From Slave to State Legislator David A Joens,2012-01-19 This is a full-length political biography of John W. E. Thomas (1847-1899), the first African American to serve in the Illinois General Assembly and the leading Illinois African American politician in the years after the Civil War. Long forgotten by the public and historians alike, Thomas led a fascinating career which included opening the first school for African Americans in Chicago, serving three terms in the Illinois General Assembly, successfully passing the first Civil Rights Act in Illinois, and chairing two Illinois colored conventions in the 1880s. In addition to his career as a politician, Thomas was also a school teacher, businessman, attorney and real estate investor.
