Media Ethics Clifford G. Christians, Mark Fackler, Kathy Richardson, Peggy Kreshel, Robert H. Woods, 2015-07-17 Media Ethics: Cases and Moral Reasoning, Ninth Edition challenges students to think analytically about ethical situations in mass communication by using original case studies and commentaries about real-life media experiences. This market-leading text facilitates and enhances students' ethical awareness by providing a comprehensive introduction to the theoretical principles of ethical philosophies. Media Ethics introduces the Potter Box (which uses four dimensions of moral analysis: definitions, values, principles and loyalties) to provide a framework for exploring the important steps in moral reasoning and analyzing the cases that follow. Focusing on a wide spectrum of ethical issues facing media practitioners, the cases in this new Ninth Edition include the most recent issues in journalism, broadcasting, advertising, public relations and entertainment.

Worship Old and New Robert E. Webber, 2009-12-15
A reexamination of the actual practice of worship that goes beyond the merely academic to provide a practical perspective through the eyes of the worship leader and the congregation. The most effective approach to worship is one that blends historical and traditional practices with contemporary elements. Worship Old and New is a scholarly, up-to-date, and thought-provoking resource for anyone serious about exploring worship and how to bring about a worship renewal in the church. Now reformatted and updated for an easier, more logical approach to worship theology, this revised edition is divided into four major sections, addressing: The biblical foundation of worship—found in the Old and New Testaments as well as the early Christian movement. The biblical theology of worship—how worship is an enactment of the Gospel. A brief history of worship—from ancient and medieval, to twentieth-century renewal. An overview of how worship is practiced—from content and structure, to the role of music and art. New information is incorporated into each section to give you a better grasp of the biblical themes of worship, a deeper understanding of Old Testament customs, and a solid grounding in modern-day renewal movements. This book is ideal for ministerial, classroom, and congregational settings.

Jupiter and Saturn Linda T. Elkins-Tanton, 2006
Explores the orbital movements of Jupiter in the solar system and its internal and external composition, movements, and temperatures, as well as Saturn's ring system. Useful for those interested in understanding the science and history behind the exploration of Jupiter and Saturn, this volume looks into the geological profiles of these planets.

Handbook of Polyethylene Andrew Peacock, 2000-01-20
This text provides the basic history, molecular structure and intrinsic properties, practical applications and future developments of polyethylene production and marketing - including recycling systems and metallocene technology. It describes commercial processing techniques used to convert raw polyethylene to finished products, emphasizing special properties and end-use applications.

Children's Health and the Environment Jenny Pronczuk-Garbino, 2005-01-01 The manual ... is intended as an introductory resource tool for health professionals around the world, and especially in developing countries, who aim to increase their knowledge and understanding of children and environmental health.--P. vii.

The Sun, Mercury, and Venus Linda T. Elkins-Tanton, 2006 Discusses the innermost solar system and the importance of the Sun's energy on orbiting bodies. This volume covers the geological characteristics of Venus in relation to the Sun and the rest of the solar system. It is useful for those interested in understanding the science and history behind the exploration of the three celestial bodies.

Understanding Folk Religion Paul G. Hiebert, R. Daniel Shaw, 2000-01-01 Provides a model for examining the beliefs folk religions around the world and suggests biblical principles missionaries can use to deal with them.

Industrial Pollution & Management Arvind Kumar, 2004 Conflicts 41 Research Papers Relating To Current Environmental Problems Caused By Industrial Pollution And Then Possible Remedies. Useful For Students/Teachers And Researchers In The Field Of Environmental Science.

Healing for Damaged Emotions David A.

Seamands, 2015-03-01 Events in our lives, both good and bad, form rings in us like the rings in a tree. Each ring records memories that affect our feelings, our relationships, and our thoughts about God. In this classic work, David Seamands encourages us to live compassionately with ourselves as we allow the Holy Spirit to heal our past. As he helps us name hurdles in our lives—such as guilt, poor self-worth, and perfectionism—he shows us how we can find freedom from our pain and enjoy the abundant life God wants for us.

Inheriting the World Bruce Allan Gordon, Richard Mackay, Eva Rehfuess, World Health Organization, 2004
 Highly commended in the Public Health Category of the British Medical Association Book

Competition 2005 Every child has the right to live in a healthy supportive environment - an environment that encourages growth and development and protects from disease. Many of the world's children however are exposed to hazards in the very places that should be safest - the home school and community. Considering that their growing bodies are particularly sensitive to environmental threats the final burden of childhood disease is substantial. Every year more than three million children die due to unhealthy environments. This atlas articulates where and why more than three million children die every year due to unhealthy environments. It tackles issues as diverse as the devastating and largely unknown impact of indoor air pollution the unfashionable tragedy of sanitation and complex emerging issues like climate change. Full-color maps and graphics clearly demonstrate the threats that children face everywhere and underscore the impact of poverty on children's health. While this crisis cannot be ignored and demands urgent action, success stories such as the Montreal Protocol show a way forward for the world to make sure that our children will inherit a safer planet and a brighter future.

Volcanism and Global Environmental Change Anja Schmidt, Kirsten Fristad, Linda Elkins-Tanton, 2015-01-08 A multidisciplinary volume describing the effects of volcanism on the environment, past and present, for researchers and advanced students.

A Work of Heart Reggie McNeal, 2011-10-12 Revised and updated edition of the classic work on spiritual leadership In A Work of Heart, bestselling author and missional expert Reggie McNeal helps leaders reflect on the ways in which God is shaping them by letting us see God at work in the lives of four quintessential biblical leaders: Moses, David, Jesus, and Paul. McNeal identifies the formative influences upon these leaders, which he sees as God's ways of working in their lives: the same influences at work today forming leaders for ministry in our times. He explores the shaping influence of culture, call, community, conflict, and the commonplace. Offers guidance for church leaders to let God shape their hearts from the inside out Reggie McNeal is the author of the bestselling book Missional Renaissance Gives reassurance for maintaining perspective while doing the demanding work of ministry The book includes illustrative stories of contemporary leaders opening their hearts to God's guidance.

The Gospel in Human Contexts Paul G.

Hiebert, 2009-06 A leading evangelical anthropologist/missiologist provides students of intercultural ministry with an understanding of worldview and a strategy for effective, long-term ministry.

Practicing Greatness Reggie McNeal, 2010-05-20

From an author and ministry consultant, seven practices for taking your religious leadership from good to great. Often spiritual leaders do not aspire to greatness for fear of seeming to lack humility. Yet greatness in spiritual leadership is just what we need—in our churches, our businesses, in education, in the social sector, in every sector of society. The question is how do good spiritual leaders become great leaders? Based on his extensive experience as coach and mentor to many thousands of Christian leaders across a broad spectrum of ministry settings, Reggie McNeal helps spiritual leaders understand that they will self-select into or out of greatness. McNeal shows how great spiritual leaders are committed intentionally to seven spiritual disciplines, habits of heart and mind that shape both their character and competence: *The discipline of self-awareness—the single most important information a leader possesses *The discipline of self-management—handling difficult emotions, expectations, temptations, as well as mental and physical well-being *The discipline of self-development—a life-long commitment to learning and growing and building on one's strengths *The discipline of mission—maintaining the sense of God's purpose in your life *The discipline of decision-making—knowing the elements of good decisions and learning from failure *The discipline of belonging—nurturing relationships and living in community with others *The discipline of aloneness—the intentional practice of solitude and contemplation “Practicing Greatness is a hard-hitting leadership book.”

—from the Foreword by Ken Blanchard, author of The One-Minute Manager and Lead Like Jesus: Lessons from the Greatest Leadership Role Model of All Time

Earth Jeffrey Jerome Cohen, Linda T. Elkins-Tanton, 2017-03-09 A literary scholar and a planetary scientist look at the Earth as object, viewed from the outside, and as a singular orb that is a challenge to scale and human self-importance.

New Views of the Moon Bradley L. Jolliff, Mark A. Wieczorek, Charles K. Shearer, Clive R. Neal, 2018-12-17 Volume 60 of Reviews in Mineralogy and Geochemistry assesses the current state of knowledge of lunar geoscience, given the data sets provided by missions of the 1990's, and lists remaining key questions as well as new ones for future exploration to address. It documents how a planet or moon other than the world on which we live can be studied and understood in light of integrated suites of specific kinds of information. The Moon is the only body other than Earth for which we have material samples of known geologic context for study. This volume seeks to show how the different kinds of information gained about the Moon relate to each other and also to learn from this experience, thus allowing more efficient planning for the exploration of other worlds.

Transformational Government Great Britain: Cabinet Office, 2005-11-02 This document sets out the strategy to transform the business of government through increased and better use of technology. It is directed at three key areas: (1) the transformation of public services for the benefit of citizens, businesses, taxpayers and front-line staff; (2) the efficiency of the corporate services and infrastructure of government organizations; (3) the steps necessary to achieve effective delivery of technology for government. To achieve this, services must be designed around the citizen or business, not the provider. Government must move to a shared services culture, releasing efficiencies by standardisation, simplification and sharing. And there must be more professionalism in the planning, delivery, management, skills and governance of IT in government. A detailed action plan to implement the strategy will be approved by the Chief Information Officers' Council and the Service Transformation Board, and published before the end of this financial year. Comments on the strategy (by 3 February 2006) are welcomed: itstrategyprojectteam@cabinet-office.x.gsi.gov.uk; Strategy Team, eGovernment Unit, Cabinet Office, 3rd Floor, Stockley House, 130 Wilton Road, London SW1V 1LQ (tel 020 7276 63160)
