Red Cell John Kalkowski,2010-03-29 Will Conlan is an unconventional thinker. After winning a baseball game with an innovative toss of a rosin bag, he catches the interest of a chief operative of the Homeland Security's Analytic Red Cell. Employing the creative problem solving of philosophers, futurists, and Hollywood movie writers, this intelligence unit is seeking any original ideas about anticipating terrorist plots. As a recent surge of terrorist activity undermines these fresh insights, the operative banks on the notion that Will's youthful imagination, unclouded by the premise of it can't be done, may provide the key insight they need and seeks to secretly exploit Will's unhindered out of the box thinking. Unaware of the magnitude of danger surrounding him, Will uncovers something he wasn't supposed to discover a connection between a television advertisement and a master terrorist plot. Narrowly surviving, he alone foils a bombing at Wrigley Field. Uncertain about the knowledge he now holds, he has to figure out the terrorists' next target. Will just doesn't realize it's him.

Shadow Cell Scam Chris Everheart,2009 Each Recon member has just received a new laptop computer -- for free! But is this deal too good to be true?

Cell Buddy Robert Johnson,2012-07-01 Cell Buddy truly is a beautiful story, even without the unexpected twists or surprises. The combination of humor and pathos makes this narrative a classic of its kind. Hans Toch, Emeritus Distinguished Professor of Criminal Justice, State University of New York at Albany, author of Living in Prison.

Tom Clancy's Splinter Cell: Echoes #4 Nathan Edmondson ,2014-09-24 Nathan Edmonson (The Punisher) concludes the Tom Clancy's Splinter Cell: Echoes series from Dynamite! Sam finally confronts Krowe and understands their operations, but this knowledge comes with an immediate and painful cost. Can one man bring down the global terrorists, and stop their leader? Cell 2455, Death Row Caryl Chessman,2009-03-25 In June 1948, 27-year-old petty criminal Caryl Chessman was sentenced in California on two counts of sexual assault, receiving two death sentences as punishment in a case that remains one of the most baffling episodes in American legal history. Maintaining his innocence of these crimes, Chessman lived in Cell 2455, a four-by-ten foot space on Death Row in San Quentin for the twelve years between his sentencing and eventual execution. He spent this time, punctuated by eight separate stays of execution, writing this memoir — a moving and pitiless account of his life in crime and the early life that produced it. Chessman's clarity of mind and ability to bring his thoughts directly to the page, even within the stifling walls of San Quentin, help make this work the most literate and authentic expose ever written by a criminal about his crimes.

The Cell David Case,1969-01

Live from the Cell Block Will Livingston,2022-04 In 2010, artist and musician Will Livingston hit and killed a man while driving drunk and was sentenced to forty years in prison. Over many years, Will built a silk screen machine and began making concert posters for his favorite bands. Live from the Cell Block, dedicated to his victim, includes all of Will's concert posters as well as essays from Adrian Brune, a journalist who covered Will's story, and Wendy Jason, executive director of the Justice Arts Coalition, a non-profit organization that advocates on behalf of incarcerated artists. I had to find some way to redeem my life. Thankfully, I found it, Will said. Will was sent to prison with little hope and managed to turn his life around. His transformation is nothing short of a miracle, Brune added. Live from the Cell Block, published by Brick of Gold in partnership with Justice Arts Coalition, is the remarkable story of Will Livingston and the equally remarkable body of work he created in the most unlikely circumstances.

The Problem of Cell 13 Jacques Futrelle,2018-10-17 The Problem of Cell 13: Large Print By Jacques Futrelle One by one these things sank into the brain of The Thinking Machine. When the last possibility had been considered he began an examination of his cell. From the roof, down the walls on all sides, he examined the stones and the cement between them. He stamped over the floor carefully time after time, but it was cement, perfectly solid. After the examination he sat on the edge of the iron bed and was lost in thought for a long time. For Professor Augustus S. F. X. Van Dusen, The Thinking Machine, had something to think about.

□□□□□□ Jacques Futrelle,2008-04 During a debate Augustus, Professor Van Dusen, insists nothing is impossible when the human mind is properly applied. To prove this, he makes a bet with his friends saying he can escape from any prison cell in a week, and one hour later finds himself locked up in Chisholm Prison.

Michael Vey Richard Paul Evans,2012-07-10 Michael Vey seems like an ordinary teenager, but he has a unique power. After his mother is kidnapped he and his friends have to find his mother and fight the hunters to save other kids with the same powers.

Murder on Cell Block 9 L. D. Webb,2012-02-01 This is the riveting true tale of a small town boy who grew up lusting for power and respect. After Richard Holmes got mixed up in the drug world, everything in his life spun out of control. In September 1987, a drug raid at Richard's home led to the disappearance of a police informant. People throughout Idaho and across the nation were stunned and outraged as the facts in the case began to come out. Conspiracy, kidnapping, and murder were some of the charges Richard Holmes was facing when he was tormented and stabbed to death in an Idaho State Correctional facility. All the while, guards stood outside watching and listening as commanding officials told them to stand down.
