Blue Ink Molly Riggs, 2021-08-30 I realized he was writing over the blue stains, now dry, with new words. Nothing that had been lost couldn't be created again. Blue Ink follows Charlie, a reserved writer coping with the trauma of his childhood, and Levi, a wild partier struggling with loneliness, who meet on their college campus in the chaos of a thunderstorm. Levi makes it his mission to break down Charlie's walls and foster a deeper relationship. But just as Levi learns about the loss of Charlie's brother to addiction, and starts to realize his feelings for Charlie, he begins spiraling with his own drug use. Incredibly dark, unapologetically raw, Blue Ink displays the humanity behind often-stigmatized topics like addiction, sexuality, and trauma. As they learn to navigate their personal challenges together, Charlie and Levi demonstrate the significance of sharing your emotions rather than suppressing them.

Pale Blue Ink in a Lady's Hand Franz Werfel, 2012 This story is about a long suppressed love triangle between Leonidas Tachezy, a high-level Austrian career bureaucrat, his younger, trophy wife Amelie, and a Jewish woman from his past, Vera Wormser, with whom he'd fallen in love when she was fourteen. After his marriage, Leonidas encounters Vera in a German university town where she is studying philosophy. He makes a promise that implies marriage, but drops out of her life entirely to return to a comfortable existence until one day when a letter arrives, addressed with Vera's unmistakable handwriting in pale blue ink. Like Humbert Humbert in Lolita, Leonidas explains his crime against Vera to an imaginary courtroom in a way that anticipates Nabokov.

Blue Ink & Epiphany Anne Kristina Schultz, 2010-10-08 Between the smudges of blue ink and words framing countless epiphanies is a lyrical collection of poetry crafted by Anna Kristina Schultz. Her work addresses topics of nature, love, sorrow, people, and faith using various poetic styles and techniques, aiming to honestly describe events and subjects close to the hearts of many. With a unique perspective, blue ink & epiphany takes you to a quiet place of reflection and inspiration. Home Again Seasons come and seasons go, By and by the years grow old, Houses crumble, new ones rise, In the land of open skies. Days and nights pass away, Leaves fall and then decay, Our children leave for adulthood, Farmers walk where the wheat once stood. While the past holds memory and song, And in the present, our families grow strong. If the future holds love or pain, May we all one day, come home again.

Blue Ink 2016 Northern Writers, 2016-05-25 The 2016 edition of the Blue Ink anthology by the Northern Writers collective at Forest Hills Northern High School in Grand Rapids, MI.

Blue Ink Tess Thompson, 2019-04-29 From USA Today bestselling author Tess Thompson, visit Blue Mountain yet again in this standalone tale that celebrates underdogs, family secrets, and forbidden love. Charlotte Wilde's life is a flop. She gives her heart to the wrong men, her first published book is a failure, and now she's dead broke too. Desperate to pay the bills, she takes a job caring for an elderly woman who is recovering from a broken hip, hopeful the position will leave her with plenty of time to focus on her writing. Yet as Charlotte gets to work, dutifully helping Mrs. Lanigan sort through a box of old letters, distractions abound. For one thing, both women immediately become consumed with a mystery unfolding in the correspondence. And to complicate matters further, Charlotte finds herself drawn to her charge's son, Ardan, like they've known each other forever. Will he become another of her mistakes or has she finally found the one? In the third volume of the Blue Mountain Series, USA Today bestselling author Tess Thompson reunites us with the Lanigan brothers, their cranky mother, and the feisty Heywood sisters. This standalone story of forbidden love and hundred-year old mystery will keep you turning pages way past your bedtime.

With Blue Ink Of The Oceans Anu Joshy, 2016-03-10 "Like a matured painter who is very particular in choosing the right and profound colours to draw a masterpiece, Anu has exhibited abundance of talent as a conscious artist in choosing the right words and putting them at the right place in her compositions for effectively creating the magic of lovely poetic creations"- R. K. Das, Director, Rajya Sabha, Parliament of India ('Of The Lesser Known') "Anu has good talent, command and control of words and has fruitful imagination. The poetess appears to be a sensitive soul which reminds us of the old saying, 'the heart has its own reasons that the head cannot understand"- Dr. Alexander Jacod, I.P.S ('When My Heart Speaks") Anu Joshy's poetry stands out for its universal appeal with great depth of thought, sensitivity to issues, power of expressions and refreshing honesty. It is captivating to see how she entraps the delicate emotions of the human heart and the nuances of relationships in her poems. Her identity and perception as a woman stands out stark in her poetry. Her third collection of poems 'With Blue Ink of the Oceans' is a candid mirror that she holds against her soul and the society. The beauty of her poetry lies in the truth that in that mirror we can see our own reflections.

Blue Ink Tanvi Kulkarni, Northern Writers, Griffyn Williams, 2023-05-02 Blue Ink is the yearly anthology of poetry, prose, and art published by the Northern Writers, a collective of writers and artists at Forest Hills Northern High School in Grand Rapids, MI. In this Rebirth issue of Blue Ink, the 10th edition, the Northern Writers explore who they are and where they're going. For high-school artists, this is a lot to take on. In her poem, Untitled, Tanvi Kulkarni takes on the feeling of oneness surrounded by so much uncertainty. Maria Hillary tells us in The Boy at the Bus Stop that it's not exactly an easy (or sure) path to go it alone. Hillary wonders, I chose instead to stand outside on that chilly day. But what if I had said okay? and we, the readers, identify with the unsureness of the decisions we make in this life as we evolve.

INK: Blue Al K. Line, 2021-09-14 They had peace. Isolation and safety. For the family of three, the years of blissful isolation were taking their toll on young Aiden – he was bored and craved new experiences. A trip was planned; strict limits set concerning time and place. A strange man. Not everybody was bad though, some people were kind, considerate and caring. Weren't they? Then it happened again. Edsel's worst nightmare came back to drag him down once more. The Ink. How much could one man endure? This time it was blue.
