ADVENTURE: JOURNEY TO EXCELLENCE HATICHONG COLLEGE, The Covid-19 pandemic has led the world to a dramatic loss of human life and presents an unprecedented challenge to human relations, public health, food systems and the world of work. Nearly half of the world's 3.3 billion global workforce are at risk of losing their livelihoods. Without the means to earn an income, many are unable to feed themselves and their families. Confessions of a Recovering Environmentalist and Other Essays Paul Kingsnorth, 2017-08-01 A provocative and urgent essay collection that asks how we can live with hope in "an age of ecocide" Paul Kingsnorth was once an activist—an ardent environmentalist. He fought against rampant development and the depredations of a corporate world that seemed hell-bent on ignoring a looming climate crisis in its relentless pursuit of profit. But as the environmental movement began to focus on “sustainability” rather than the defense of wild places for their own sake and as global conditions worsened, he grew disenchanted with the movement that he once embraced. He gave up what he saw as the false hope that residents of the First World would ever make the kind of sacrifices that might avert the severe consequences of climate change. Full of grief and fury as well as passionate, lyrical evocations of nature and the wild, Confessions of a Recovering Environmentalist gathers the wave-making essays that have charted the change in Kingsnorth’s thinking. In them he articulates a new vision that he calls “dark ecology,” which stands firmly in opposition to the belief that technology can save us, and he argues for a renewed balance between the human and nonhuman worlds. This iconoclastic, fearless, and ultimately hopeful book, which includes the much-discussed “Uncivilization” manifesto, asks hard questions about how we’ve lived and how we should live.
