How to Market Design Consultancy Services Shan Preddy,2017-03-02 The fast-paced nature of the design business means that you probably spend most of your time, energy and resources looking after your clients' needs, not your own. In our current, increasingly competitive marketplace where supply far outstrips demand, no design business will survive for long - let alone grow and develop - without a really effective marketing programme. It is no longer enough for you to provide a good product and simply hope for the best. Potential clients need to know exactly what you can do for them and what makes you different from your competitors. Existing clients need to know exactly why they should develop and continue their business with you. Quite simply, you need to convince design buyers that you are unequivocally the right consultancy for them, time and time again. This second, fully revised and updated, edition of Shan Preddy's popular book will help you to improve your marketing skills, no matter how large or small your design company, or which of the many disciplines you specialise in. Packed full of accessible, practical advice and information, this book is indispensable for all design consultancies.

Summary: Getting Business to Come to You BusinessNews Publishing,2013-02-15 The must-read summary of Paul and Sarah Edwards and Laura C. Douglas' book: Getting Business to Come to You: Everything You Need to Do Your Own Advertising & Sales Promotions. This complete summary of the ideas from Paul and Sarah Edwards and Laura C. Douglas' book Getting Business To Come To You shows that the only truly essential element for a successful business is having enough people to buy your product or service week after week. In other words, marketing is the life blood of any business. Marketing does not necessarily require you to be on the road. The authors suggest that there are effective ways of maintaining a business profile, so that people come to do business with you of their own accord. This requires an effective, high profile strategy that any business can develop for themselves if they use the right techniques. There’s no single magic strategy that works for every business. Marketing will always be an ongoing, experimental process that in the final analysis must stand or fall on its own merits. The key is not to rely on any one method exclusively, but to have a wide range of marketing activities underway all the time. Added-value of this summary: • Save time • Understand the key concepts • Increase your business knowledge To learn more, read Getting Business To Come To You and discover how to grow your business.
