that opposition to constant connection serves Tom and Kate well when the Feed collapses after a horrific tragedy shatters the world as they know it. The Feed's collapse, taking modern society with it, leaves people scavenging to survive. Finding food is truly a matter of life and death. Minor ailments, previously treatable, now kill. And while the collapse has demolished the trappings of the modern world, it has also eroded trust. In a world where survival of the fittest is a way of life, there is no one to depend upon except yourself . . . and maybe even that is no longer true. Tom and Kate have managed to protect themselves and their family. But then their six-year-old daughter, Bea, goes missing. Who has taken her? How do you begin to look for someone in a world without technology? And what happens when you can no longer even be certain that the people you love are really who they claim to be?

The Feed Zone Cookbook Biju K. Thomas, Allen Lim, PhD, 2011-11-01 The Feed Zone Cookbook offers 150 athlete-friendly recipes that are simple, delicious, and easy to prepare. When Dr. Allen Lim left the lab to work with pro cyclists, he found a peloton weary of food. For years the sport's elite athletes had been underperforming on bland fare and processed bars and gels. Science held few easy answers for nutrition in the real world, where hungry athletes must buy ingredients; make meals; and enjoy eating before, during, and after each workout, day after day. So Lim set out to make eating delicious and practical. His journey began with his mom, took him inside the kitchens of the Tour de France, and delivered him to a dinner party where he met celebrated chef Biju Thomas. Chef Biju and Dr. Lim vetted countless meals with the world's best endurance athletes in the most demanding test kitchens.

In The Feed Zone Cookbook: Fast and Flavorful Food for Athletes, Thomas and Lim share their energy-packed, wholesome recipes to make meals easy to prepare, delicious to eat, and better for performance. The Feed Zone Cookbook provides 150 delicious recipes that even the busiest athletes can prepare in less time than it takes to warm up for a workout. With simple recipes requiring just a handful of ingredients, Biju and Allen show how easy it is for athletes to prepare their own food, whether at home or on the go. The Feed Zone Cookbook strikes the perfect balance between science and practice so that athletes will change the way they think about food, replacing highly processed food substitutes with real, nourishing foods that will satisfy every athlete's cravings. The Feed Zone Cookbook includes 150 delicious recipes illustrated with full-color photographs. Breakfasts, lunches, recovery meals, dinners, snacks, desserts. Dr. Allen Lim's take on the science and practice of food. Portable real food snacks, including Lim's famous rice cakes. Dozens of quick-prep meals for before and after workouts. Feed Me! Harriet Brown, 2009-01-27 In our appearance-obsessed society, eating is about much more than hunger and sustenance. Food inspires pleasure and anxiety, shame and obsession. We are constantly judged on how we look, so we've come to judge ourselves (and others) on what and how we eat. Joyce Maynard writes about learning to make pie with her complex but adored mother. Caroline Leavitt's chilling piece describes the overlap between power and eating. Ophira Edut explains how an outspoken "body outlaw" wound up on Jenny Craig. Diana Abu-Jaber writes about abandoning her Bedouin customs for America's silverware and table manners--and missing the physical, hands-on connection with food. Exploring the bonds between appetite and remorse, hunger and longing, satisfaction and desire, this anthology is for every woman who's ever felt guilty about eating dessert, or gushed over a friend's weight loss, or wished she had a different body. Feed Me! features the following essays: "He Called Me Fat; It Set Me Free" by Sari Botton "The Grief Diet" by Caroline Leavitt "With Hands" by Diana Abu-Jaber "Seconds" by Jenny Allen "My Worst Excess" by Amity Gaige "Sisi, You're Getting Fat" by Courtney E. Martin "My Ten Plagues" by Harriet Brown "Top Model" by Magali Amadei "Reader, I Ate Him" by Brenda Copeland "The Twin Paradox" by Susan O'Doherty "Attack of the XL Girl" by Laurie Notaro "Sugar Plum Fairy" by Dana Kinstler "Sky Girl" by Ann Hood "Plus What?" by Lisa Romeo "Ess, Ess" by Rochelle Jewel Shapiro "In the House of Jean Nidetch" by Whitney Otto "You're Not Fat" by Kate Harding "My Binge Year" by Jane E. Brody "Day One" by Wendy McClure "Quacks" by Kathi Kamen Goldmark "Battle of the Bulge: Notes from a Decade of Body Activism" by Ophira Edut "Take this Cake and Shove it" by Joan Fischer "Pie" by Joyce Maynard
