How to Do Just about Everything to Succeed ,2004 Success doesn't just happen -- it has to be worked at. Here is the book to tell you how to master the many skills necessary to be successful, even if you didn't know you needed them.How to do just about Everything is a best seller because of its unique take on offering practical advice whatever the subject. This book has selected the most appropriate (and sometimes the most inappropriate) hints for being successful. There is more to learn than you might think For every task there are clear step-by-step instructions, helpful tips and warnings, and useful lists of things you will need to complete each task, along with useful checklists and charts.With this book, you will see how you could: Become a Celebrity, Get Rich, Buy a Diamond, Be Happy, Say 'I Love You', Make a Dry Martini, Leave a Party Graciouslybut you won't learn about the boring bits. No advice here on detailed financial management or living within your budget.

Forbes ASAP. ,2000

How to Do Just about Everything Courtney Rosen,2004 Life in the office is not just about getting the best job. To survive in an office you need lots of other skills, and this book provides unique and practical advice, even for situations you have never imagined. How to do just about everything is a best seller because of its unique take on offering practical advice whatever the subject. This book has selected the most appropriate (and sometimes the most inappropriate) hints for office survival and success. It is no dull office manual, however, because that is not the real life in the office. For every task there are clear step-by-step instructions, helpful tips and warnings, and useful lists of things you will need to complete each task, along with useful checklists and charts. Do buy this book if you want to (or have to) Ask for a pay rise Write a mission statement Clean a coffee maker Ask someone for a date Practise dancing for the office party Exercise in the office Tie a tie Stop worrying But don't expect the answers to such job-threatening issues as the cost of a first class stamp, the dialling code for Turkmenistan or the cheapest supplier of paperclips.
